

OUR 2010 SCHOLARSHIP AWARD CO-RECIPIENT

daddy's little girl
scholarship foundation

I believe that I should be the 2010 “Daddy’s Little Girl” scholarship recipient because I am striving for excellence in reaching my educational goals. In addition to striving for excellence in my own experiences, I have attempted to help others reach for the stars as well by helping others work through issues that can cause unnecessary stress while in a learning environment such as helping others with their self esteem, home problems and shortcomings. During my high school career I have participated in many different activities involving community service. By participating as a Rhoer in the Rhoer Club which is an affiliation of Sigma Gamma Rho sorority, I have given guidance to others and played a big part in helping my community on numerous events. I also have participated in the youth fund distribution committee sponsored by the United Way Organization which distributed money to children in need so that they are able to partake in uplifting activities. I have been supported by many, but my father has been my main supporter throughout my life and especially my high school activities. Whenever I felt stressed my father is always there to help me push through and continue to strive for excellence. Since childhood I have always been a daddy’s girl and I have always tried to make my father proud. But as an alternative my father has always taught me to always try my best and that when I do I not only make him proud but myself as well of who I am and what I have and can achieve. I have been accepted in to the STEM school of Youngstown State University and I plan to attend this fall. My major is Information Technology and I hope to become a successful engineer and be an asset to the technological community in today’s society. While attending Youngstown State University I know that my father will be there to cheer me on as he always has and along with his positive influence, I will continue to reach for excellence as I achieve my goals. I thank you for allowing me to express myself in this forum and for taking the time to consider me as a candidate for the 2010 “Daddy’s Little Girl” Scholarship recipient.
