

Shelter book sales coming in April

The Randolph County Animal Shelter's book sales will be held on successive Saturdays, April 11 and 18, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the old cotton warehouse on Main Street in Roanoke across from Cedarwood Cemetery.

Books are needed. Volunteers are working now to shelve those that have come in according to genre, such as mysteries, children's books, cookbooks and other categories, fundraising chairwoman Evelyn Smith said.

Books may be dropped off at the shelter in Wedowee or on the porch of the warehouse in Roanoke.

"We will also be having a raffle. We have three great prizes. First prize is $400. Second prize is a 12-gauge pump shotgun, and third prize is a Kindle HDX," she said.

One raffle ticket is $1 and six tickets are $5. Tickets may be purchased at the shelter on Highway 48 in Wedowee or call Evelyn Smith at 256-770-1208. The shelter is open Tuesday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The number is 256-357-0101.

They are happy to receive most books but are unable to accept textbooks, Readers Digest condensed books or encyclopedias.
