

ANNABELL WIEDERHOLD

1921 - 1995

Annabell Wiederhold, 74 of Elkton, died Saturday afternoon, Dec. 30, 1995, at Scheurer Hospital in Pigeon following an apparent heart attack.

She was born Feb. 22, 1921 in Caseville, daughter of the late Russell and Ella Rose (Smith) Grigg. She was united in marriage to Phil G. Wiederhold in March 1942.

Mrs. Wiederhold lived in Elkton most of her life, where she raised her family. She enjoyed sewing and making crafts which she lovingly gave to her family and friends.

She was a member of the Community Wesleyan Church in Elkton.

Surviving are her husband, Phil; four sons, Gordon of St. Louis, Ed (Mary) and Doug (Michelle) of Elkton, and John (Betsy) of Pigeon; five daughters, Alice (Vernon) Birchfield of Leander, Tex., Donna (Jim) Sherwood, Connie Wiederhold, Laura (Bill) Prill and Rose (Dennis) Karastee, all of Elkton; 32 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; five brothers, Robert (Grata) Grigg of Bad Axe, Loren (Tiny), Leonard (Betty) and Carl Grigg, all of Elkton, and Jeff (Adeline) Griff of Imley City; six sisters, Ella Mae Hollinshead, Ilene (Ken) Young, Lucille (Ken) Schamber, and Dorothy Bouverette, all of Elkton, Jean (Joe) Kuhn of Marion, Ohio, and June Nicol of Deford.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Lily Jackson, two grandchildren, Jim Wiederhold and Ashley Prill and a sister, Shirley Grigg.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, Jan. 2 at Community Wesleyan Church in Elkton, with Rev. DeWeerd Smith, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Riverside Cemetery, Elkton.

Champagne Funeral Chapel in Elkton handled arrangements.

Memorials may be made to the Community Wesleyan Church.