How to Lose Your Destiny, One Common Way

May 1, 2017

Lord, I beg of You, grant us all teachable spirits, that we may be instructed by whatever vessel You place beside us, and that with their spiritual friendship we may learn Your ways and secure our destinies in You. Amen

I want to begin by mentioning that the Lord calls some to extraordinary missions but if they are not extraordinarily humble and patient, they may never be fit to carry those missions out. I have seen this in my own life.

But in this situation that I'm going to uncover for you, there are several Heartdwellers who have been hurt, scandalized and disappointed by the failure of another well-meaning and much loved person. This is the spiritual journey with God that is the most trying and calls for the utmost compassion, understanding and forgiveness. Not to even begin to mention wisdom and not placing false hope in any one person.

I have shared my experiences with discernment on this channel from the very beginning because in my life, one of the most painful things to deal with is not knowing which way to go. Not knowing which way was up, which way was down, which way was forward or backwards. Who I was hearing in the Spirit. What I was learning from a teacher or the Scriptures. And the most important thing, for me, is to know the truth. And we can only know the truth through our relationship with the Lord, and the souls that He brings alongside us to help us in this journey.

Because I want to see you all capable of receiving life-giving direction from the Lord and not have a need for anyone to stand in the Lord's place and 'be their Holy Spirit.' That's one reason I do not answer requests for a "word" from the Lord. In previous lessons, I have given you the tools to get your own word.

I am merely a soul of many years who is sharing their failures and triumphs with you, and how the Lord has led me. And there is an old Celtic tradition - a soul friend. Someone who comes alongside us in our journey and has been down some of these rugged paths before and can help us through the maze of decisions we have to make. And warn us of the traps up ahead. That's a beautiful tradition. And that's really the position I feel that I'm in.

We have but One Teacher, God and His triune personhood. And the rest of us are learners. Matt 23:8

I am giving you an introduction to this next video on God fever, which I did several months ago, because I want to lay the ground work for the whole story - which is up coming. We have had an extraordinary soul, brand new Christian come through the Channel. I saw the potential in this person and the Lord asked me to cover and guide them. Believe me, I tried. Some people who are highly intelligent, gifted in many different ways and have a big heart for others... Well, they don't do well with a high school dropout like myself, counseling them about the perils that lie before them.

And this story is a lesson to us all to never, ever disdain those who are mature in the Lord and have had many years of experience being sifted by the enemy and refined in the refiner's fire.

Unfortunately, this lesson was prophetic back then some months ago - and this soul has been given over to a Spirit of Deception, with their own consent. It truly is, for the time being, a difficult ending.

But the Lord NEVER abandons us, we just get to go 'round the mountain again...and again ... and again.... Until we either get it right or die. Or hopefully are raptured! It took me the full 40 years and I don't want this to happen to any of you, Heartdwellers, so please take this parable to heart.

Gold/God Fever
January 6, 2017

Well, my dear Heartdwellers...I pray for all of you to have wisdom, docility and humility that is necessary for a minister of the Gospel. I have told you earlier in messages that the Lord trains His prophets and ministers through breakings and trials to work a deeper level of humility into our souls, as well as ascending the mountain with Him.

Not all are fortunate enough to have a spiritual parent. But for those of you who are, please don't ever take them for granted or look down on them. If God has put one soul in your life who can guide you, you are a very blessed individual and it's because you have a high calling that He sends those more mature in the Lord to caretake your souls.

Tonight, the Lord gave me a parable for just such situations and asked me to share it with you.

The Parable of the Gold Miner.

There once was a man who had mined gold for 40 years and he knew the mountains and mine shafts like the back of his hand - better than anyone else in the territory. He was an old salt, seasoned in his ways, quiet for the most part and wise to the lure of gold and where it can take a man. He'd made his fortune alright, but preferred a quiet, retired life to the partying and carrying on in the bars in town.

He had invested in some hotels and land in the town, and managed things with great fairness.

Now, his nephew (his brother's son) was a geology major and he came from San Francisco, on fire with gold rush fever. He was a precocious young man who had studied geology in the University and was very accomplished with a doctorate. But he heard how his uncle had struck it rich in the gold country and all he wanted was wealth to add to his academic accomplishments. So, he showed up in the bustling town of Sacramento, eager to try his hand at mining in the Sierra Nevadas.

Taking his accumulated earnings and loans from his father, he invested in supplies and equipment and soon began blasting and tunneling into the Sierra Nevada mountains, searching for that vein that would bring him a fortune. One day, his uncle paid him a visit and was taken on a tour of the mine shafts.

The old man was eager to encourage his nephew, who had made remarkable progress in pressing into the areas where gold bearing ore was most likely to be found. As they descended further into the shaft, the uncle began to notice that the buttresses were not solid enough to hold the tremendous weight of the ground above. Furthermore, he saw signs of a water table seeping into the tunnel that made a left fork from the main shaft. There had been traces of gold ore picked out of the walls of that tunnel that held much promise of a larger deposit further ahead.

He remained quiet for most of the tour, until the young man finally pressed him for his opinion. "Well! What do you think? Doesn't it look promising? Haven't I made remarkable progress?"

The old man cleared his throat nervously as he gathered the right words. "Oh, it looks promising all right. You've made some amazing progress in the few short months you've been here and you're onto a vein all right."

Yet the reserve in the old man's voice made him nervous. "But...? There's something wrong? We've bought the choicest lumber for the buttresses. And we are discovering signs of gold up ahead. What could be wrong?"

"Well," he hesitated. "For the most part, yes, it looks good. But I'm concerned that last 50 feet before the fork. Well, it looks pretty skimpy. You need bigger timbers in there. I wouldn't go any further 'til you shore it up. And that's not all. That tunnel to the left spells trouble. Moisture on the walls tells me you're headed smack into the water table. If you breach that wall, you and all your men will be instantly killed. The problem is, there's no telling where that water table is or at what depth. But it's there all right. Just look at the sweat on those walls."

Just then one of the miners came running towards the men, "We've struck it rich!!! We've found the vein, it's getting bigger. We found it!" He danced around, threw his hat in the air and shouted "Woo Hoo!!! We found that vein - we're getting' closer!"

The nephew asked, "Where?"

"In that left fork, Boss, just like you said. In that left fork, and it's a honey of a load of gold. It's gonna be a big one, make you rich beyond all tell'n!"

The young man looked at the old miner with a sense of 'I told you so!' on his face. "We're almost there." he said to his elder. "We're going to strike it big, just a few more feet, we can't stop now!"

But his uncle was quiet. This was his brother's son, a precocious man; confident, outspoken and self-assured. He remembered, back when he first came to the gold fields, another miner very much like him. Business man. But that man was not so lucky. He died when his tunnel caved in 269 feet down. Never did recover his body. That man, too, had been in a big hurry and skimped on timbers to shore up the shafts.

Now his nephew was headed for certain disaster, but there was no way to get through to him. He had gold fever and couldn't see anything but dollar signs. The uncle remained quiet.

"Don't you see? We can't stop now. Just a few more feet to get to the motherlode."

"Oh, I see alright. I see that you're going to break in through that water table and be crushed and trapped in that watery grave. Don't do it, son. Don't do it. It's too risky."

Well, they parted company and the old uncle returned to Sacramento to his hotel businesses. A week later, some miners came in badly shaken and went straight to the bar and ordered doubles - drinking it down just as fast as they could pour them.

“What’s going on with you men? Did you see a ghost?”

They answered, “Didn’t you hear? That young man from San Francisco that had a big education and was so bright and sure he’d strike it rich? He went plum through to the water table and drowned when them tunnels caved in on him beneath the water pressure. We tried to tell him. We quit that outfit because we knew trouble was coming and we weren’t about to lose our lives down there.”

The old man started sobbing, “That was my nephew. I tried to tell him, I tried. But he was just too smart for an old man with no education, like me. He was just too smart, he wouldn’t listen. Oh, I tried alright. I tried to tell him something weren’t right about that sweat on the walls. Now I have to be the one to tell my brother - his son is gone. He's dead.”

So, what is the moral to this story? Well, it seems obvious that the moral is: Pay Attention to those who have more experience in an area than you do. Because they're looking out for you, and they can look ahead and see when trouble is coming.

There's not a whole lot of difference between gold fever and God fever. Once we've caught the Spirit, once the Lord starts loading us with gifts and we begin to see mountains move - it's exciting. We want more. We don't want to stop.

But sometimes the Lord sends people ahead of us, to warn us that there's trouble up ahead. I just pray that we'll listen. Pay attention and try to be humble, docile and consider things that maybe make no sense to you now, but looking back on the position of that person in your life, it's important to listen.

And never take for granted, when the Lord sends someone your way to help you. Don't take it for granted. Pray that the Lord gives you a humble and docile spirit. And that you listen to good, sound council. And not spurn people because they look less intelligent or less gifted than you. I made that mistake once in my marriage and I paid dearly for it.

So, for all of us, let's keep an eye on that pride and be docile with those the Lord sends to help you. I'm not talking about authority figures smooshing you down and giving you a hard time. I'm talking about people that love and care for you and have wisdom from above and experience. And can see when you are headed for a problem.

Love you all, Heartdwellers! Thank you so much for contributing to our ministry. You've really helped us stay afloat and take care of the things that we have, the needs that we have. And we've been able to help some of the very poor families with their electric bills this month. They were on the verge of having their electricity cut off.

We've got a big snowstorm headed this way and today we were able to get some wood for some families that had no firewood at all. Probably 8 or 9 families in all. And now they have firewood before this storm hits. It's really important. It breaks your heart sometimes, to hear how these families are living. They're burning sagebrush to stay warm. They have little children and no running water. It's rough! Really rough out there.

But thanks be to God, because of your generosity, we were able to buy firewood for the most needy families out on the mesa. We really appreciate your support, it keeps us going smoothly, running smoothly and take care of those around us. And that's what the Lord has called us to do.

The Lord bless you all, Heartdwellers.

Our Time Together Has Been Under Attack

May 4, 2017

Dear Lord, deliver us from this invading enemy advance and give us the wisdom to take control and contain it outside the walls of our interior castle and our special place that we occupy with You, Lord, in our prayer time.

My dear Heartdwellers, we are all under a very specific kind of attack right now. Namely: being thrown off our schedules and keeping us from prayer. The enemy has set snares every few feet in our lives to keep us out of prayer.

For me, it has been plumbing issues, and a severe situation with a lady who had a wonderful ministry but needed help with a demonic infestation and is terrible oppressed. And that's something we're working through right now, trying to help her. Anyway, she has taken a very large portion of my time. And I believe that from this point on I can be back here as I should be.

I don't know what it's been in your lives that has caused you to stay out of that sweet place in prayer, but if it's been happening to you, please repent and take a firm hold of any obstacles that are presenting themselves to get in your way.

It is our intimate connection with the Lord that brings about all good things, and protects us from wrong decisions and motives that are not entirely pure. It is His sweet exchange, heart to heart, that purifies us daily while the enemy tries to defile us daily. I am having to look at that one very carefully and for the last week we have been hit with one emergency after another with a particular soul. And I tried to keep it confined, but since it was an attack on the unity of the channel, it was really messy.

So, that's being resolved, but I can see that a good three weeks before May 1 - which is one of the enemy's holidays - the time leading up to it is a time of spiritual assault on Christians. And in the period directly afterwards, curses of all kinds are released on Christians to bring them down. And I believe one of the biggest - if not the main attack - is going to be on time with the Lord, intimate time. Making it impossible to be with Him by engineering one incident after another to interrupt that time and take us away from Him.

That said, I apologize for not taking everything in hand earlier, and putting a stop to some of these things that seem like they are unstoppable! I mean - how to you deal with a toilet that's overflowing! It's messy, no matter how you look at it. Fortunately, it hasn't gotten to that point, but it's threatening... And we're trying to get ahold of that before it really disrupts the house.'

This is a small house that we live in. It's six rooms and they're all very small rooms. An adobe. A typical adobe. And just having one stranger in the house changes the whole ambience of what's going on. So, it's very difficult to isolate and compartmentalize when you need that private time. My room is right next to the kitchen, as a matter of fact. So, it can be pretty challenging to have peace and quiet. To really be able to rest in the Lord.

And there's a point well taken! Talking about interruptions...

(voice speaking indistinguishable)

Yes, she does! Are you...where are you looking? Uh, no - it's in the Marie Calendar section I think, which is (other voice) No, it's not Eating Well. No, it's not. It's another brand. I can't think of any other brand it would be. You're gonna have to ask the manager, okay. And have them look it up. Okay? All right. Thank you, honey.

Ah...Marie Calendar's Vermont cheddar macaroni and cheese! Just the perfect comfort food for the end of a day!

Moving right along...

That said - I apologize for not taking everything in hand earlier and putting a stop to some of these things that seem like they're unstoppable.

Lord, what do You have for us?

Jesus began, "Clare is right and there is a plan afoot to derail your spiritual life away from Me and into the world. Forewarned is forearmed. My children, do not see interruptions in your daily routine as just 'life.' They are not just life; they are warfare. And deadly attempts to wrench you out of My arms. Not all at once, but little by little.

"Little by little adds up to a LOT. Have you ever noticed how $100 looks like a lot of money until you go to the grocery store and walk out with a few items of food? Somehow that $100 has disappeared and you have very little to show for it.

"Well, that is how the enemy steals Me away from you. Except he does it with time. Little blocks of time strategically placed to disrupt the whole day. And you think to yourselves, 'Well, that's ok. I'll just double up on time with the Lord tomorrow.'"

That's me speaking, 'cause that's what I think.

Jesus continued, "And tomorrow begins with another set of interruptions that again ruins your time with Me. This is NOT life, this is WAR!

"You are under attack and the most important thing in your life is being targeted - your relationship with Me. You see, once they accomplish this slow separation - which goes from one or two days to one or two weeks almost overnight - once they accomplish that, your judgement is no longer sound, your decisions are no longer holy, your attitude is no longer patient and long-suffering and kind. Impatience gets in. Not just with those outside of you but with yourselves. You begin to condemn yourself and that spreads to others until you are in a negative spiral.

"I am calling on you now to grab hold of this invasive monster and kick it out of your life. Refuse it the space to operate. See it for what it is and portion your time off with a protective wall. A high wall with towers, to see the advancing enemy and put him on the run with arrows of Truth. Do not let him scale that wall and overtake you. Put him on the run with prayer, deliverance prayers.

"Take back what is yours - the sweet time we share with one another and allow Me to equip you for your day. Know that I have missed you terribly. I long to be with you every day and when these attacks come, I wait for you to recognize the enemy at foot and put him in his place outside of your life.

"Come then My dearest ones. Come close to Me. Let Me embrace you and forgive your lapses in spending time with Me. Here in My arms you will find heavy artillery against the enemy. You will find clear strategies and most of all you will find rest for your soul. Throw off this wall of invasions against our privacy and rest in My profound love for you."

When It's Time To Let Go

May 5, 2017

May the Sweet consolation of Our Savior, Jesus, comfort and strengthen our hearts.

Dear ones, when we have labored on behalf of a soul and they do not receive it...do you know, those graces are not wasted? The Lord applies them elsewhere to another soul, who will respond. In Chronicles of the Bride, our first book, there is a chapter devoted to this very theme, Graces Dispensed on Your Behalf, March 9th 2007. If you get a chance to read it, it will answer some important questions about what happens when you labor for a soul and they do not receive the graces.

Jesus began, "When you've done everything possible in a situation and nothing changes, it is time to let go. When you have invested your whole self and nothing budges, it is time to cut the mooring rope and let it drift away.

"You have been through some very turbulent weeks and even months and you have honored My wishes in each situation. Now it is time to put it behind you. Commit it to Me. I am still sovereign. A process has been begun; it is not yours to see it to completion. It is yours to obey and honor My timing, My season. In other words, I will not contend with man forever. Eventually, I will allow them to go their own way.

"I know you are wondering (and this has to do with the soul we were laboring for) I know you are wondering if ever there was any sincerity there. There was. But the soul rashly stepped into water over their heads, thinking they could conquer the world. My children, there are boundaries that I have drawn for you in your sphere of life. If you have been following Me for a while, these boundaries are very secure.

"Nonetheless, a soul tends to get restless and wants to take on more territory than they are ready for. When one does that, they put themselves in extreme danger and compromise. Just because you have success in one area does not mean it is given to you to press in to all areas without prudence.

“When a soul wants to be right, a million justifications are given for whatever course of action they take. Such a soul is very easy to deceive, because they can easily be flattered into believing that what they want to do is given them from above. That is not the case at all, My dear ones. With a spirit of ambition, the soul easily loses sight of the boundaries I have drawn for them. The sky is the limit and they go charging ahead.

“You could not see this coming, but you saw other things coming: warning signs. And what you saw indeed happened. It grieves Me to see one of Mine falling under a cloud of self-will and self-aggrandizement. This is why I am so slow in giving out promotions and rewards. There is nothing more dangerous to oneself than an overly confident spirit. You have seen the effects of this recklessness before, in your own life.

“My children, when I give you a gift you must hold it close to your heart. If you go about broadcasting and bragging about it, a thief lying in wait will surely despoil you of it. The more you talk, the more you advertise, the more you advance in your gift without an eye to prudence, the more likely you are to lose it.

“I wish for you to prosper in the gifts I give you, but do not allow that to cause you to presume to tread where angels fear to go. Keep applying yourself with steady progress, but do not imagine yourself impervious to error, or victorious in every battle. In fact, it is safest to prepare your heart that you will make errors as you move ahead. Errors are inevitable, and a vital part of learning. So, do not presume to be right in every circumstance; rather wait for those who are further along in their life path to counsel you when you are moving into new territory. In that way, your progress will be secure and orderly.

“It is very difficult to retrieve a soul from error when they have made ‘stunning’ progress. So much of the ego is inflated that letting go of that victorious, impervious image is nigh unto impossible. Falling in public carries with it crushing embarrassment. However, those who confess their falls frequently and have no image to maintain, handle their falls with greater ease and honesty. Is that humility? Yes, because one has not mounted up on high to be like God. Rather one has stayed low to the ground where it is easy to recover from a fall and no cover-ups are needed, just plain, simple truth.

“But for those who stake their self-worth on their image before man, deceit is often resorted to in order to cover their frailty and error. How sad. This becomes a never ending string of lies to cover and regain status before man, each one more elaborate than the last, until everyone tires of the obvious...and a soul is stripped to their nothingness.

“That is when reformation can take place, unless the soul is not willing. A hundred times over I tell you, My Brides, do not fear to be found making a mistake. Cover nothing, be honest in everything. You may suffer the reproaches of men, but what is that to you when you stand before your God in humility? Without presumption, without pretense, in childlike innocence. Truly, I have spoken it and it stands forever, “Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven.”

That’s Matt 18:3

You Are the Miracle Walking in Faith

May 8, 2017

May the Lord Jesus give all of us Heartdwellers the courage we need to step into our destinies, fully expecting Him to provide. Amen

Well, dear friends, last night I had a breakthrough with music, a real sense of flowing in the Spirit. Obstacles were overcome, fears were overcome as I just plain obeyed and set to work following my inspirations. That is, after binding the enemy and praying for grace and favor with God.

The Lord began, "Expect Me to act. When you step out in hope - especially when your faith is being tried - but you hold firmly to the rope of grace that I am faithful, expect Me to act."

"Many of you are not moving forward as I would like you to, because you are waiting for a miracle. May I say, your miracle is in you moving forward despite all the odds. You most glorify Me when your faith is flagging, yet you hold fast to it and step forward anyway."

"Clare had a breakthrough last night for that very same reason. She expected Me to act, although she didn't know the particulars. All she knew was that I had promised her, through several people, that the anointing was coming. So, hoping against hope she lunged forward right into the arms of her destiny as I revealed a new gift manifesting through her faithfulness."

"My children, you are the miracle when you lunge forward in faith. When you sit there waiting for Me to act, you are not an inspiration to anyone. Did you know, that at the very least, you as a Christian are to encourage others to keep going by your decisive actions in moving into your destinies?"

"Her knees were knocking together as she began the portrait, after she made the bold claim that I would do it through her and it would be anointed. I want you to see My eyes, the love in My eyes, the expression of My mouth and face - that I am smitten in the presence of My Bride. How are you to understand this without some kind of image to behold? Yes, the secret of My longing and loving you is tied up in the expression of My face - so open, so in love and so inviting. But what if she had sat there and said, 'Well, I'd better try and take an art class before I do this.'"

"What kind of faith would that be? Do I not know more about creating than any of those I created on this Earth? So, shall I not faithfully depict My loving expression through this vessel who has no talent on her own? Yes, this is why I chose her...no talent, very little experience, certainly not like the forensic artist she so admires the work of."

"But do you know that in order for you to create a piece that is convincing of My Love for you, you must be living, dwelling, breathing and acting from My Heart. You must know Me intimately in order to portray My Love for each and every one of you. She had no talent - but lots of love and familiarity with Me. That's why I chose her to do this portrait."

"Now, must I remind you that I've found you dwelling in My Heart and that's what qualifies you for an assignment that will bring My Bride closer into My very arms? Age is no impediment. Sickness is no impediment. Inexperience is no impediment - none of these things the world turns on qualify anyone to undertake a work for Me. Only love and an intimate knowledge of Me does that.

“Mother Theresa had this love and knowledge of Me, along with administration for years as a teacher to the rich. When she heard My call to the poorest of the poor, she had no funding, no building, no medicines, no food, no salary. She had nothing but a heart full of love for Me, faith and obedience. This is what accomplished the impossible, as she was persecuted every step of the way in providing for the poor.

“I did miracle, after miracle, after miracle for her because of her faith that I would do the doing through her. She didn’t wait for funding. She didn’t wait for workers to join her. She stepped out of the safe and ample provision of the convent into the hostile environment of the streets of Calcutta, filled with disease, thieves, Muslims, Hindus - fully armed with scorn and contempt for this Christian woman.

“This is what I am asking of you, My sluggish ones. You are thickening on your lees, waiting for someone to come along and live your faith for you. No, no! I have given you the mandate to move forward and no one is going to drop out of the sky with a tidy little package of steps and provision in their hands.

“You will find the directions and provisions each morning when you come to Me in worship, adoration and prayer. You will walk into your prayer naked and blind, and walk out fully clothed in My grace. Informed, with eyes wide open to the possibilities that lie ahead.

“I am calling you to break out of your mold of complacency. Some of you have been dragging your feet because the Rapture is happening tomorrow - or so you are told. And how many tomorrows have anxiously passed by, with no results at all? Some of you are holding your breath because you’ve been led to believe the first nuke is coming from North Korea any time now. How much time have you wasted waiting?

“Besides that, how do you know that I’m not calling you into a place for a future event? You have no way of knowing that. You’re just watching all the wrong sources of information and waiting for what they say will happen to happen. Do you know that some of these people are making thousands of dollars a week keeping you on the edge of your seats.? You indeed are being used. Your weakness is fear and so you must get the latest fix on what could happen to you tomorrow - rather than throwing that caution to the wind and stepping forward to change something for the better in the world, while there is yet time.

“Forgive Me for being a bit harsh with you, My chosen ones. But I am waiting...I am disappointed that you have not acted on My promises to you yet. I want you in the position to be able to receive the release of graces from Heaven that has only begun to trickle down on the faithful ones who are stepping out with nothing.

“I have much for you, but you will miss it if you don’t get going now into your calling. You know what I have put in your heart...now act on it. Stop procrastinating. Walk into your destiny, hand in hand with Me. I will place you beneath the glory spout and you will indeed be empowered. But that will not be the miracle others will see. No the miracle will be you stepping out in faith with nothing. That is what will convince them that I am real, when they see Me providing for you and bringing you deeper and deeper into your ever-expanding destinies.

"Come now. I have reasoned with you. Come now...let us take the first steps together. Courage! I will not leave you or abandon you to the will of your enemies. Rather, I will cover and protect you and you will declare the faithfulness of your God to the nations."

Will Your Destiny Run Aground?

May 9, 2017

Lord Jesus, thank you for being My best friend and defense against the enemy. Please give us all the grace to surrender to You. Amen.

Well, my dear ones...there is always another lesson to learn on this way of purification. On the way up the mountain.

I like this expression very much, "If you die, before you die, you will not die when you die." That comes from an Orthodox monastery. Just how much of you still needs to die? Well, the Lord is faithful to show you.

The Catholics believe in Purgatory, a place where all your attachments to the world and self are burned away before you enter into Heaven. But I believe that we must die to ourselves down here to reach our full potential.

So, here I am dying, again.

Dying.

In concern for my husband's health and a few physical issues I have, I had sought the Lord about getting a few aroma therapy items that would definitely be a benefit to us both. Now, deep down inside, I had a check and concern, but I thought if I use the Bible Promises I can find out for sure if the Lord approves.

Well, we were getting Joy and Help in Troubles a LOT during this period. So, when we got positive readings, (we both sought the Lord for understanding.) And when we got positive readings from the Bible Promises, I went ahead and got what we needed.

Well, conviction grabbed hold of me when these essential oils arrived in the mail. I kept hearing a voice I didn't want to acknowledge was the Lord...

"Do I not alleviate suffering when you pray? Why do you need these? Don't I give you the relief you are seeking?"

Well, I thought about that and it really began to bother me that I was turning to man rather than God. So, I thought, 'Well, I'll bless these oils and they will work better!'

Do you see how manipulative my thinking is?? I'm telling you, if there is a way around something so I can have my way, my will, I'll find it. But the conviction did not go away, it got stronger and stronger and I began to be under a cloud of conviction. So, I had to back up.

By this time, I was very attached to the essential oils and the diffuser, to help my breathing, and it became very painful when I realized I had to give these up; it wasn't God's will! I interpreted the readings to suit my own will when we sought the Lord.

And my panther brought me down again. Oh, how I am begging the Lord to get rid of this self-will!

The readings I got, the Rhemas on the internet, were so strong that I had to renounce myself, because I had opened a door. Remember, I have shared with you that after a victory you are most liable to fall? Well, the Lord had warned me, after the victory with music, to be watchful. He warned me something was coming. And you know? I thought I was being watchful. In fact, I know I was being watchful – but I wasn't seeing what I needed to see.

So, the victory with music had happened the day before this temptation really began to grow on me. When I came into prayer about it, I saw a little devil below me and to my left. He was the archetypical creature: red, with horns, a barb on his tail, a pitchfork in his hands and an ugly expression. He was goading me on: "Oh these are good for you, you don't have to get involved in formulas, just use them to help your breathing and Ezekiel's fibro. You'll see, they really were a good idea."

So, I tried to reason with the Lord. 'Can't I just keep a couple of things that have been working really well for me?'

And a rhema He gave me was one of the Psalms:

Sing for joy to God our strength;
shout aloud to the God of Jacob!
Begin the music, strike the timbrel, play the melodious harp and lyre.
Sound the ram's horn at the New Moon, and when the moon is full, on the day of our festival;
this is a decree for Israel,
an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

Well, I thought, 'Well, that's cool!' 'Cause the Psalm I pulled, as I started reading it, that it was a rhema Psalm. I thought, 'This is great! You know, get into the music again. Sigh... Well - He wants me to keep on making music, He is not censoring the oils.'

So, I kept reading, feeling relief and encouragement:

In your distress you called and I rescued you,
I answered you out of a thundercloud;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.

Hear me, my people, and I will warn you—if you would only listen to me, Israel!
You shall have no foreign god among you;
you shall not worship any god other than me.
I am the Lord your God,
who brought you up out of Egypt.

Open wide your mouth and I will fill it.

But my people would not listen to me;
Israel would not submit to me.
So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts to follow their own devices.

If my people would only listen to me,
if Israel would only follow my ways,
how quickly I would subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their foes!
Those who hate the Lord would cringe before him,
and their punishment would last forever.
But you would be fed with the finest of wheat;
with honey from the rock I would satisfy you. Psalm 81

But the Lord told me what was really going on when He gave me this psalm in the rhemas. So, when I got this Psalm I realized that I was contending with the Lord! I was refusing to submit to Him. And then another rhema Psalm came up:

I hate double-minded people,
but I love your law.

Ouch! I definitely was being double-minded!

You are my refuge and my shield;
I have put my hope in your word.
Away from me, you evildoers,
that I may keep the commands of my God!
Sustain me, my God, according to your promise, and I will live;
do not let my hopes be dashed.
Uphold me, and I will be delivered;
I will always have regard for your decrees.
You reject all who stray from your decrees, for their delusions come to nothing.

Ooohhhh...

All the wicked of the earth you discard like dross;
therefore I love your statutes.
My flesh trembles in fear of you;

mmhmmm...

I stand in awe of your laws. Psalm 119 Samekh

Oh no!! More conviction and an admonition...a door had been opened for my enemies to sift me.

Then the Lord began to speak.

He began, "The enemy is just cruising for you, My Love."

And when He said that, I remembered seeing that little devil with a pitchfork harassing me, trying to and succeeding at stealing my peace.

Jesus continued, "You see, if you leave any room for them, they mercilessly persecute you. A little is not a little - it is an open door to a lot. Do you have that kind of self-control? I see what you don't see; I see an ambush laid for you. If you do not renounce yourself, how can you escape entanglements? Do I not honor your prayers for healing? What is more effective? Your prayers or the oils? Without My grace, they will do very little indeed."

So after that word, the next leg of my journey began: renunciation. And oh, how painful it was. I really wanted to keep these oils, but I reasoned to myself, 'You did alright before you started using them; you don't need them.'

But I WANTED them! And the little play-pretty that goes around my neck with eucalyptus oil in it, that clears my breathing.

So, Ezekiel and I discussed it. He reminded me of a quote from a holy Christian, "There are things I cannot do. Others are allowed this, but the Lord does not allow me. Even the innocent things; still He asks me to renounce them and rely totally on Him. Others can do them without incurring sin, but I can't."

At that point, I was trying to figure out, 'What am I going to do with these oils?' Then I realized I have a good friend who is a mother, a missionary and a loving, healing presence in the community here in Taos. She's a midwife here in Taos. And she has worked with aroma therapy and I knew she would love to have them. This way, they would be used in the community to bring some relief to the poor who have nothing. And knowing they are a gift from the Lord will draw souls more and more to the Lord.

And I realized, I do have the gift of healing in operation. The more I rely on the world, the weaker this gift will get until I lose it. Am I going to trust Him?

Well, I can't tell you what a distraction this has been and how hard I fought with myself. I had a message planned for you yesterday, but I couldn't get off the ground because of this. So it even cut into my time for you. It only goes to prove that my self-will is very entrenched and still very much alive. When I had my communion service, I begged the Lord with tears to please take this from me! Pull this up by the root. Pull it up and out - I don't want it anymore!

My dear friends, the enemy is slippery. He cruises for anyone he can to sift. He uses our limited understanding, our self-will, our attachments and our opinions to lead us astray. But the Lord stands beside us to warn us when we are beginning to drift. It always seems to be right after a victory.

So, I asked the Lord if He had anything to say.

And He said, "My dear Brides. I want what is best for you – always. Every day. Every moment. It is what I know will lead to your greatest happiness and holiness, that I guide you away from certain things. Please trust Me in this. I do know what's ahead. I know what traps have been stretched out beneath your feet and covered over with the guise of doing good for others.

"Trust Me, please. Trust Me, that if I don't allow you something, it is for a VERY good reason - and if you persist in wanting it, it will be to your detriment. Truly, the gift of healing is present and in operation in many of you. Should you therefore take two steps backward and seek help from the creation, when the Creator is working directly through you? Yes, I made plants for a medicine, even on Earth, but it is My grace working through creation that brings relief. My grace is greater than the physical reality of plant chemistry, and I can do with My grace things that mystify and defy science to explain.

"So, should you not seek My will and My grace alone?"

"This teaching is not for all; it is a hard saying. But for you who consistently dwell in My Heart, and have seen consistent results in prayer, I wish for you to cleave to Me alone and stay away from the world. And this extends to whatever vice and attachment you may have, be it things of the Earth or relationships. Or knowledge. I know what is best for you. Learn to renounce yourself in all things and trust Me without question.

"I see your destinies clearly and I also see the devil's plans to derail you along the way. But I will warn you through your conscience if you will but listen VERY CAREFULLY. I will tell you the plans of the wicked and how to defeat them, if you cleave to Me with all your hearts. And no matter what they plan to entrap you, I will steer you around those dangerous shoals and places where you will run aground in your life; places where great damage and delay will occur - even ship-wrecked and sinking into the mire.

"Trust Me in this. Circumcise your hearts and head towards the goals I have set for your life without deviation, without curiosity, without the need to know more or to try this or to try that. You don't see it but your curiosity is used to entangle you. Your goodwill is used to take you off course from the greater good I have ordained in your lives.

"Be very leery of any direction that takes you off that course. You can be sure the enemy has discovered your destination and he will do anything to cause you to deviate only a degree or so in this journey of life. And you will completely miss your target and even pass it because your navigation is off only one degree!"

"How do you know you are digressing? That still small voice inside is nudging and nagging you. Every time you move to make a commitment in the wrong direction, I set off alarms in your conscience. But if you are very attached to that, you will reason with those alarms:

'But this will help. I want to do good to others. They need this, I need this. But, but, but...'

"When you hear this kind of conversation going on with the interior man, you can be sure you are trying to justify something I do not want you to have. ALARM...BIG ALARM...repent, turn around and return to the simple path I have already laid out for you."

And the Scripture came to mind: Whoever trusts in his own mind is a fool, but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered. Proverbs 28:26

God Bless you, Heartdwellers. Thank you for your prayers – they are so appreciated!

And thank you for your sweet and kind letters. I'm hoping to have one of these Youtubes to devote to these letters – they are so beautiful! And thank you for taking such good care of our mission, so that we can work for you every day, without any kind of pressures over our head. The Lord bless you all.

I Am Pruning in My Vineyard

May 11, 2017

May the Lord impart great courage and wisdom to us who are going through trials. May we come forth strong, with new growth, putting forth the most choice grapes.

My dear Heartdwellers, I really wanted to put out a message every day, but the last two days have been very emotionally difficult. A LOT of repenting. It seems the Lord has gone into the Panther's lair in order to clear out the corruption in my heart.

I have been struggling with having my own way for two days now, and every time I see that I cannot, it stings, burns, aches and is so very frustrating! I am learning the depth of my depravity when it comes to the things of the world, even though they are so very tiny in comparison to what I could be distracted or run after.

I received a very good rhema from Mother Theresa - a quote from her. "Once the longing for money comes, the longing also comes for what money can give: superfluities, nice rooms, luxuries at table, more clothing, fans and so on. Our needs will increase, for one thing brings another, and the result will be endless dissatisfaction. This is how it comes."

And that was a rhema, I think I got about three days ago, when the Lord was trying to get my attention.

The Lord Jesus began, "You are going through a purification of heart and attachments. I know it is painful, but you are releasing parts of the world that are like sediment in the bottom of your heart. Things you inherited from your mother, your own desire nature; things that poison the spiritual life and dilute your effectiveness in serving Me.

"I know it is painful."

And I answered the Lord, 'Yeah, it feels like I'm having a cow!'

"That's the effect of accumulated worldly desires you've never quite released all the way. Yes, you could call it a stronghold. It has many tentacles stretching to every area of your life. I'm removing them, Clare, but first you must renounce them."

Yeah, guys. I've spent a lot of time renouncing my self-will, telling the Lord, 'I don't want this anymore!'

"I am taking them away, and you're having to confront their influence over you is part of the letting go process. They have hindered you all your life. They have twisted your walk when it could have been straighter and accomplished so much more. The enemy has used them to side-track and distract you.

"I know how painful it is. That's why I told you to meditate on My hands, My feet and My side. Because I suffered those pains to purchase you out from among the world's ways that so dominated your thinking. You have had many purgings, but this one is designed to be your last; that's one reason why it is so painful day after day."

Yeah - you'd think I'd get over it, for Pete's sake...

"My love, when you feel like pursuing the things I told you to give away, you are looking into the jaws of the monster, and the very power that can derail your destiny if you allow it. The ONLY way to deal with it is complete and final renunciation of self-will."

And you know, guys? I could really feel that, when I realized that I had made a mistake in discernment and He didn't want me using essential oils. I couldn't go through and say, 'Well, you can keep this, and you can give that away.' I had to just take everything and put it in a box and take it out of the house until the midwife that I'd given it to could come by and pick it up. I had to get it out of my sight. And it was like... I don't know how to describe it, but it was like I cut through ALL the attachments that I had and just DID it. It was like I numbed myself and just said, 'This has got to be the way it is. I can't afford to think about this or that or can I have this, or can I have that. Nope - the whole things gotta go.'

So, that's what He meant when He said, "You are looking into the jaws of the monster, and the very power that can derail your destiny if you allow it to. The ONLY way to deal with it is complete and final renunciation of self-will." And that's what I had to do.

"Not that this is the last test of your life," Jesus continued. "Far from it. But this is a big one, designed to break this stronghold. As you know, you are ready for deliverance when you have overcome the temptations of the enemy in a certain area and you've gotten to the point where you DON'T WANT IT anymore. This is a good sign, breaking with it and declaring you don't want it is a good indicator that if I removed the demonic oppression elements of the stronghold, you will be delivered. Finally."

"It is going to take a while to build up resolve that you refuse to say yes to this vice. A very little while, but I want you to be brave and courageous, because the rewards I have for you are far beyond the sacrifice you are making."

And I realized in my prayer time, that one of the things the Lord was asking me to do was to give up something that was licit, and permissible - but was not optimum for me. It's almost like making the choice between eating bread and drinking water and having a full meal with dessert. I mean, I could have the full meal with dessert, if I wanted it. It would be against His will, but I could have it. But...choosing the bread and water was choosing HIS will. And it is a sacrifice, so it does count as an offering, for whatever is going on in the world that we're praying for.

Jesus continued, "Yes, I made beauty to be enjoyed. But for a soul consecrated to the service of God there must be a strict adherence to the movement of My Spirit, without any hint of self-interest. If you have known this freedom in the past and you will know it again, I promise you. I have begun this work and I will finish it. But I acknowledge to you, Clare - it is painful. The more entrenched it is within you, the more painful the sacrifice of casting it away."

"My dear, dear Love, I am asking you to be inebriated in My presence, My beauty alone. I know at times it is difficult to find that place of peace where the contemplation of divine truths and My being are all that matters to you. But you see, I need that space inside of you to be filled with My Spirit. There is not enough room when the sludge and sediment of this world has built up layer upon layer upon layer."

And when He said that, I also remembered another rhema that I got, "If we do not choose to mortify our passions, we may live in fear and doubt everything. Focus and deny yourself what is not necessary."

I mean, over the past five days or so, I have gotten so many warning rhemas that I just...breezed right through! The rhema ended by saying 'focus and deny yourself what is not necessary.' At that point I saw a red heart. The interior chamber of this heart was over half full of mud!!

He continued, "Yes, we are draining the swamp in your heart, so you have so much more room for Me and My love for souls. So much more room! How beautiful indeed is the heart that has been freed from years of corruption through self-will and avarice. You could rightly say that the sludge you see is made up of all the things of the world you have sought after that lodged in your heart, but then began to decay and make layers of dense brown goo. When that is gone, I will fill you with living waters and you will flow with My Spirit, the way you have longed to.

"You have spoken many times before about feeling blocked. Well now you are seeing it in real time. The power of My Love is supposed to swirl around in your heart like a crystal clear river, but now it runs slow like an old muddy river. And that is why you've encountered so much opposition to holding the fire of My love and pouring it out to others through your work. You struggle much with these old strongholds in your life, and My heart is to free you from them.

"Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, all the wonderful things I have in store for you, once there is room for them in your heart. When I called you to this life, you saw yourself on a dusty road in the Middle East, walking beside Me in sandals, with almost nothing but your tunic. That was a picture of the greatest purity and detachment of heart and soul from the world. One cannot walk if they are carrying so many things; one must walk without a load, with only the most necessary things in a tiny satchel.

"But living in a house, you have accumulated much and a taste for much. And that is simply not necessary and in fact, is an impediment to your freedom. No. I don't want you to go and throw it all out. But I do care for you to ignore anything that is not necessary for ministry. In this way your heart will be free and clear of clutter. Less is MORE. Less of the world is MORE of Me.

"Now, as you continue to walk with your heart circumcised, you will still encounter traps laid for you and tests. Be vigilant, Clare. When I tell you to be watchful, (that's a rhema that He'd given me) I mean it! There is trouble coming and you're not recognizing it. Mostly because your initial discernment was poor. When you feel a check in your spirit, you know you are being warned, no matter how you interpret the Scriptures I give you in readings.

"When you feel any kind of check - RUN from it. Don't entertain it and find out what size, shape or colors it comes in!!! RUN from it. Flush it and move on, it's a trap. And it has teeth! And those teeth will cut into you and hurt you. Once more, the wound will become infected and hurt even more.

"When I warn you to be watchful, you have already taken a step towards that trap cleverly laid and covered over at your feet to look like something really innocent. And I promise you, the treatment for those injuries will be something you don't ever want to repeat.

"What is permitted for you is far less than what is permitted for other souls who are not given the task of shepherding. A shepherd carries the bare essentials - only a few things to sustain him. He does not have a wagon following behind him loaded to the hilt with things he enjoys. Rather, he carries medicine for the sheep, a weapon for lions and bears, a bit of food and water - because his entire being is wrapped around the needs of the flock.

"Anything extra he has can cause him to be distracted at the wrong time, while the lion is stalking his sheep. And he will be so caught up in this distraction that disaster will follow. By the time he sees it, several sheep are already scattered, wounded, lost and dead. This has already happened to you, My Love.

"So, now I address My most precious Brides. If you are being called up higher, it is time to leave the things of the world behind. The concerns about what you shall eat, wear and live. These things will snag you if you allow them to. All around you are people who need a touch from Me. Be an encourager, wherever you go. Think not of yourself, but of others around you. There will be times when I quicken people to you and you are inspired to reach out to them.

"If you are a mother or father, minister to your family first, then teach your children how to pray for the poor, how to give to those in crisis. How to feed the poor, how to be kind and non-judgmental to those they see - even if they are ragged and poor. Remind them frequently of the Proverbs to help them balance their thinking and grow in wisdom. There is so much you can do to form your children in Me before they are released into the world. And truly, this is your first ministry after your husband.

"But for the rest of you, no one serving as a soldier gets entangled in civilian affairs, but rather tries to please his commanding officer. 2 Timothy 2:4

"When you find the area I have given into your hands to invest your talents, be starkly critical of anything that gets in the way of that, even as it is written:

Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way as to take the prize. Everyone who competes in the games trains with strict discipline. They do it for a crown that is perishable, but we do it for a crown that is imperishable. I Corinthians 9:24-25

"I know it is difficult to leave your fancies behind, in favor of being collected in prayer and action. I know that sometimes you need a walk in the sun, a nap, or something fresh and clean to listen to for inspiration.

"But, My dear ones, try to limit those occasions as much as you can and learn to derive great joy when I use you to touch another soul. Soak in that moment and know that your reward in Heaven is secure. And as you become more and more faithful with each minute granted you in your life, I expand your influence and enrich you with greater anointing.

"And for you, My Clare, know that every branch that bears fruit, I prune in order for you to bring forth even more fruit. The cutting away is never pleasant, but the yield is tremendous and well worth it.

"Persevere, My doves. Do not grow weary. Wait, just wait until you see the reward I have stored up in Heaven for each of you! But so that you do not grow weary in the meantime, you who have given your all; you who have fought the good fight against your vices - with you I am highly pleased and you shall enter into your Master's joy."

And as a final note, I had another rhema I wanted to share with you.

"The world and all it contains is nothing to the one for whom God is everything!" Amen.

You Are Standing Before Your Destiny NOW

May 14, 2017

Lord Jesus, please give us the ears to hear this wonderful message of hope.

Happy Mother's Day, dear Heartdwellers! Some of you will say to me, "But I'm not a mother." But I say, you are a mother of souls whenever you reach out in the Name above all Names, to minister in kindness to one who is hurting.

I want to thank you for your patience as you have been waiting for a message in the midst of all this music. The Lord has given us all a message in this. As He promised, we would flourish in our gifts if we persevered - and you are seeing His promises come true in my life. And I'm not one iota more than you in God's eyes. In fact, I can guarantee that you are greater in His eyes than I am. Not that we should run around making comparisons. No, that's not a Godly attitude. But I say this, so you will know - wherever your gift is now, it can grow and blossom if only you will persevere in faith.

Forgive me for sharing extremely simple music with you. But He is taking me back to the beginning and telling me I try too hard and get too caught up, which makes it impossible for me to get anything done for you; and also gets me snagged to the point where I don't complete a song.

What He has been doing with me is sitting me down at the keyboard and moving my fingers with barely another thought in my mind than that very simple act. And out of that He is bringing forth something anointed.

Years ago, I discovered this truth: to play music is to truly just play as a child would in their sand box. So, you heap up some wet sand and you put something else on top of that - and you have a sand castle. You make a sound with the instrument. If it's good you repeat it; if it's not good, you drop it. If the top of the castle looks silly - you knock it off and start again. That's so simple and so fun!!! It makes exploring sounds a true time of playfulness, and out of that, God brings His anointing. Because it's flowing from your heart!

So, any of you who suspect you are called to music, ignore all the do's and don'ts and discouragement of the world and just do it anyway!

My mother used to tell me, "Oh, that's a talent you have to begin cultivating when you're a child; so you've passed that time up in your life." She said that to me when I was 15! And here the Lord is giving me the gift at 58 and prospering it at 71.

There is such a mystique about musicians that is designed to discourage anyone from taking up an instrument when they are older. There's a good reason for this: Satan hates musicians, especially the ones who aren't actively working for him.

But getting back to music, I was given an insight into what Jesus is doing with this gift in me. He is slowing us all down, breaking us free of the fast-paced, noisy music that so clogs our receptors that we can't hear His still small voice. A lot of us keep this fast-paced music up, because we want an energy high. We don't want to get into the deep, quiet place where all our unhealed wounds are still open. When we get quiet, we get deep. And more often than not - deep hurts.

What is the answer? Continue to have fast-paced, uplifting music to cover it all over? Or seek the Lord for healing in those quiet places. I believe He has set me at ease with such simple, sparse-sounding music because He wants to prepare you all to hear His voice. It's not about my skill - which I don't have. It's about His anointing, His drawing His Beloved quietly to His side where He can embrace and heal her deepest wounds.

In order for this to take place...we need to re-tune our emotions. Our hearts and intellects to 'turtle gear', so He may enter into our woundedness and heal it.

So, that's my take on the super-simple music He's been giving me. Thanks for your encouragement, by the way.

We are all so conditioned to expect stimulation and an upbeat message that we tend to look down on the simple things. We tend to draw the line on our talents saying, "I could never do that." We tend to expect professional quality - when all the Lord wants is anointing so He can reach you, so He can receive your worship.

The music industry has made this medium into a worldly wasteland rather than a holy blessing drawing us all to God, for which it was intended and specifically created. So, please do not be intimidated by worldly standards. The Lord wants to bless His people with the anointing; that's all that matters to Him.

And again, He wants to slow us down so that the light might shine into the darkest places of our hearts where He will heal, and do away with the former things. The things that are saturated in pain and misfortune - and make us whole once again. We are in a season of blessing, dear ones! Not only prospering our gifts, but healing our wounds, which block us from using our gifts.

And some Scriptures came to mind as I was thinking this.

Daniel 2:22 "It is He who reveals the profound and hidden things; He knows what is in the darkness, And the light dwells with Him."

2 Cor. 4:6 For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of God's glory displayed in the face of Christ.

Ephesians 1:18

"I ask that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you may know the hope of His calling."

Isaiah 42:16

"I will lead the blind by a way they do not know, In paths they do not know I will guide them. I will make darkness into light before them And rugged places into plains. These are the things I will do, And I will not leave them undone."

Wow, that's really beautiful. "I will make darkness into light before them And rugged places into plains." And as I'm working to create, I see a lot of bumps in the road, a lot of places where I don't know how to handle them. And I see a lot of darkness and confusion: 'How do I do this?' or 'How do I do that?' And I see the Lord making the darkness into Light before me and showing me the way. And making the rugged places into a simple path to just move forward. So, that prophecy is being fulfilled in my life, even with this work.

All of these things He does through inner healing as we allow Him access to the hidden places in our hearts. We cover these places over, because they are not healed; they hurt and twist our lives in ways we will never be able to understand. We cannot reflect the glory of Christ that dwells within us if it is clouded over by layers of clouds of defensive behavior, hiding our failures and wounds. The knowledge of God's glory, the face of Christ, is truly seen when deep healing takes place. And for this we need to be still and quiet and allow Him access daily during our prayer times.

So many of you have said to me, "I just don't hear from the Lord." I disagree. He speaks to EVERY ONE of you, one way or another. For instance, the voice of your conscience is God's voice. Whenever you feel a check in your spirit, He IS speaking to you. The problem is not that He doesn't speak. It's that you are not fine-tuned enough to hear Him clearly. We are swimming in the muddy swamp of this world. When we finally get to the crystal-clear waters of life, then we can hear.

And for that to take place, we must stop allowing the world access to our ears and cultivate a quiet, peaceful state of mind; dwelling on Jesus and His company - which we know exists with us by faith.

Worship is one of the best ways to do this.

Contemplating one Scripture verse over and over again is another way to open those clogged spiritual ears. If you can find just one sentence or word in Scripture that touches your heart - just one - and meditate on that with some quiet music, you will find yourself drawing nearer and nearer to Him.

One of my favorites is: "Lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He will make your paths straight." Proverbs 3:5

Another technique of drawing inspiration from the Scriptures is to read between the lines. You see and comprehend the words but so much more than a sentence with only one meaning is there before you. There are thoughts, emotions and connections to be made as you read. The things that are implied in the sentence are not just the obvious. When you take your time and dwell on the Scriptures, you allow them to go deep into your heart, where more is understood and read between the lines.

I'm not talking about twisting the Scriptures to fit our agenda. I'm talking about the richness of the meaning of the words, even in the context they are used. As you meditate on them, Holy Spirit enlightens the eyes of your understanding to go deeper and make connections with other Scriptures of similar kind.

Getting back to music...

Jesus began, “This gift is truly misunderstood. When you come to Heaven, you will experience the harmony of life in sound vibrations that are intertwined into a masterpiece of worship to Me. All creation sings to Me, and each expression of love and gratitude is pleasing to Me, whether it be a frog croaking or a bird singing.”

And I was reminded of this Scripture in Isaiah 44:23: Shout for joy, O heavens, for the LORD has done it! Shout joyfully, you lower parts of the earth; Break forth into a shout of joy, you mountains, O forest, and every tree in it; For the LORD has redeemed Jacob And in Israel He shows forth His glory.

The Lord continues here, “Although much of these sounds are inaudible to you on Earth, they do exist and they are beautiful to Me. My People, everything you do for Me is an act of worship and brings Me joy. For this, you were created, that I might walk in the cool of the evening in the Garden in sweet communication.

“Adam was full of spontaneous worship when I brought each new creature to him for naming. He was overcome with gratitude for the wonder of each one and it’s remarkably unique attributes. He had an unending dialogue with Me in his heart as he explored the wonders of the Garden, the pleasures of water, the delightful fruits I gave for him to eat fresh from the vine. The Garden, too, hummed with unspeakable gratitude as everything in it was in perfect balance and harmony, expressing gratitude for being created.

“It was when sin entered in that all of that changed. But I still longed to hear the gratitude that was once expressed over the spontaneous provision that was eternally theirs. We shall return to that state when I come to rule the Earth. There will be pockets of Eden protected from those who deliberately choose their own way over Mine.

“But all of you, from the least to the greatest, have untapped treasures of expression in your being. All of you can sing to Me from your heart; all of you can go about doing good to others, from your hearts. All of you can take delight in creating and exercising your gifts, and I share in that with you. Whether you work with teams in administration, or you are singing in a choir, or paint edifying images of Me and My creation, or work in the undiscovered realms of science. Your minds are a creative gift to you and when you use them I am glorified, especially when it is to do good.

“Perhaps you are a carpenter, taking joy in the angles and finish of the wood, and how each piece complements and fits together with the others. Perhaps you are a mechanic, wondering at the very concepts of physics that make a car run with such ingenuity. Or a baker taking delight in a perfect loaf of bread fresh from the oven.

“Then again, you may be a nurse or a doctor who continually wonders at the complexity of the body. Perhaps you drive a bus and feel good about your work when you let others go ahead of you in traffic, or when you make a precision stop to help an elderly woman aboard.

“There is room for creativity and joy in every walk of life. It is up to you to change your focus from the humdrum, mundane viewpoint of life to a fresh, new one of excitement: ‘What can I do for You today, Jesus? How can I let Your face shine out of My life?’

“Do you know that your attitude in a service job can actually stop a suicide from happening? Why? Because you can make a soul feel loved when you go out of your way for them. Today may be the day they were planning to take their life, but you gave them hope that their life does matter by the simple act of going out of your way to help them. That one, little, insignificant act can change a man's destiny, simply because they recognized hope living in you.

"All of you are asking, 'What can I do?' The answer is simple: live this day as if it were your very last day on Earth to show love. My love for mankind. With this attitude of heart, you will save many souls.

"This is why the enemy tries to ruin the atmosphere at your work place. He wants a sour, dour expression on your face that will intimidate and discourage your customers. And he hits you hardest when you are closest to making a difference in someone's life.

"Keep an eye on that, My People. When you get hit with something discouraging, look around and ask yourself, 'Who is Satan trying to keep me from ministering to?' Truly I tell you, he deliberately plans these attacks to take you out of commission just when I need you the most to be fully there.

"Those who are faithful with the little opportunities will be given greater ones. Greater and greater and greater opportunities to exercise wonderful gifts on My behalf. Be faithful with the little things and I will inspire you to embrace the greater, fully clothed and equipped with My grace to not only succeed, but to excel."

Falling Deeper In Love With God

May 17, 2017

Well, dear Heartdwellers. Jesus has just opened a new door to deeper intimacy with Him, and approaching a Divine Union of our souls with His. May we all avail ourselves of this extraordinary grace.

To fill you in a little, for the last day or so I've felt weepy and insecure. I wasn't sure if it was a spiritual attack, or what it was. I couldn't quite put my finger on it. But when I heard Julie True's song 'Child of God,' I became deeply troubled that I had lost His presence.

And you know, once you feel that way... Losing God and losing His presence is everything. Just everything. So, I was not a happy camper. And the day was dawning and things were in front of me to do. I didn't really know how to press in to Him in that moment.

But, when I went on the Internet to do something, a rhema came up: The Church at Ephesus. It's one of the letters in Revelation, the second chapter, that talks about the things the different churches are lacking.

To the angel of the church in Ephesus write:

These are the words of him who holds the seven stars in his right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands. I know your deeds, your labor and your perseverance. I know that you cannot tolerate those who are evil, and you have tested and exposed as liars those who falsely claim to be apostles.

Interestingly, yes. We just went through that.

Without growing weary, you have persevered and endured many things for my name, But this I have against you: You have abandoned your first Love.

And I can't tell you my reaction to that - it's the worst possible thing He could have said to me. It really, really pricked my heart deeply.

Therefore, keep in mind how far you have fallen! Repent and perform the deeds you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place. Revelation 2

So, getting that as a rhema sent me into, I guess you could say...panic? A spiritual panic, for sure. At that point, I told everyone, 'I'm going into prayer.' and wouldn't be out for a long time. I closed the door and nestled in my little prayer altar and began seeking the Lord with all my heart. And He was faithful to give me this message.

So, at that time, when I began to seek Him I said, 'Lord, I don't understand...why am I so weepy? I know You are here with me, You've not abandoned me, and I want to be thankful, but I just want to cry. Please speak to me.'

Jesus began, "Clare, there is never a moment I am away from your side. You are the one who drifts from Me, not I from you. There is too much busy work in your home. You need to run it like a cloister or you will never go where I want to take you. Less involvement with the world, My Precious. Less and less and less."

By the way, for those of you who are not familiar with cloistered nuns and how they operate, they get a good 8 hours of prayer a day. Their day is broken up with prayer. It begins with prayer, it's broken up with prayer and studying the Scriptures and then more prayer. And nobody's allowed, nobody from the world is allowed in the cloister, at all. They're kept on the outside - and this is to protect the sisters on the inside, so they can be totally devoted to the Lord. So, that's what He's meaning when He said, "You have to start running your home like a cloister." And I totally agree with that. I totally agree with that.

Then I replied to Him, 'You know how I feel about Julie True's song...Child of God. I felt like I was a stranger to You, and I felt fleeting pains of jealousy - that she was so close to You and I'm so far away. And of course, the liars jumped right on it, and said, "Your voice will never sound that good...let alone your relationship with God."'"

However, when that happens I immediately rebuke a spirit of Jealousy and Lying and tell the Lord I don't want it, and it goes away. The Lord said He would provoke the Jewish people to jealousy by our devotion to Him. So, it's not beyond the realm of possibility that the Lord really allowed this to happen, to wake me up a bit.

So, I told Him I felt like I'd lost my connection with Him, and felt like a stranger to Him.

He answered me, "I know and it's ridiculous. She has put her time in to get closer to Me and that's what is bothering you more than her voice. You knew that, didn't you?"

Yes. Lord, I did. I sensed I was missing something that I once had, that was much deeper than what I have now.

"Well, My love, you know I am no discriminator of persons. I have a great depth for each one of My Brides, but most never even approach it, let alone rest in it. You have been there many, many times - but your involvement with the house is distracting you."

'Enough already!' I said

Jesus replied, "That's exactly My sentiment. Enough is enough.. and at this point it's way too much. You will find great joy in My arms, Clare. Alone with Me is all you'll ever need. How surprised I am that you do not avail yourself of that every moment of the day. If you would begin to practice that, seeing yourself held securely in My arms, you will see a change in your attitude from moment to moment. And you will go deeper with Me, much deeper."

"You will find more time to savor My presence and in that be transformed, going deeper into My love and heavenly provision for your spirit. The secret is to BREAK-AWAY. Most, including yourself, look forward to our times together as a sort of dessert after the main course of your duties everyday. May I say, you have it backwards? Your time with Me is the main course and the duties are on the periphery."

"This is the only way you will attain to that depth you are hungering for, My Love. Break away, break away...Continually throughout the day. Come to rest in My arms even when things are getting more and more hectic."

But Lord, how do I do that? When things get like that I begin to stress and push it to get it done and out of the way?

"That's what I am addressing right now." Jesus replied. "I am the main meal. Those other things are simply appetizers, unappetizing as they are to you. They are like the condiments on the table. But in My arms is where you will find your life and nourishment. Lose your life in the world to find Mine in Heaven. Forsake your interest in your plants. That's one reason why I asked you to leave off with them; you don't realize how much you are attached to them. I'm trying to break that attachment."

Well, I recognize what He's saying here. First thing in the morning, I tend to get pulled into my plants before my eyes are even open. They are like children to me. And I can't tell you how many times I've had to break curses over them, because the enemy is always trying to hurt us through the things we love.

But, I'll talk to them and say, 'Oh, you're looking sad and wilted, you need more water? Oh, those ugly brown tips, here let me trim them for you.'

Jesus continued, "The world and its activities are never-ending, Clare. That's what you don't realize; they are forever pulling you off course. Practice ignoring them. Seriously. You have a volunteer who waters for you. Bless your plants, and then put them out of your mind. I have much better things for you to use your time for. If you find you cannot ignore them, give them away. They are used to tempt you."

I'll ignore them, Lord.

"Case in point....you see how attached you are?"

Lord, I often think I would be happier in a much simpler environment.

And I really have sought Him about this, guys. You know, a trailer has only got about, I don't know how many - just a few square feet of room to walk around in. And floors to get dirty and where things are. I've thought about it so many times!

But He answered me, "Practice simplicity in this environment, that's the challenge. Oh, My Beloved, I ache for you as you ache for Me. There is not a moment of the day that I don't long to see one sweet glance of your eyes."

Really, Lord?

"Really and truly. My heart soars when you look at Me with such longing. I hate to see confusion and stress tearing you away from Me. And this is the case with all of you, My Brides. How I long to see your searching eyes as they come in contact with Me, as you are looking for My presence."

I want to mention here, for those of you who do not easily see the Lord. Envision Him as He was the last time you saw Him, or envision Him in your favorite image of Jesus - in a favorite place. Beside a stream or on a park bench - whatever. Allow Him to come into that space in your heart and mind and meet you there. It begins with envisioning Him. And from there He makes it a real event.

He continues, "This is the beauty of the eternal relationship we have. It exists outside the boundaries of space and time. It truly is eternal. Though your days are filled with time-consuming work, your relationship with Me is not subject to these same laws. This is why you can find Me at any moment by your side, drinking in the vision of the longing expression in your eyes and on your heart and mind."

"And My response is ever the same, 'So...what's keeping you from Me in this moment? Is it that important?'"

"Today you got to the point where nothing was as important as seeking and finding Me. And I was there for you."

I answered Him, 'Yes, I certainly did. When I got the Church at Ephesus, "Return to your first love." That cut me so deeply I told everyone, 'I'm going into prayer, and I'm not going to come out any time soon.' And I came out a couple of hours later when everyone was gone.

Jesus continued, "I sent that Rhema to you because I missed you, Clare. I knew how you would take it. I knew you would immediately repent and seek My face. And you did not disappoint Me. I did not mean the harsh threat for you, dearest - I just wanted to call your attention to the fact that you were lapsing into more and more involvement with the world. Again. And we both know what that eventually leads to... Yes, the panther comes forth from its lair."

"So, here we are now, together. And My Heart rejoices in your longing for Me and oh, how I wish to satisfy that! But as long as we dwell on the Earth together, there will be barriers to that. Although as you long ever more for Me, I will not disappoint you. There will be special graces that seem as though you are no longer on this Earth, because of your preoccupation with Me."

"Yes, My delightful Brides, become so entwined and wrapped up in Me that you forget what you're doing, what you came into a room for, what you were going to do next. Yes! Yes! I want to be your one and only distraction. You know what it feels like to fall in love and long for your Beloved. This is indeed how I long for you. But so few long for Me with that same intensity.

"Long for Me. Be distracted by Me. Be pulled away by Me - become forgetful of all around you by Me. This is the kind of love I ache to have from My Brides. As the saying goes, 'Be so heavenly minded that you are no earthly good.'

"Yes, yes, I know... Your jobs, your duties - yes they must be done. But remember back to a time when you had first fallen in love; your very first love. All you could do was long for that hour to come where the two of you would be together. This is the kind of love I long for from you.

"Oh, how beautiful the soul is that has casts aside the world to have this with Me. How perfectly their longing shall be rewarded, for there is not enough Heaven on Earth to give to such a one as this.

"Pray for this grace, My Blessed ones, pray much for this grace. And practice searching Me out with your spiritual eyes. Every moment of the day. And when our hearts touch, do your best to go away into a place of quietness and prayer, where we can dwell together and you can be regenerated. And I can be consoled by your love."

And I just wanted to share this with you. Right after I got this message, I went to lay down for a nap, because I was going to get up and record. And I was getting a little droopy. And when I did, my husband was there. He was laying down, and the cats were there... I just laid down on the bed, on top of the covers and just tucked in for a few moments. I opened my eyes, my spiritual eyes to try and see the Lord - and He was RIGHT nose to nose with me! RIGHT nose to nose.

And He said, "Surprise! Surprise!"

And that was so sweet. I really felt His presence. Nose to nose, heart to heart, mind to mind. And in that place, I fell asleep for 20 minutes. Very peacefully.

And often, He does that with me, before I go to bed at night. Before I go to sleep at night. Ezekiel will tell me that he sees the Lord and I doing something like playing flutes, or riding horses or doing something. And he'll tell me that as a little starter, so I'll be dwelling with the Lord when I actually fall asleep, in those places.

It's really not hard, guys. It really is not hard. We can all visualize things. Some not so pleasant, and some very pleasant. God gave us this gift so that we could visualize Him - and He could walk into our world and make the vision come true.

So, don't disappoint Him. Seek His gaze. And when you find it, rest in it. Allow Him to make it come alive to you. He will do this.

May the Lord bless you with His perfect Grace. May your attention be constantly distracted upon Him. May your gaze meet with His gaze in perfect love and purity. Amen.

How Soon Is the Rapture?

May 18, 2017

Lord, please impart to us the grace to make the best use of the time left to us.

Well, lately the Lord has been giving me readings from the Rhema book about the Rapture and war. So, I was asking Him, 'Has anything significant changed?'

Jesus answered me, "Not as yet, but I will let you know."

Well. Going on to the next subject - and we're gonna come back to the Rapture in a moment.

This morning, dear Heartdwellers, I awoke - and as my eyes were opening, I saw something like very thin spider web fibers spun around my body. Not very thick - it was kinda airy and open. But I assumed this was the work of an enemy, so I rebuked them. But this pall of hopelessness and despair was hanging over me.

You may remember the teachings I shared with you about vortexes and blocks, barriers and seals the enemy curses people with so they lack inspiration to live - let alone create. Well, I've been going through a bit of this for the past few days, and I know it is the work of the enemy. It seems to lift as the day goes on and I recognize it for what it is. But I've been lazy and not prayed against it enough. But I did ask Father God to please remove these from us this morning.

And I am praying for each one of you as well, Heartdwellers. Because these things are being released on the whole Earth right now to sow confusion, a sense of loss of direction - where the day before, we had inspiration and knew where we were going. Now it seems we don't know where we are or where we are going.

All these are all LIES and devices of the enemy to steal our destinies. WE CAN'T LET THIS HAPPEN. Dear ones, take these things in hand and destroy them by the power of the Blood of Jesus and the word of His testimony - especially we have power over the dark forces - and His Name.

They have lifted from me since I asked, and I feel like my old self. But I certainly won't be so slack in rebuking them in the Name of Jesus the next time I see them. But they will be back again and again. Don't let your day go down the drain. Come to the Lord immediately. Rebuke them and ask for deliverance if you still feel them present.

As I was speaking, I felt the Lord wanted to say something.

He began, "As I have told you once before, My Beloved, to every move of God three demons are assigned: Fear, Doubt and Scrutiny. These bring with them the necessary smaller demons to undermine your work and your destiny. Doubt brings Unbelief. Fear brings Lying spirits of failure, accusing you of your past. And telling you that you'll a failure in the future, just like you've been in the past. Scrutiny carries with it all kinds of insecurities about the nature of the work you're doing, its quality. Is there time enough to do it? Do you have the resources? Are you lacking talent? Obstacles like sickness, evasive spirits of confusion and disorientation are the kinds of things that Scrutiny bring with it.

"The powers of the air are like filthy slime balls that weep a noxious goo over your mind and body, if you will allow it. You have to break through and clean yourself off. They work on you while you are asleep, so that when you awake you feel lost and falling under the weight of life.

"First thing in the morning you must cast these imaginings down and declare My promises to you. Yes, you may also call upon Me to cleanse you and remove them, but that leaves you with the hard work of confessing truth once the lies are dislodged.

"I like very much what we were discussing in the spirit when you thought you were talking to yourself. (He laughed.) You'd think by now you'd recognize that we are carrying on a conversation, Clare! You were concerned about little hints here and there I've been giving you on the Rapture. What I mean to say here, Beloved, is that it is STILL ON THE SCHEDULE. I will not comment one way or another about timing - so don't bother to go fishing. I will tell you what you need to know, when you need to know it.

"But this is a truth: there are many channels talking about this catastrophe, that failure, this bomb, that EMP attack, North Korea. Comets and tsunamis and first air strike from them or us. The chatter is all over the place! But thank you for not giving in to curiosity and remaining securely in My presence. Oh, thank you for that, My Bride.

"But here is what I want to say. My dear ones, you may look all over the internet and get the latest dream, latest warning, breaking circumstances, on and on and on engineered to keep you chasing your tails. Now, if you take instead the opportunity to fast and pray, because these reports are scary, well... good for you. But if you keep stocking up food and preparing, you've lost the focus I had for you.

"May I say it again...for the umpteenth time? I want you gathering in souls in the ways I have counseled you in the most recent messages.

"Yes, the Rapture will happen. Everyone is talking about it and predicting when. Isn't it amazing that none of these tsunami warnings and other things - comets - are simply not happening? Almost as if... they were non-existent.

"I do need your prayers and fastings, but not your constant state of mind which can think of nothing but your own security and that of your loved ones to prepare for events. This is a selfish use of time and could very well cost you the Rapture.

"While you are waiting, I have given you this Channel and other (but very few and far between) to guide you into what you are to be doing in the interim. This is a place you gain strength and inspiration to continue to cultivate your gifts and destinies. And if you spend your time drinking in the bad news, some of which has been deliberately manipulated for selfish motives, you are being misguided and putting yourself at risk.

"Those who are about My business, I will protect. Those who are about their own business, well... they are busy protecting themselves, so they don't need Me to help them. They pass by the poor on the way to buy survival gear. It would have been so much better for them had they spent that money on feeding those who are going without food that day.

"But moving on, I would like to say, My Dear Ones, PERSEVERE. I am coming to help you through the tangled webs of the enemy, who is continually revising his ways of slowing you down and even stealing your destinies. There are times when you must operate in sheer faith, with not an iota of inspiration. I will not try you beyond your means, but I will use those times to apply graces to the world situation and especially in America - the president who is being fought tooth and nail by the ruling elite.

"It is a ferocious battle, My people, and Donald needs your prayers and your resolutions to move forward with your lives. Never in the history of the world has evil proliferated like it is now. Never. Evil has destroyed the lives of countless numbers of young people and those who have been fighting to keep their footing, just to stay alive. The discouragement runs so strong and thick, I must send out teams of angels to redirect the flow into the Abyss, lest no one be left standing."

And I saw that. I saw angels coming and this goo flowing downstream. And it was about to inundate a whole town, like a dam had burst - but it was goo. And the angels came and they blocked it and diverted it. And the Earth split open and it went down into the Earth, into the Abyss.

"Still, these demon powers are getting through and I am calling on you to persevere, knowing that My Nature is FAITHFULNESS. Persevere even when it seems hopeless. Pick up where you left off with your destiny and keep going by sheer willpower and the knowledge that I am for you.

"Encourage others around you to pray and seek My Face and I will help them, too.

"There will be breakthroughs, but only the strong can survive these tactics. And may I remind you, that when you are weak, I am the strongest working through you. So, do not count on your own powers but on My faithfulness and your resolve to stay standing and move forward in spite of the opposition. I will come to your rescue.

"And as for the nay-sayers that attack this Channel, I ask you, "What have you done for Me lately? Oh yes, you have the latest word on the latest end-of-the-world scenario. But in the meantime: what did you do for Me?"

"I do not wish for you to be among the goats, but this must be your decision, not Mine. I have told you what is good and profitable to do; it is up to you to do it.

"I do not assign men a standing; men choose their own standing - sheep or goats - by the way they live and act. So, it is in your hands to make use of this time.

"When I told you three years it was by no means a license to sit back. Rather, it was a call to battle. You've got 3 years to be the best years of your lives in serving Me, bringing forth the most fruit and meriting a ride to Heaven before the worst hits. That's not long; make the best use of that time."

Well, it's only two years now...unless the Lord revises it.

"Because I love you so very deeply, I am not of the heart nor mind that any should have to go through the chastisement. So, please. Make the very best use of this time for Me, and for My agenda, and My kingdom - not yourself. Then you will have nothing to fear in that very last moment when the trumpet sounds."

Jesus Speaks On Turmoil in the U.S.

Lord Jesus, please awaken our hearts to be immersed in intercession as we build with the gifts you've entrusted to us.

This morning I was praying for my husband, who was experiencing a lot of pain. He's had an on-going condition that came up when he was healed of another condition. And as I prayed, I cried, asking for mercy. Just as I have told you, that the Lord is right there with you, I saw the Lord at my right hand, in the same posture of prayer I was in - and He, too, was crying. I thought perhaps my prayers were not being heard because of a sin I was not aware of. But then my husband spoke up and said that he was getting better, and the pain was leaving him.

Jesus explained, "Clare, it's not about you; it's about the world. And as things are going now, it does not look good. Rally your people around you for prayer and fasting. And as far as Ezekiel is concerned, I will always touch him when you pray, always. It's My nature to be full of mercy and I weep with you over his condition, which is reminiscent of the world's. So much is in need of restructuring, but the wicked powers are growing stronger and My people are growing weaker."

But Lord, isn't the mandate to use their gifts a distraction and causing that - to be weaker in prayer?

He continued, "It could, if you fail to put in the prayer that is necessary. However, your obedience in using your gifts also counts for a great deal, even in the midst of this mess."

"The world is failing. Those who want war and death and destruction, those who are ignorant of their connections and ways of supporting evil - they make up a large part of this. They do not know what they are bringing upon themselves."

"And We are getting weary of contending with them."

And when He uses the word 'we' it refers to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

"But for the sake of those who do know and are gutting it out, We continue to come against this evil. However. Understand We will not contend with their ignorance forever."

"I understand about your weariness every day you awake to the same symptoms and fears for your husband. I understand and am here by your side, feeling the very same way. But he has made of himself an offering for the world, so you must understand We honor that commitment. Both of you, in fact, have participated in this suffering for the world."

"Yet there are breakthroughs...times when you make forward momentum."

"I need you to continue to record soothing music. Yes, 'Over the Rainbow' is a great song, but the climate for it is a bit dark. I need deep things now, deep, haunting and moving melodies. The climate also for donations is a bit oppressed, but I will see you through. There will always be something for you."

"Clare, you can always make improvements on your behavior and attitudes. But I want you to know, once and for all, this is not your fault. This is an offering, a suffering that I have allowed for both of you to have something substantial to offer Me, to turn the world around."

And that's what Ezekiel was saying, too. He was saying the same thing. 'It's not about you, Honey. It's what's needed right now in the world.' The Lord would continue to tell him, 'This is intercessory suffering. This is Simon's Cross.'

Then the Lord continued, "I am not saying it's going to end prematurely."

By that He means, before the next two years are up.

"I am saying We are getting tired of contending. But for the sake of the saints on Earth who are pressing in and making their offerings, such as your own - for their sakes, We continue to fight and uphold what is right."

"It is a very dark night in the White House, much prayer is needed to reverse the climate there. And so you are suffering more than is usual. There is nothing wrong with presenting deep music at this time, for this is the climate among the people."

"You can finish the song. I am just saying this is a difficult time to celebrate. Yet, as you were musing in your mind... 'We have to...'"

I was thinking this, this morning. 'Cause I worked on that song 'Over the Rainbow' last night. It's finally coming together. But it's such a happy, happy song, and I'm so much not in a happy, happy mood... And apparently the world isn't either. And I was thinking to myself, 'You know? I think we have to be bi-polar Christians in this hour...enthusiastic about creativity and serious about suffering for righteousness sake and praying.'

The Lord continued, "That's very cute and accurate as well, since you are building and creating with one hand and fighting the good fight with the other."

So I started to say, 'Sometimes...'

And He cut me off, before I could get the words out.

Jesus continued. He said, "I know, don't say it. I will give you the strength. Clare, what I have said to you before has not changed anything. I am not one to say 'yes' one moment and 'no' the next."

And that's an interesting point, because He's made some promises to Ezekiel and I that I'm standing on.

"And as far as your question to Me goes, about the president's first three months in office. First of all, the time I quoted you was not to be taken scientifically exact to the day and hour. What has happened is that he has a strong support system and team that is in total agreement with him about the agenda for this nation. And that's a big accomplishment for his first 90 days. There was much turbulence in the beginning over that, but now he has key individuals who are not selling out on him. And so that makes forward momentum in a climate of severe opposition much smoother and more viable."

"With the elections coming up, I wish for all to rally around him and support him with your votes to give this country a chance at an integrated core government. These upcoming elections are very important. Very, very important. Please. Show your support by prayer, fasting and casting your vote."

Here what He is speaking about are special elections to the House and Senate, state by state, to be held at different times over the spring, summer and fall, to replace those in the House and Senate who have retired, died or been given assignments in Washington with the Federal government. So, those elections are coming up and they're local elections. So you might want to keep an eye on that, and support what's going on with those elections. Pray behind them.

Jesus continued, "There is hope. It is not hopeless. What looks hopeless is the smoke-screen thrown up by the elite sector in reaction to Donald winning the presidential race, as they are still trying to unseat him. But he is moving ahead in a very focused way in spite of the turmoil. And I am with Him."

"So, this is to say, your suffering over your husband's infirmity is an offering to Me. Do I not relieve him when you pray? Yes, in every way I restore him. He is understanding what this is about and very accepting. I need you also to be My little lamb."

"Remember, when you cry, I cry. I am here for you, we are doing this together, My dear one. We are doing this together, all of us. The great cloud of witnesses is with you as well."

Jesus to His Bride-A Pure Heart is Irresistible

May 21, 2017

May the Lord Jesus impart to us, the grace of longing to have only very purest motives in all we set our hand to. Amen.

Tonight, during my communion service, I was repenting and asking for my heart to be purer and at the same time declaring my love for Jesus over and over again. I love you, Lord. I love You.

At one point, I saw Him so clearly and He said, "I love you, too."

And as I was writing this down, I heard to my right - He said, "Oh, you heard that did you?"

I said, 'You know I did, Lord.'

He continued, "Sweet words, your words of Love for Me. And such a broken, contrite heart. I am without the ability to resist that combination."

Oh, Jesus, I do so want to be more pure of heart. And thank you for protecting me from the onslaughts of the panther.

The Lord replied, "He will be back, but you have passed a milestone in understanding his strategies and there is great hope that you will conquer him and your other foes with My Grace empowering you, next time."

And what He was talking about there. I realized that... You're just kinda going along, doing your thing - you know, being faithful, what have you. And all of a sudden you see something. And you think, 'Oh. That could be really helpful!' Like in my case, the last time, was the essential oils. And I was thinking that would be really helpful for Ezekiel. And then I looked into it a little deeper. And the more I looked into it, the more I liked it. The more it appealed to me. The more I thought it would be beneficial for him.

And I sought the Lord about it at that point. I didn't get negative readings, but I didn't go deep enough in my discernment. I wasn't paying attention to my conscience, because by that time, I really wanted to try this with him. I think the point to understand here is, anytime we want to use a device outside of God. Or are thinking how to do something without God, outside of prayer - I think we're walking on dangerous ground. I think that that's when the enemy can mislead us the most. Because He has given me the gift of healing and the ability to pray and see a healing take place.

So, why would I resort to oils? You know. And that was something that came in the mail, was that very thing.

Gosh, Lord - I pray over him and You take the pain away.

But what I realized in all of that is that you kind of...let's just say, they throw some fly bait out there and you jump at it. 'Cause it's interesting and you check it out. And you start getting attached to it. And you think, 'You know - that's a great idea! I like this idea. This would be a good thing to try. It does smell good, after all.'

I found out, some of the remedies don't smell that good at all! But that's not the point. The point is, that you get deeper into it. Then the devil starts inflaming you and you don't even realize it all the time that you're being inflamed. But you're being inflamed and forced into a trap by your own desire nature.

Because I was fine without thinking about it before. But that's how the black panther works. He presents you with a lesser good and convinces you that it's a greater good and you jump at it. And so, that's part of what's going on with this. I was fine before I even thought of that idea. But the enemy laid a trap for me, knowing that I would be attracted to it, and the Lord allowed me to misunderstand the readings that He gave me - and I moved forward into it.

So, it can be very, very slippery. But He's been protecting me in the sense now, that I don't have a desire for anything. But I know the devil's tactics - he's going to come back and tempt me with something. I'm gonna feel weak and he's gonna tempt me with a lesser good. And that's when I need the strength of the Lord the most.

So, returning to the original conversation, so we don't lose track of what the Lord said. I was praising Him and worshipping Him, and telling Him, 'I love You, Lord. I love You!'

And all of a sudden I heard Him say, "I love you, too."

And I was writing that down to share with you, He spoke up again, "Oh, you heard that, did you?"

And I said, 'You know I did. Oh, Jesus - I want to be so much more pure of heart. Thank you for protecting me from the onslaughts of the panther.'

The Lord replied, "He'll be back. But you've passed a milestone in understanding his strategies and there is great hope that you will conquer him and your other foes with My Grace empowering you, next time.

"Now... where was I with the sweet enrapturing affection from My Bride...?"

'Cause I had said to Him, 'Lord - this topic... Really, I hate this topic! Can we talk about something else?'

And that's when He replied, "Now... where was I with the sweet enrapturing affection from My Bride and her sole desire to be pure for Me...?"

He continued, "That is the sweetest topic for Me to muse on. Because it brings to mind all My hopes and dreams for My Bride and the destiny I have chosen her for.

"Even as you considered, I had told you about what I was going to do with our music and I mentioned many people to you. Still, you did not go looking for ways to appeal to many people, you focused on what I was asking of you. I knew that if I told you that, you would not be swayed to change your motivation to 'help' yourself arrive there. Rather, you would continue to keep your tunnel vision on Me and Me alone...although the enemy has approached you with tempting propositions, you have ignored them. Thank you."

And what He was talking about there was the temptation to see what kind of music is most popular in the spiritual realm, because there are channels that have nothing but soothing music on them. And I don't want to copy anyone. I just want to keep eyes on the Lord and let Him do what He wants through me.

I answered the Lord, 'It has taken me 70 years to change my focus; may You, God, help me never to go back to worldly motives. I know that had you given me this gift in my 20's, I would have squandered it on the world and not been the least bit happy.'

The Lord answered, "And this is the very reason I hold some back from their destinies. Were I to plunge them into it, they would be unable to resist the corrupting invitations from the enemy. You have encountered one such situation recently where personal motives over-shadowed integrity and a very precious ministry was put on indefinite hold until the vessel realizes that, somewhere along the line, they took a left turn from Me and wandered away.

"This is one reason why purity of motive is so very important to Me. When corruption gains entrance into a soul, if they succeed at what they are doing to the point where they have a large following, Satan will string them along and at just the opportune time - when they are the weakest - he will push them over the edge into a cesspool of filth."

And what He's talking about there is, for people who haven't conquered lust or any other kind of corruption - it's sitting there. It hasn't been totally conquered, it's still got an influence on them. So, the devil...you know. They allow it to be there and the devil leaves it alone, and let's it lie dormant until he's ready to really snag 'em.

"And those who had been following this anointed vessel will be scandalized - and some will leave the faith. This has happened many a time with well-intentioned men who never overcame lust.

"So, I consider a pure heart, kept just for Me, one of the greatest gifts a soul can give Me. It truly is a virginal heart, no matter how defiled they have been in the past. And truly it is those souls who appreciate salvation and forgiveness more than the righteous, because they know they deserve hell's fire for the things they have done. Even someone like Mary Magdalene had a broken and contrite heart for Me."

And I was reminded of Psalm 51.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise. Psalm 51:17

Jesus continued, "King David knew this secret and it made him one of the most beloved souls of all time to Me. Though he had his moments, his repentance was thorough and he was utterly wasted and broken by his sins and their consequences.

"My dear Brides, no matter what your faults are, the trait most alluring to Me is a pure heart: free of duplicity, free of deception, free of personal interest. A heart such as this has great influence with Me and among the angels of Heaven, as well.

"The defilement of the world sticks to a soul like tar and smells noxious to all of Heaven. It is for this reason that even the angels avoid assignments with these. And yet, there are those among My heavenly servants who have pity on the proud, arrogant and corrupted souls. And they most often end up with those assignments, because they are first to apply.

"You know from experience, Clare, the heartbreak of working with a soul who, in the end, only goes their own way after all. It has broken your heart many, many times and I understand why you take a dim view to helping those you sense are captive to this sin. Because you know all your efforts will most likely go to waste.

"You've had two recently that left you empty inside. But My dearest, the graces meant for them did not get wasted. You will be surprised to see the many souls that corresponded when I offered them what the others rejected. Oh Clare, you will be so thrilled and edified. But for now, you must just take it on My word. Be thrilled over that, dear one."

I'm trying, Lord. But just looking back on these two souls is painful, very painful.

He continued, "It is not in your realm to expect results, but only to do your best and let go at the appropriate time. I know it seemed fruitless at the time, when I told you to keep walking with them - and they took their own direction over and over again. I know well that empty feeling when a child wanders off into the wilderness and away from the safety of the sheepfold. It is as though you have lost them. But I continue to work in their lives and many times they do turn around. But for the ones who don't turn around, in spite of My best efforts, and ministers as well - I grieve beyond what you can imagine.

"The two parables I gave you about the soul searching for the finest honey, and the soul lusting after gold ore in the fork of a mine that was unstable and liable to destroy them - both of those stories were about those who go their own way, but for two different reasons. Yet Pride is the deceiver that causes them to believe they know better than those around them.

"Someday, My Love, every tear will be wiped away and the story will be told in eternity of those who chose God and those who chose for themselves. When that happens, you will cease to grieve for them. But for now, that pain very deep inside is bringing forth good fruit for the seed that fell on good soil.

"Keep plowing and planting, My Love. The Harvest will be beyond what you can imagine. There will be rejoicing, laughter and singing in Heaven on that day! Rest assured, you will be overjoyed. This is that part of Heaven that few understand when I promised 'eye has not seen, ear has not heard, neither has it entered into the heart of man what God has planned for those who love Him.' (I Corinthians 2:9) Most will not be expecting this fruit, because they saw their efforts as a failure. Oh, how wonderful that day will be for us all!"

And that's the end of His message. I just wanted to give you a footnote on that. I want to encourage you to read the story, or listen to the video, from December 11, 2014: Home runs for Heaven, His Grace Will Not Return to Him Void. If for those of you who have the book Chronicles of the Bride - it's the story about Pantutu. I think it's in March. Maybe March 9th - I don't remember what year. But it's in my section of the book and it's about the souls that took the graces that other people didn't want. And they ended up in Heaven. It's a beautiful, beautiful narrative. So, I encourage you to read that.

And I want to thank you, Heartdwellers, for caring about us and taking care of our needs. We appreciate that so much. We've put our lives into serving you - it's a beautiful thing that, some of you care enough to take care of what we have to put out. And I wanted to tell you that I have gone ahead and purchased, according to our limited budget at this time, some of the Rhema books. And I've been sending them out, especially to people who make small donations, because I know those people don't have the money to buy them from Amazon. And it was never my intention, when we put that book together, that anyone should have to pay for it. But because of circulation with Amazon, we were forced to do that.

But I do have them now. They've arrived here at my house, and we will send them out to you if you can't afford to buy one. 'Cause I want everyone to have the book. It's had an amazing impact on all of us that have been using it. Because Carol did an awesome job of bringing the real meat out of the messages, and compiling it into a book under Topics. Boy, I'll tell you - when you go to that book, and you ask Holy Spirit to pick a page for you. Which is what I'm doing now, by the way. Rather than binding the enemy off the book, I just say, 'Holy Spirit, would You please pick a reading for me?' And there's no enemy that's gonna stand up to Him! And the readings are just amazingly spot on.

So, I encourage you all. If you don't have a copy or can't afford a copy, write to me. And we'll send one to you. It's too easy for folks to just type in the comments, that they would like a book. That's why I'm asking for you to write to me. And according to our budget, I'll send you a copy.

And another thing in the works is, we're going to have a compilation of Healing messages on CD's for you. I think it's going to be several discs in a set. And right now we're contemplating acquiring a small amount of equipment to be able to do it, so we can send it out to you free. So, that will be happening. Our first topic will be Healing. And our second topic, How To Hear the Lord's Voice. And Discernment. 'Cause that's a huge thing.

But I'm looking forward to those, because I know you're going to be able to pass them out to your friends, and listen to them again and again. And the Lord is really gonna help us get over the things that are standing in our way.

So, we are working for you because we love you and we want you to have everything the Lord has shared with us.

God bless you, Heartdwellers.

The Lord's Word To America

May 24, 2017

May the Lord grant us patient endurance as we negotiate the rough waters in our lives with Him at the helm. Truly He is bringing great good through our sacrifices. I pray that we do not grow weary in well doing, dear ones.

After my communion service, the Lord Jesus spoke with me.

He began, "I want to speak to the Nation of America tonight.

"Because you have not spurned your connections with Israel, but have courted her favor and even gone beyond, because of that I declare that I am your defense, your security and your strong arm."

Behold, you shall call a nation that you do not know, and a nation that did not know you shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, and of the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you. Isaiah 55:5

I believe, in that Scripture, the Lord is referring to America coming to the side of Israel.

The Lord continued, "Because you have elected a man after My own heart for this nation, not a perfect man by My standards or anyone else's, but suited to govern this nation and look out for My interests. Because of this, I will be your defense against your enemies, America.

"Many are those who wish to bring disaster upon you; many are those who prepare traps and snares for you. More powerful than your own resources are the ones coming against you, but because you have joined yourself to My Holy Nation, imperfect as it is, as well - for this reason, your enemies will not have their way with you.

"What is still lacking is repentance from your worldly ways. However, you have run to the aide of those oppressed in this world, and for this reason, I will train you in the ways of repentance. You have looked after the fatherless, the orphan and the widow. Those oppressed unjustly in prison. And for this reason, I continue to train you in repentance and abandoning your lust for power and accumulated goods.

"Be ever so vigilant that, as your wealth increases, so do your good deeds to those who have no recourse in this world but cry out to Me. Because you harken to those severely oppressed and suffering, I will harken to you that your enemies do not have their way with you. But you must continue to remember the poor in their destitution and train your children up in holy and unselfish ways, contributing to the welfare of the poor as an act of mercy, daily, in their lives.

"Yes, train your children in mercy and mercy shall be given you. Do not allow your children to bully or make fun of the disadvantaged in their community and schools. Do not allow them to laugh at or taunt those who have not and those with life-challenging handicaps. Teach your children to look out for them, even as your Father in Heaven looks out for you. Then I shall protect them from the snares set to entangle and destroy them in their youth.

"Many traps are set for your children. The enemy makes their demise one of the most pressing of his agendas and there is little you can do to protect them, besides prayer. But if you teach them to look out for the poor, to be kind to the socially disadvantaged, to defend the rights of those who are mocked and hated. If you turn their hearts to this kind of response, I will lead them away from these traps.

"But if you see them as merely an extension of your life goals and envision them as selfishly pursuing a career to your and their own benefit, and turning a deaf ear to the suffering - then they shall indeed be led into captivity by your enemies. To the degree you train them in Mercy, to that degree will mercy be given them.

"For too long, your agenda has been prosperity, and there are those among you, who, having attained that prosperity, wish to go from money making success to the next money making success. And they roll their eyes when donations to missions are called for. They are living on very dangerous ground for both themselves, their marriages and children. I am calling you to repent and see to the needs of those around you. Then your light shall arise like the noonday sun, even as it is written:"

"Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live;

"Seek the Lord while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the Lord.

"For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it." Isaiah 55:1-11

And here, for a minute, I thought to myself, 'Well, Lord - it seems like You're contradicting Yourself. On one point, You're saying that our nation is going to be blessed.' I was thinking to myself as I was writing this, 'Well, Lord, You did say also that You would bless this nation, because of those who reach out to the poor and the fatherless. And now You're drawing attention to those who don't. It seemed a little contradictory to me.'

But then, when I went back over the words, I realized first He's talking about those who really do give to missions. Who really do help those nations that are in crisis right now. There are plenty of Christians that are giving. But after He addresses that, He addresses those Christians who aren't giving. And He's speaking that America's agenda for a long time has been prosperity. Yes, well that certainly has gone down the drain.

But it's going to be coming back, and there are those among the wealthy who, having attained that prosperity, wish to go from money making success to money making success - to see their worldly agendas accomplished. And the Lord is saying, No, don't do that. Some of you are not giving to missions with your heart, are not looking after the widows and the orphan, the fatherless. Some of you are living just to see your own family prosper, and the careers of your children go forth and prosper. And at the same time, you're not looking after the needs of the countries that are devastated right now. And that's who He's asking to have a change of heart. Repent and take care of the poor of the world that are going through terrible, terrible crisis right now.

So, it makes sense, after all is what I'm saying.

And something else that He said.

"Open your hearts to the poor and see if I do not open Heaven's windows to you ... windows of graces and provision for your souls to be enriched with the true riches."

And I was reminded of another chapter in Isaiah:

"Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen:
to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free
and break every yoke?
Is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter—when you see the naked, to clothe them, and not to turn away from your own flesh and blood?
Then your light will break forth like the dawn,
and your healing will quickly appear;
then your righteousness will go before you, and the glory of the Lord will be your rear guard."
Isaiah 58:6-8

And that struck me especially, when He said 'the glory of the Lord will be your rear guard.' Because that's exactly how He's also protecting Israel, and He's made a promise to us, that He's going to protect us as well. Because we have come alongside of Israel, looked after her needs as well as a nation.

God bless you for your prayers and for your kindness to us, Heartdwellers. You are some of the finest, most loving and most gracious people that I've ever met. And we're so, so blessed to have you in our family. God bless you.

We Will Overcome Obstacles to Your Destiny

May 24, 2017

My precious Heartdwellers, if the last few weeks have been exceptionally difficult, please take heart! The Lord is with you and has encouragement for our flagging hearts and minds.

After Communion, the Lord said, "May I speak with you?" And He began, "These days are critical, My Clare. I know how much they are costing you. I know all about your battles with fatigue and attitudes. I know how you struggle with frustration that you cannot change some things that cause others pain. I know how you grieve over all these things, even your breathing."

"But may I say, you are bringing down truckloads of graces upon this Channel by your cooperation with these sufferings. Though I know you want to give up at times, still you haven't; you are still, saying, "yes" to Me. I commend you for that. Understand, these are critical times and your shares of suffering are important to My plans. Thank you for persevering, My Love, thank you."

I answered, 'Lord, thank You for giving me the grace to do so.'

"I will always give you the grace. Always."

Oh, thank you, Lord. that is encouraging. Sometimes I wonder...

"Now, about the red balloon you let go."

That's a message I put up, I think a week ago or so. About letting go when it's time to let go. I had felt called to try again to reconcile this situation with Him, and haven't received any feedback. So, the Lord began to speak to me about it.

And He said, "I see your pain. I see the pain in the other. I see all the sins entwined in a mess. But you have now done what you could and I want you to let go again. I do not want this dragging on and on and on, down and down and down. Enough is enough. You made the overture, that is what I was requesting of you. Not results, but the overture. I know this pains you, but you are clean before Me, Clare, very clean and its time to move on. We are going over the rainbow."

Oh, gosh... I feel like I'm going under the sludge! I said, 'Lord, I feel like a slug in the slime watching the sparkling white doves flying over the rainbow with You and I'm stuck on the underside of this leaf, making slime, smelling like slime, feeling like slime...just being slimy.

He answered me, "That's very cute but it's poisonous self-pity. So, let's not be so slimy. Shall we soar together?"

Can You lift a heart that feels like it weights 2,000# over that rainbow??

He said unequivocally, "I can!"

Take me away, Lord... Take me away!

He continued, "Oh so deep are those feelings of failure when you can not alleviate the sufferings of a loved one. But cast these lies aside. Enduring through these trials is part of your suffering to My very, very important cause. I need you to stand straight and strong and I will bring good out of it all. You are not a failure, far from it. You have done as I wished, that's all I wanted. The results are now in My court."

And at that point, we had company and I had to get up to tend to something. And I came back and said, 'Lord, was there anything else, Lord?'

He picked up where He'd left off, and said, "The road of creativity, be it in the arts or administering, organizing...the road of creativity is beset by many bumps and potholes. The secret to becoming who I made you to be is to weather these contradictions and bounce back stronger."

"Because you have My Body and Blood in communion, you can draw your strength from that each day. You have My words to meditate on, and My Spirit to quicken you. And because you have My waiting arms to come to with your petitions, I can fill you to overflowing for the tasks of the day, or I can repair the wounds of the night before. There is no limit to what I can accomplish in My Bride when she avails herself of Me alone."

"What is not understood about journeys to fulfillment in your lives, is the fact that potholes and broken bits of pavement that you must pass over, create greater depth and insight into the human dimension. Which, in turn, stirs up new avenues of creativity in you. Were your journey to be smooth and peaceful, you would grow weary with boredom and lose inspiration for your work. These painful situations bring inspiration."

And it's interesting, a lot of things have come to me while I was in tears, doing the dishes, sweeping the floors - doing some kind of menial housework. So, I understand well what He's saying here.

He continued, "The broken asphalt, potholes, roads washed away and bridges out create an atmosphere for victory over obstacles by presenting you with challenges. You also are experiencing emotions and thought patterns that must be taken captive and brought into My light of Truth to be conquered and turned from evil to good."

"These challenges raise your understanding, giving you many opportunities to think and act creatively, the way I think and act. And also that good may come of even the most distressing situations. The sufferings that accompany them also form you more deeply in patience and perseverance. All in all, I allow contradictions in your lives to make you whole and entire, lacking in no good thing, going from glory to glory."

"And in turn, your experiences bring resolution to the needs of others facing similar trials. They are not to be feared My Brides, but to be eagerly anticipated as a means of perfecting your Love for Me and your neighbor."

Oh, Lord - that'll be the day when I eagerly anticipate trials! That will be the most grace-filled day of my life...

"Do not recoil in fear, My love. Rather embrace the possibilities, and we will cross these broken bridges together. So many people never reach their potential, because they spent their lives avoiding any kind of trouble, contradiction, pain, suffering, a lack of things. Any difficult challenge - they avoid it! How sad this is. They will, at their departure from Earth, feel woefully lacking in accomplishment.

"But for those of you who want to attain to the stature I preordained for you, obstacles and challenges are the rungs of a ladder carrying you all to completion...that is if you continue on the ladder and don't decline. And don't turn back!

"So, don't give up, don't look back, take firm hold of the tow-rope of grace and allow Me to empower you to cross over raging rivers and keep climbing ladders that disappear in the clouds. For that is your destiny."

Joy Comes In The Morning

May the Lord sweep away the tears of the last few months and bring forth the beautiful new thing He is doing, to a waiting and expectant Bride. May we cooperate during this season of growing into our new beginnings. Amen

The Lord has been leveling the high places in our lives. Some of us have had the most difficult month we can remember. The very worst. And each time I would go to the Lord using the Bible Promises, we would often get Humility and Enemies.

We have all been under an unprecedented cloud of attack from things like appliances going wrong - several in succession - in our house breaking down and burning out. To computers getting infected or having other glitches, to husbands cheating on wives, to life-threatening sicknesses. All of us have had more than a normal portion of grief for this month.

And I sensed when I would get "humility," that it was not a rebuke from the Lord for being proud, as much as it was an explanation for what and why He was allowing the enemy to take spoils from our lives.

There are seasons, dear ones. Seasons of climbing that mountain of holiness, where the Lord asks us to climb with His Cross, through the most frigid and slippery terrain, that is so steep we can hardly breathe as we walk. We have talked about this before, climbing and then arriving at a high and level plateau where the vista is exquisite and exhilarating.

From this holy ground, new gifts are given, new abilities and anointings, new opportunities are presented to us to expand God's influence from within our lives going out to others. But during the climb we come humiliatingly near to defeat. One more drop of suffering and we'd be finished! And it is from this place we are desperately crying out to God to help us persevere. We have come to our absolute limit and are fearfully exploring the consequences of telling the Lord, "I can't do this anymore."

Yet we know somehow, He will not allow us these trials unless He provides the grace to triumph and pass through it.

Even as it is written: No temptation has seized you except what is common to man. And God is faithful; He will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, He will also provide an escape, so that you can stand up under it. That's Paul - speaking to the Corinthians. I Corinthians 10:13

And consider David's heart - I opened to this psalm. Actually, I was given this psalm on a rhema card. Consider David's heart when he was fleeing from his son Absalom:

Psalm 3

Lord, how many are my foes!
How many rise up against me!
Many are saying of me,
"God will not deliver him."

OR SO THE ENEMY THINKS! (that's me...that's what the enemy thinks, right?! But we know our God and we know our God is faithful.)

Continuing on with the Psalm:

But you, Lord, are a shield around me,
my glory, the One who lifts my head high.
I call out to the Lord,
and he answers me from his holy mountain.
I lie down and sleep;
I wake again, because the Lord sustains me.
I will not fear though tens of thousands assail me on every side.
Arise, Lord!
Deliver me, my God!
Strike all my enemies on the jaw;
break the teeth of the wicked.
From the Lord comes deliverance.
May your blessing be on your people.

This is what David wrote when he was fleeing from his son! Our enemies foolishly think that if they mercilessly persecute us we will give up. Yet God lives in us and there is no way for us to give up without losing LIFE Himself, Who dwells within us.

Our enemies do not realize that this is another training routine to prepare us for the next level of blessings, blessings that will steal souls out of the jaws of Satan. You know, the Lord toughens us up, and gets us ready to handle more anointing. That's what this is about.

The more the Satanists persecute us, the more pain, suffering, frustration, and loss that they heap on us, the greater will be the gifts and graces God bestows upon us to rise up and throw the nets of salvation into the ocean of this corrupt world and haul out the catch of our lives, even as Peter did in John 21.

153 LARGE fish.

In Kenneth Wuest's, Word Studies in The Greek New Testament, he believed from the choice of words used by John to describe this incident, that Peter had grown discouraged in preaching the gospel and went back to his fishing business.

Sound familiar? "Lord, this is just too hard!! Isn't there some other way I could serve You?"

I felt that observation was very anointed and that's why he didn't catch even one fish, that night. But when Jesus came on the scene, the nets were filled to the breaking point.

I can only imagine that Peter was going through the kind of sifting and testing all of us have been through these past months. He got to his breaking point, but the Lord demonstrated the power Peter would now have to fill the nets to overflowing after he was reinstated, which happened when the Lord asked him three times, "Do you love Me?"

This past month I have shared with you how tempting it was to wander into something to relieve stress, for instance, working with healing essential oils. And in the Sunday missal readings I use every day for my communion services, I opened to this very incident in Peter's life and heard the Lord's voice in this rhema, "Do you love Me more than these?" Wow... And immediately my perspective changed and I realized, "Yes, Lord, You know I love You." And it was so much easier to pass these oils onto a local Christian midwife who practices midwifery in Africa, part of the year. A beautiful young couple of missionaries.

So, the Lord was asking Peter, "Do you love Me more than your fishing business?" And at the same time asking me if I loved Him more than these seemingly innocent distractions. But the point I want to make here is that we have all been tested to our limits, and now I believe breakthrough is coming. He has leveled the mountains and filled in the valleys during this time of supreme effort to persevere, and now we are ready for what He has for us.

I can feel it in my music. There's definitely been a shift in the anointing for the better.

So, in all this my, dear ones, please take it to heart that we are at a turning point, and don't let discouragement bring you down any further. Rather, persevere and wait on the Lord for a breakthrough. Because it is coming! He has seen your labors. He has seen the obstacles Satan has thrown up in your way. He has seen your sincere love for Him, even to the point of suffering day after day after day. And now He is going to reward us.

And by the way, some of us have been suffering as though there were no end to it. And that can really get dark.

So, I wanted to know I was on the right track with the Lord, 'cause this is what I was feeling. I asked Him, 'Lord, please share with us - is this Your perspective?'

He began, "Indeed it is. My Bride is entering a much needed time of rest and recompense. I have watched your labors against overwhelming odds. I have heard every cry for help to keep going, I have captured your teardrops in a golden vial. I have missed nothing."

"Now I am going to anoint your heads with the oil of gladness. I am going to pour your tears onto the fertile ground and like nourishing waters from above, your garden will blossom around you. You are coming into a season of reaping for all your labors, My Bride. You have continued on in the dryness, in the pain, in the threatening winds. You have not backed down, but have proven to Me you are ready for greater gifts, anointings and responsibilities. The fruit from this season will be golden and succulent, nourishing even the most depleted and dried-up soul, even to putting flesh on the dried up bones.

"All around you are the ravages of worldly pursuits and world living - especially by the young, who resemble the souls of old and fatigued men rather than being vibrant with life. Graduating from school should be a time of joy, but for many it's a time of darkness and indecision, plagued with unanswered questions. This is the carnage created by a worldly education without Me in mind. Most leave school asking more questions about their future than they had the whole time they were in school learning.

"These souls are hungering for meaning in their lives. Light in their darkness, peace in their turmoil. And you, My Bride, have the wisdom to point the way through your gifts. Make them count, make your time on this Earth count for Me and for those who are on the edge of the abyss, confused about the true meaning of life."

And when He was saying that, I was thinking, 'Not only are they confused about the true meaning of life, but they're confused about whether or not to BE alive. With all these death cults that are rising up in different places. Suicide cultures - it's terrible! They should be thinking about a beautiful life ahead of them, and they're thinking of ending their life, before it really begins. Oh, my goodness!'

So, here He's saying, for those who are on the edge of the Abyss and confused about the true meaning of life:

"Is it making money? Is it love? Is it popularity? Is it creativity being hailed? You had all these questions when you were without My light. Some of you know what it is like to be without Me, how very dark and hopeless it seems.

"Bring light into this world with the example of your lives and how you live them. Pick up your gifts and begin to work them as you never have before, and watch as you bloom into the fullness of life I intended for you from the beginning.

"I have rich beams of sunlight to penetrate the soil and activate the seeds in even greater energy than before. I have your tears to water them with. I have your diligence to protect the garden from encroaching weeds and distractions. I have planted a hedge of angels 'round about you to protect the nursling plants as they grow into maturity and put off the most holy fragrance.

"See to it that you embrace hope and move forward in your gifts. You have weathered many very HARD storms. And now as I water the seeds I have planted in your lives, with tears, they will grow strong, tall and fragrant very quickly. This is a plateau season. Make the best of it, My Brides. We shall be gardening together and rejoicing in the harvest as well.

"You have no idea of what I have planted in that soil, but when it comes to fruition, you will truly be awe struck!

"Go for it! Or as Clare often types, 'God for it!'"

And something else came to mind as I was closing this.

Psalm 126:5

Those who sow in tears shall reap with joyful shouting.

And Weeping may last for the night, But a shout of joy comes in the morning. That's Psalm 30:56

God bless you, Heartdwellers. This is an exciting time. The Lord is going to bring us out of the difficulties that we've had and give us new opportunities. Please, brush off the dust and the mud and put oil on the bruises and the breaks. Stand up again and get ready for the next season. It's a promising, promising time!

The Lord bless you. Thank you for being on our Channel. Thank you for your kind support. You keep us going. God bless you.

Peace That Passes All Understanding

May 30, 2017

Precious Heartdwellers, lately I've been going through a trial that is so very, very painful that it is testing my faith to the maximum.

I wish I could say this is a happy, happy message, as the last one was, but it is an instruction in the midst of suffering for those who are yet in this place. We are all being called to patient endurance for the breakthrough. The Lord went more deeply into the Scriptural basis for what some of us are experiencing.

I think one of the greatest distortions of the Christian faith is that suffering will end when you become a Christian. Good luck!! Many people buying into this logic end up leaving the faith scandalized. When we look at the lives of the early Christians, how can we possibly imagine a life without suffering? It is the promise of Jesus' comfort and our relationship with Him that makes our suffering much more endurable. Not to mention the promise of eternal life in Heaven with Him.

Jesus began, "My dear June Brides, I know, in this moment many of you are still undergoing torment. I am well aware of the trials that are besetting you. Even the strange things, never before experienced, are plaguing you and yet you have shown your substance by standing strong in the midst of turmoil.

"Let Me remind you that there is a deeper place for you to stand. A much deeper place. A place of peace and union with Me that nothing can touch. I know the battle is raging on the surface, but at the depths all is peaceful and calm. This is where I need you to reside.

"Part of your new season entails overcoming the things that have thrown you into a panic before. Fears, terror, stressors, losses—so much turbulence that ended in loss. But what you are experiencing now can end in gain. All that is needed is your faith and obedience. Go deeper, My Brides, go deeper. There is a place where you can stand when the storm rages, and be untouched by it."

And I have been in that place before in my life, but I've also been in the other place, where I was giving in to despair.

He continued, "Deeper and deeper into My Love, My Arms, knowing that nothing can stop Me from doing good for you and the Kingdom as I offer your sufferings to the Father and we shoulder your cross together. Many of you have life-and-death changing events on your horizon; to you I say, whatever I allow will be for your best. You will, in fact, look back and thank Me profusely for all you had to endure in this season.

"There is joy and good things coming to you, but you must stand until the work I am doing in your soul is complete. These are finishing touches on your faith. These are end-of-semester exams, structured to bring you into more stable footing in your faith than ever before in your life.

"Remember: the darkest hour proceeds the dawn. You are approaching that hour and your steadfastness in the face of these darkest trials, and darkest of all circumstances, is preparing you to stand through the next leg of your journey, in the faith that nothing happens to you in this life that is not to your benefit. I do not allow it. You may protest and say, 'How can this circumstance benefit me? I am facing the loss of everything? How can that be turned to good?'

"This is where I am telling you that I AM IN CONTROL HERE—not the enemy. He thinks he controls life and death, because I allow some of the things he does, using them for your good. But he is sadly mistaken. In all things, he is working for Me. He is arranging the classroom that will ultimately lead to your perfection.

"I AM IN CONTROL...he is not in control. I WILL BRING GOOD OUT OF THIS. He will lose, he has always lost and is serving Me and My purposes, like it or not.

"You may ask, 'How can a child be murdered and possibly benefit anyone?' Do you not know that the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church? Do you not know that to leave this Earth is to live forever in sublime beauty and happiness? This Earth is a pit of corruption. When I take a life into My bosom, I am relieving them of their term on this prison planet. I am rewarding them with a life that is so sublime and filled with happiness that you have no way to comprehend it.

"In the meantime, what is a loss for the parents is a great gain for the Kingdom of Heaven, in that their child will have carried a cross that results in the salvation of a great many souls that were perishing in that hour.

"I know I have told you these things before. Please do not tire of Me telling you, because My words are strength to your feeble hearts. You have only to ask for more grace to hold up under these trying circumstances and I will give it to you. You will walk through the fire without being burned, for I am with You as I was with Shadrach, Meshach, Abednego."

"When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; And through the rivers, they will not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be scorched, Nor will the flame burn you. Isaiah 43:2

But here, the mystery of redemptive suffering is revealed, as Paul spoke to the Corinthians

But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us. We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed.

We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that his life may also be revealed in our mortal body. So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.

And just as an aside, what he is basically saying here is, death and suffering are things that we're going through to release Life to you. This is another argument for redemptive suffering. Continuing to verse thirteen:

It is written: "I believed; therefore I have spoken." Since we have that same spirit of faith, we also believe and therefore speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you to himself. All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God.

Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal. II Corinthians 4:7-18

Jesus continued, "Fix your eyes on what is NOT seen, My Bride. Know beyond a shadow of a doubt that your light and momentary troubles are achieving an eternal glory that out-weighs every suffering. Suffering ends when you leave Earth; it is short and temporary. Glory is eternal: eternal bliss, eternal peace, eternal happiness on a scale never experienced on this Earth.

"There is a place I am taking you to, if you are willing. It is a place of peace in the midst of turmoil, ambiguity and contradiction. It is a place where the winds blow right through you, without harming a hair on your head—rather than bowling you over, onto the ground. It is a place of peace that so triumphs over every earthly suffering, that you will actually care little when you experience personal loss. Because nothing of this Earth matters anything to you, and your faith in My goodness is unshakable. I want you to come to this place quickly; there you will find great freedom and be loosed from earthly fetters that bind you to themselves.

"I want you to have freedom, joy and peace. But for this to happen you must renounce the temptation to indulge the carnal emotions. Self-pity, anger, fear, grief, accusation, unforgiveness, insecurity and all that threatens your life."

And here I'd like to add to what He's saying: Unbelief. Not believing in the goodness of God. And then He brought up this Scripture:

Consider it pure joy, my brothers, when you encounter trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. Allow perseverance to finish its work, so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. James 1:3-4

Jesus continued, "If you can call out to Me for more strength, I promise you greater happiness and peace than you have ever experienced in your lives. It is the peace that passes all understanding, a peace only I can give. And it will come when you allow trials to work deeply in your heart to be detached from this world.

"Don't fight against the pain; flow with it to a new pinnacle of peace."

What I Have Said, That I Will Do

May 31, 2017

May the Lord strengthen our Faith in Him, may we walk through the fires of this life without being burned. May we forever be a witness to the greatness of our God. Amen.

Well, dear Heartdwellers, I struggled with how to share this with you, my sweet family. I really didn't know what to say, so I asked the Lord.

'Lord, how shall I explain this?'

He replied, "Haven't you always been so very honest? So what is different about this? If you are not honest, I cannot prove My faithfulness through you. If you are honest, well... you understand, don't you?"

Yes, Lord.

"So be honest."

Well, my dear ones, Ezekiel and I are going through a difficult trial. He was healed of several issues with scar tissue from other operations that constricted his intestinal track. But a few weeks after that, another infirmity came upon him and for this there is no cure except radical surgery and drugs (which he does not want to take). But mostly because the Lord continues to censor and asks us to the best of our ability to understand, to trust Him and Him alone. That is the latest word, at least.

We have both sensed a trial was coming and the Lord did allow it for His own purposes. Which, if you get to the bottom line, it is always for the salvation of souls. When the pain started up that kept him in bed he would seek the Lord and get readings from the Bible Promises that said Salvation, Fruitfulness, God's Love. And seeking further, when the pain would get very, very serious, we would get Enemies, Death and God's Faithfulness.

Well. It didn't take long to get the picture, because the pain would continue to come back. However, in prayer over him, a Spirit of Death has been sent away without its prey, every time. The Lord is allowing this for our channel, because He wants us all going up higher and this is a suffering and sacrifice much like Heidi Baker's husband has been through. He should have died, but he didn't. Ezekiel should die, but he won't. The Lord has promised a full recovery, and it makes no difference what our Satanist visitors curse or try to do; they will not succeed because they are not more powerful than God. And God IS preeminently FAITHFUL.

So, last night I sought the Lord during my communion service over this whole issue. And He immediately began talking with me. He acknowledged that it was deadly, but that Ezekiel would not die. Rather, he would be healed, but there was still much suffering to undergo. The Lord also promised that I would have perfect peace and equilibrium during this time and it would be a sign to me that He is faithful to His word.

Interestingly, this word came across my desk earlier that day:

"It is going to cost you everything to do the things that God has called you to do." End of quote...yes.

Then Jesus began to speak, "His body is dying but I am not going to allow him to die. I made a promise to you, remember?"

I do, Lord. But I thought perhaps I had lost it.

"No. I have made provision for Him. It may be last minute, but it is provision. I will make you stronger to walk with this not-so-little cross; you will carry it as though it were nothing. And this will be My gift to you."

(And I have to add, an understanding that He really has spoken to me.)

Lord, how can I carry this as if it were nothing? Each day facing the possibility that I might lose the only friend and love I've ever had in this world... He means so much to me.

Jesus replied, "Don't you think I know that?"

Yes.

"That is why I am making a provision for you, that you will not lose it every day and cry yourself to sleep. You are going to walk tall through this crisis, in My strength, in Faith."

Lord, what if you are allowing this to humble me of my pride and people will lose faith in Your Words to me?

He answered, "No such thing is going to happen. I am with you all the way. I will not allow that, as long as you continue to teach what I have given you. I promise you that I will be glorified through all of this."

"What is a man's breath to Me? Have I not created him; shall I not sustain Him. I want you to do your very best to cleave to My promises to you. I want you to believe in Me. No matter how bad it looks, believe in Me."

Lord, please don't make him suffer terribly.

He answered, "There will be suffering, but there will also be provision. I will not leave him without comfort. Pay particular attention to the ecstasies and words he gets after each trial. They are meant to instruct."

And here I want to take a moment and tell you that after one particularly miserable and painful day, he was given several divine visitations to Heaven and from Heaven. Several instructions and beautiful words of prophecy, both to me and people around us. He saw angels and conversed freely with the Lord and also experienced ministry on another continent. Pretty amazing.

And I'm working to get together one of the dreams that he had in the midst of all this. He hasn't really been feeling well enough for us to record it, so it's going to be a little while.

Jesus continued, "I will not let him die. I promised that to you and I continue to promise that to you. I will not allow him to die."

Well Heartdwellers, I've really laid it out for you. I am being so very honest with you, and I know that if I have heard wrong, or a deceiving spirit, you would have every right to abandon me even in my dire need. But I just can't pad the message with back doors. I have to be honest with you. Jesus said he would heal him and that he wouldn't die and I stake my entire life and ministry on that.

So, my dear enemies, go and have a ball with that one. But remember—what if it is true and all the cursing you've done to make this man sick is healed miraculously and you are put to shame? Think about that, too, while you are planning your next moves against us.

When will you guys ever give up your evil?? When will you see how much you are loved by God, who could have killed you seven times over by now, but He continues to let you exist so that perhaps you will convert? What will you do if you are put to shame? Because this is what the Mighty One has told me:

The LORD has heard my supplication, The LORD receives my prayer. All my enemies will be ashamed and greatly dismayed; They shall turn back, they will suddenly be ashamed. Psalm 6:9-10

And He also said, "I will deal severely with all who have oppressed you. I will save the weak and helpless ones; I will bring together those who were chased away. I will give glory and fame to my former exiles, wherever they have been mocked and shamed." Zephaniah 3:19

And He has been saying, over and over again, that He will deal severely with those who've been oppressing us.

So, continuing on in my conversation with Jesus, I said, 'Lord, if You have allowed a familiar spirit to sift me... Lord, I will be crushed. Please, please don't do this to me, please don't. I am begging you. Do not disappoint my hope in You. Please.'

Jesus replied, "Look at the Host I sent you for your communion service. (He's talking here about the little round wafer.). It is a sign that I am with you, not a familiar lying spirit. I am with you. Do you know how I cry with you? Clare, you have no idea the depth of weeping in My Spirit over your pain. If it were not necessary, I would not allow it."

And here I want to tell you, I had a miracle with the host during communion service—which I'll share with you in a moment.

Jesus continued, "You are blazing the way for many healings, not just his. I want you also to write healing music that can carry the suffering souls off into another land, the land of life and happiness. I am using you in a teaching position, much as I used the prophets of old. And how they suffered in My service! Yet the legacy of their life-giving words and deeds continues to live on even into eternity and forever."

When He said that I was reminded of what the Lord said to Ezekiel, the prophet:

And the word of the LORD came to me saying, "Son of man, behold, I am about to take from you the desire of your eyes with a blow; but you shall not mourn and you shall not weep, and your tears shall not come." Ezekiel 24:15-16

And that was when the Lord took Ezekiel's wife. I thought of this, but I remembered that He promised me that Ezekiel would not die.

Jesus continued, "All of my front-line prophets must suffer very deeply to squeeze out the choice grape juice for the wine to be given to the thousands for their healing. This is the lot of both the victim soul and the prophet, that they were able to carry the crosses I put on their hearts, which were very heavy."

Lord, what do you want me to do?

"BELIEVE. That's all I need from you, BELIEVE with all your heart, that nothing is impossible with God. Believe in Me. Believe in My goodness, in My love. In all I have ever promised you. BELIEVE. And even when the dark clouds threaten, BELIEVE. Oh yes, your hope shall not be disappointed. Not at all. BELIEVE.

"Next, work with all your heart, totally believing in yourself and your ability to bring to completion the work I have given for you to do, by the power of My Grace."

Dear Lord. I don't want to see him suffer.

He answered, "It is not only for you, Clare. It is to facilitate conversions. I am so serious about this, and so is he. Yet there still is a season for him. For all your dreams for him to come true."

And by that, He's talking about prophecies that have been spoken over time about us, that we would have a joint ministry.

Jesus continued, "What I am doing is absolutely amazing. If people were told, they would not believe it."

Can You please protect me from our enemies, Lord?

"As long as you apply yourself, I am sending in many troupes to cover you from the devices of the enemy, which have been successfully halting and impeding your way in the past. Those days are coming to a close and I am accelerating your ability and the ease with which you carry it out.

"And what am I asking of you in return?"

To believe?

"Yes, believe. For nothing is impossible with God. Nothing, My Dove. Do you believe, Clare?"

Yes, Lord, I believe. (He smiled) Thank You.

"You're very welcome, My Little Bride."

Well, you know how it is good to have 2 or 3 witnesses to confirm a prophetic word? That was the end of His message. And this is what happened immediately following on this.

During the communion service, I noticed there was a face on the host after it had been consecrated. So, I set that wafer aside and used another for the rest of the service. Afterwards, I looked at the host more carefully. There were a total of SEVEN faces of God on that host. Every which way I turned it, I viewed another face of Jesus or the Father, and they could be seen clearly. That was the first thing. And I'm going to try to photograph those for you.

Next, I opened an e-mail that someone had sent me and it had almost verbatim the very message the Lord had just given me. It was actually a piece of sheet music they had taken a photograph of, and the song was: 'Tis so Sweet to trust in Jesus, just to take Him at His word. I'm so glad I learned to trust Thee, precious Jesus, Just to rest upon His promise Just to know, Thus saith the Lord, Just the simple faith to plunge me neath the healing cleansing flood! Jesus, Jesus how I trust Him, How I've proved Him o'er and o'er. Jesus, Jesus precious Jesus. O, for grace to trust Him more!!

I think I know the melody to that - that's a beautiful classic.

Well then, as if that weren't enough, when I opened the missal I use for the service - I opened to the page that said, "Nothing is impossible to God for those who believe." And it was highlighted, on the page I opened to. Amazing... There it was again, "believe."

Then I went on the internet to look something up, and what Rhema do you suppose popped up? No, it wasn't "believe".... It was the apostle, Doubting Thomas. I always get reminded of him when there is a challenge of faith going on in my life. Sure enough, that's what it was—Doubting Thomas.

Well, my dear ones, pray for us. We are here to continue to serve you in ways WE cannot even imagine. I have known in my heart that the Lord would fulfill His promise to us. And even as this sickness was creeping up on us, Jesus would remind us with this rhema:

What I have said, that I will bring about; what I have planned, that I will do. Isaiah 46:11

Amen, Amen, Amen.

Love you all dear ones. Let's all stand in Faith.
