Course Description:

This Non-Language Specific three (3) credit hour, Instructor led course*, will outline and familiarize the participant with current laws, terminology and trends as it pertains to Social Media and Information Technology (Computer Platforms & Applications) that is currently very relevant in today's court proceedings, and at the forefront of many court cases. It is a common fact that most Family law, Domestic Violence, Gang Cases, Narcotics Cases typically all have some type of social media and/or computer correlation and involvement. For this block of instruction, the language professional can expect to learn valuable insight into different terminology, phrases and methods encountered during court proceedings and that commonly involves social media and internet based applications. "Facebook", "Instagram", "Snapchat" and "Whatsapp" will be discussed along with specific terminology, acronyms and slang associated with current social media and computer based trends. A must have course for all who interpret for criminal, civil, family law, and pre-court deposition proceedings.

*Course may also be presented via webinar with "live" interactive Instructor participation and moderation.
