JUNIOR CODERS (Age 5-7)

Children will experience how coding can help develop logical thinking, creative exploration, and critical reasoning – used in almost every field across STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math). Exclusive program using Google's block-based language "Blockly". Designed for children to start understanding the fundamentals of code in a fun and engaging way. Stacking together programming components, such as actions, events, and operators.

CODING for KIDS & TEENS (Age 7-18)

By getting "under" the interface, we learn about the processes that control it. As the developer of their game, students find their innovative potential through our curriculum as they progressively master their skills in Python, GML, C#, and C++ on the GMlegacy, Unity, Unreal, and Visual Studio engines.

Note: A laptop with WiFi is required for this class. Otherwise a rental can be arranged.
