Cladis.

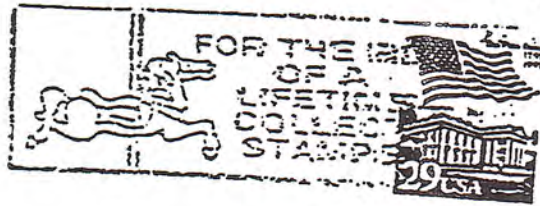

I want to apologize to all of you for the incident at camp Tuesday night. It showed a flaw in my character that must be corrected, and it must begin to do that immediately.

There is a great amount of trust placed in a man who works with young people as I did, and I related it. I am ashamed of this as I have let everyone down from the Scouts through my own family. It is now up to me to change my life.

As of Tuesday I will have resigned all my positions with the Scouts and will exempt myself from future Scout activities. I will turn over the Philmont account to one of the other advisers as soon as I can find one to take it.
