

The Pointer

Soroptimist International of Grosse Pointe

President's Message

May 2017 Edition

To all the selfless women who inspire, motivate and remind us to be a better person every single day:

This is a greeting from a Mother's Day card, but I want to dedicate it to our Soroptimist International Women all over the globe, and especially to our Region, our District and our SIGP club! Whether you are a mother or grandmother, you certainly had a mother and/or grandmother, and you hopefully felt that influence. If it was a good experience, perhaps, some of that inspiration is what makes you a Soroptimist today.

Mother's Day is a day about appreciation, but the woman who really started the celebration had no children. She wanted to appreciate her mother. In 1914, it was declared a national holiday in the United States, and many countries throughout the world celebrate such a holiday, although, not all on the same day.

This message is all about appreciation! I want to thank our SIGP members who made possible the receipt of many awards at our Midwestern Region Spring Conference held in Sandusky, Ohio at the Kalahari Resort and Convention Center April 22-24, 2017. Our club was awarded certificates of participation for the Celebration of Success in Membership, Fundraising and Program. We also won the Spotlight Award for Membership Retention and Growth Success. Our club was recognized with the Governor's Award of Excellent Performance in all aspects of the Region Strategic Plan! In a word, we are an "awesome" club, and I want all of you to know your contributions to our success are appreciated!

In addition to our success at the Region Spring Conference, we continue to inspire and motivate in our community. We just concluded our second of three, Dream It Be It, mentoring meetings at a high school in Fraser, Michigan. Next week we will conclude and celebrate our program with our high school students. Next Tuesday, we will be packing our Mother's Day bags for the women at Positive Images at the Grosse Pointe Woods Library. I understand we will be packing bags for over 60 women and letting them know we appreciate them. It may be the only "gift" they receive on Mother's Day, but certainly our parenting classes and other programs will go a long way to support them, too.

Don't forget our Dine Around Town raffle! We are in the process of gathering our gift certificates for our auction!! We have many already and continue to add to the bundles! Do the best you can and I am sure it will be another very successful fundraiser! I was able to get 2 today!!

Our first of the season, Second Hand Sale, is happening as we speak and will be over at noon this Saturday. Diana Langlois graciously volunteered to host this event. It is a labor intensive endeavor by many members but also quite successful! We hope for the very best ever and want to send our appreciation to all those members who have participated!

Finally, our next fun-raiser, is the Cycle Boat Tour on the Detroit River on June 21, 2017! A little birdie told me there are only 5 spaces remaining!! Please reserve your spot or live to regret it!

The women of Soroptimist are appreciated today and always! They do as much as they can to help and promote women throughout the world and in our own communities.

Thank you members of SIGP and beyond!

Your presidents,
Ross and Roseanne

Spring Conference

Roseanne, Paula and Karrie presenting SIGP's certificates of participation for the Celebration of Success in Membership, Fundraising and Program.

Spring Conference 2017 with Karrie Blankenship, Paula Davis, and Roseanne Horne

Our weekend started off early with a continental breakfast Saturday morning at 7:00 am. After breakfast Roseanne and myself tended the sales table while Paula, a first timer at spring conference mingled with region members. Promptly at 9am the meeting was called to order and the conference was under way. After a brief summary of credential reports, the adoption of Standing Rules, the Agenda and other business we were off to the workshops.

Paula attended Workshop B, Midwestern Region 101: What you always wanted to know about your region board. Paula commented on how informative this workshop was, especially being new to Soroptimists. She now has a better understanding about Soroptimist and our mission.

Karrie and Roseanne working at SI Grosse Pointe's table selling fleeces and tote bags.

Roseanne attended the Leadership workshop and I attended Show Me The Money!

After Saturday's box lunch, the Live Your Dream and Virginia Wagner Awards were given, and speeches made. Sara Baker, SIGP's Live Your Dream award winner was awarded her certificate and a check for $5000, her family and professor were in attendance. Once the afternoon activities were completed and workshops finished we had a few hours to ourselves until dinner. After dinner, the SI Governor Awards were given out and again, SIGP received the Award of Excellence! Ladies, you should be very proud of yourselves for achieving this award.

Sunday morning breakfast began at 7:30 am. Roseanne attended the President's Breakfast. The general business meeting began at 9:00 am with an Inspirational message from our own President, Roseanne Horne. Click here for a link to the video of her speech. SIGP was also highlighted in the Memorial tributes of all the Soroptimist women who passed away this year. Our 4 deceased members were remembered with a picture and a brief summary of their Soroptimist involvements. Many members in attendance remembered Ann Cunningham and Lee Meyer with fondness and admiration for their lifelong commitment to Soroptimist. After some brief business items and an entertaining announcement of Spring Conference 2018 in Lisle, Illinois (near Naperville- outside Chicago), it was time for the Basket Raffles. Conference ended at about 10:30 am and we were on our way home by 11:00 am. It was a very busy and jam packed weekend but fun to see our fellow Soroptimist friends!

Programs & Services - Ghana Girls

Dear SIGP Sisters:

I would like to share a little more of the writings of our girls in Ghana. Here is most of the essay responding to the question below from one of our newest girls who is starting her first year at St. Anne. Clearly she had trouble with studies in primary school, was very poor, and somehow was thinking that because other students had more money they made better grades. Her dad helped change her thinking, gave her time off from household duties to study, helped her to focus, and now she is doing better. I did not make corrections on this piece. Better to understand the students at their present level, and then we can continue to root for them as they improve. Keep in mind that English is her second language and may be spoken rarely in her village and perhaps not spoken at home.

What is something you appreciate about your parents and family?

Francisca Anobila

What I appreciate most in my family and parents is encouragement, although their poor but they try their best to encourage me in what ever or where ever I found myself, most especially in my education.

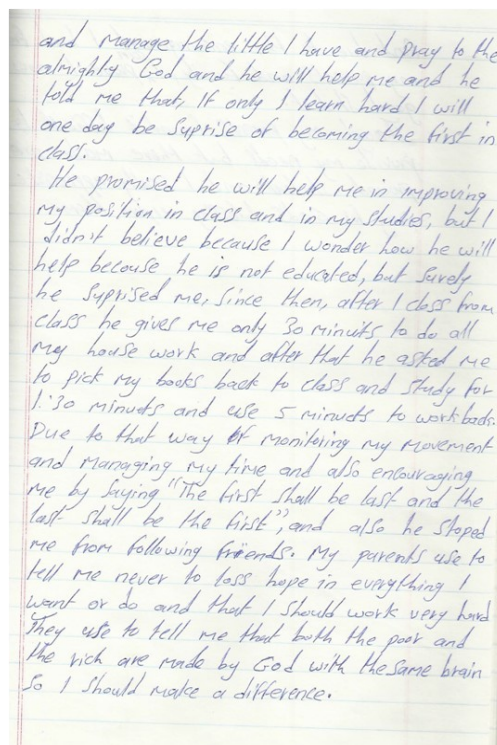

Back at Primary when I was in class five (5) I use to be the last in most of the subject and due to this I really stoped schooling because I thought I could not make it inmy education. One day I told my parents that I will not go to school again because I'm not good, my father asked me how I got to know that, and I told him that anytime we write an exam I'm always the last. So he told me that I should make it in my mind that I will pass and surely I will make it. He asked me that how do my friends pass and why can't I copy their way of learning and I told him that my friends always have money in their pocket when in school so that they can buy whatever they want and also their parents cook for them to bring to school and they ware new uniforms and shoes every two months...my parents encourage me by saying "my dear I can see a bright future in you if you go to school. So please don't copy what their waring and doing but only copy their way of training" he told me to forget about all them and manage the little I have and pray to the almighty God and he will help me and he told me that, if only I learn hard I will one day be surprise of become the first in class.

He promised he will help me inimproving my position in class and in my studies but I didn't believe because I wonder how he will help because he is not educated, but surely he surprised me since then, after I close from class he gives me only 30 minutes to do all my house work and after that he asked me to pick up my books back to class and study for 1:30 minutes and use 5 minutes to work book.

Due to that way of monitoring my movement and managing my time and also encouraging me by saying "The first shall be last and the last shall be first", and also he stoped me from following friends. My parents use to tell me never to loss hope in everything I want or do and that I should work very hard. They use to tell me that both the poor and the rich are made by God with the same brain so I should make a difference. And due to the encouragement I had from my parents and family I can prove I now am a good student.

Though my parents found it difficult to provide my needs but there made me a pround student, and I really appreciate and pray for God's blessing upon them.

and manage the little I have and pray to the almighty God and he will help me and he told me that, if only I learn hard I will one day be surprise of becoming the first in class.

He promised he will help me in improving my position in class and in my studies, but I didn't believe because I wonder how he will help because he is not educated, but surely he surprised me. Human Trafficking Awareness

Human Trafficking Awareness Education Video

On Wednesday, April 26th several members of SIGP attended the premiere viewing of an education video for health care providers on Human Trafficking Awareness called "Making the Invisible Visible". This movie was produced by the Wayne County Medical Society Foundation, which is the same organization which produced the video, "Stuck in Traffic", an educational video for high school and college age students. Many interested in the Human trafficking cause were in attendance, such as Deena Policicchio from Alternative for Girls, Kelly Carter who is a Wayne county prosecutor, Leslie King who is a Human trafficking survivor, Dr.

Beals who is the WCMS Foundation chair as well as SIGP members Aleksa Andjelkovic, Mary Ellen Burke, Carol Hofer, Geny Senior and myself. The video was very informative. Hopefully it will become readily available for health care providers to learn from.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR EDITOR

As some of you may already be aware, I am the Webmaster and editor of the newsletter, The Pointer. I have been the editor for 6 years now and have transformed the newsletter many times. I try to recreate a new look every year to keep it interesting, but the one thing I have not changed is our "Bulletin Board" page. This page is for our members to acknowledge someone who has accomplished something special in their life, has an item they're looking to sell or maybe has a product they sell as a second income. The point is, the "Bulletin Board" is for non Soroptimist news, however is news worthy to a Soroptimist member.

From time to time we are often looking for a certain item; maybe we are trying sell or rent a vacation house/timeshare. This is when the "Bulletin Board" would come in handy. A few years ago one of our members made a statement about how Soroptimist is about helping women, but what about us Soroptimist? We're women! So, our board members (which I was a member of at the time) came up with the idea to have a page in our newsletter for just US! This page would be strictly for non Soroptimist information such as: Looking to buy, For Sale, or other news we would like share.

I hope to encourage all of you to read our newsletter, The Pointer.

Our members put a lot of time and effort into writing article for all of us to read. Please take a few moments to read your Newsletter!!

SOROPTIMIST
Best for Women®

SOMETHING ALL WOMEN SHOULD BE AWARD OF!

ELIMINATION OF DOWER IN MICHIGAN

On January 6, 2017, Michigan Governor Rick Snyder signed into law a package of bills eliminating statutory and common law dower rights. The law takes effect on April 7, 2017, with an exception made for dower rights elected by a woman whose husband died before the law's effective date.

BACKGROUND

The concept of a dower interest in real property dates back centuries to a time when women could not own property or amass personal wealth. In Michigan, dower rights were the traditional rights a widow had to elect on her husband's death, to claim for her life possession and use, a one-third interest in any real estate titled in her late husband's name. Prior to the new law, Michigan was one of the few states to continue to recognize dower and was the only state that still granted dower rights exclusively to women. The Supreme Court's 2015 decision in Obergefell v. Hodges held that all states must recognize same-sex marriages; complications related to the application of dower rights in the context of same-sex marriage may have been the impetus for the Michigan legislature to pass the package of bills to abolish dower rights.

WHAT THE ELIMINATION OF DOWER MEANS FOR MICHIGAN RESIDENTS

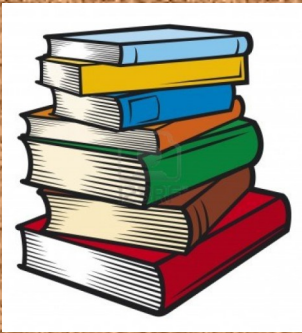

- Spouses that hold property in their name alone will be free to transfer the property without the signature of the other spouse
 - Both spouses must still join in the execution of a non-purchase money mortgage on their "marital home-stead" (principal residence) regardless of who is in title.
 - Documents presented for recording must still state the marital status of all male grantors.
 - Judgments of divorce and separate maintenance no longer include a provision in lieu of dower
- Generally speaking, the new laws will simplify and provide more certainty in Michigan real estate transactions. If you have any questions, please contact our office.

Greetings!

You are invited to the Empower 2017 conference, May 24, 2017 at Western Michigan Thomas Cooley Law School in Auburn Hills, MI.

The conference features Heather Stockdale, Executive Director & Co-Founder of Georgia Cares, the statewide coordinating agency for child victims of sex trafficking and exploitation in Georgia. Heather will be joined by local experts who will provide specialized break-out sessions (see more info link below).

We hope you will join us as we work toward providing more comprehensive care for human trafficking survivors in Michigan.

In January MAP held our 2017 Round Table in which over 80 service providers and advocates attended. The feedback was overwhelming that participants desired more networking opportunities as well as more specialized training. The 2017 Empower Conference is designed to provide that.

Registration is required. Register early as space is limited. Early bird pricing ends May 1.

DESCRIPTION

The Historic Indian Village Home and Garden Tour Committee is pleased to once again host a TWO DAY tour in celebration of the successful restoration of its historic street-light system.

The historic overhead streetlights were installed over 100 years ago, circa 1910, and they have recently been beautifully restored. Additionally, the Lighting the Future by Preserving the Past streetlight restoration project has been selected to receive the 2016 Governor's Award for Historic Preservation. Please come and enjoy the beautiful homes, the neighborhood and the original "Detroit Style" streetlight in all its glory.

You can join us on either Saturday or Sunday to view 6 historic homes, 2 gardens, 3 churches, and 2 schools.
