Courtney Sproule

At the age of three, Courtney followed in the footsteps of her older siblings and took her first dance class. Since then, she hasn't stopped moving and has turned her love of dance into an amazing career. She formally trained in Calgary, and has furthered her dance education in Los Angeles, New York and London. Courtney has performed throughout Australia, New Zealand, England, France and the United States at venues such as EuroDisney, Walt Disney World and Universal Studios.

At the age of 20, Courtney opened her first dance studio and juggled it with a full-time role as a communications and marketing professional.

She now focuses full time on developing dancers and directing Snap Dance Studios. Courtney has been teaching dance for over 20 years and has taken her students on performance tours to Disneyland, all-inclusive resorts in Mexico, England, New York City and aboard Carnival Cruise Lines. She has also adjudicated throughout Alberta, Saskatchewan, Ontario and Nova Scotia. Courtney is an ADAPT and Acrobatic Arts certified dance instructor, and holds a Communications Degree.

The combination of her passion, dedication and business sense has resulted in numerous awards for Snap Dance Studios including: Employer of the Year, Ambassador of the Year, and being voted Best Art/Music/Dance Instruction in her community twelve years in a row. Courtney has been an ambassador for Lululemon Athletica, and voted "Best Local Entrepreneur" for three years in a row. She has been profiled in the book "Dance Studio Secrets: 65 Ways To Build A Thriving Studio" by Clint Salter, and in 2019 won two awards: Dance Studio Owner of the Year (Canada's National Academy of Dance Education) and Balance Award (Dance Studio Owners Association).

She looks forward to seeing all the talent and heart at Glam Dance Competition!
