As we are nourished, we are called to reach out to our communities, our spheres of influence, and to the wider world through the church-at-large.”

Our Vision:

Palestine Lutheran Church will be a haven for all generations, a people worshipping and growing continually in relationship with Jesus, inspired by God’s Word; a living example of stewardship, a loving and caring fellowship that reaches out in Christ-centered faith and love to the world.

Pastor Eric will be doing visitation for members who would like to have one. Please contact Pastor Eric if you would like to have a visit. You do not have to wait for him to call.

Living A Life of Gratitude -----

-----With Pastor Eric

Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. – James 1:17

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. – Philippians 4:6

Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with thanksgiving. – Colossians 4:2

Then he ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves, and after giving thanks he broke them and gave them to his disciples to distribute, and they distributed them to the crowd. – Mark 8:6

When I was a teenager, I used to work for a small-town IGA (Independent Grocers Alliance) store. I swept the parking lot, priced and stocked shelves, cleaned floors, managed trash – you get the idea. Twice a year, we would close the store down for three days and take inventory of “EVERYTHING!” I mean it! We counted staples and push pins and candle sticks and cartons of milk, etc....We had clip boards and checklists. It was tedious and boring! One day I asked the owner. Why? "Well," responded the owner, "it's easy to forget exactly how much you have each year. Every now and then you have to take an inventory just to see what all you have."

That little story, to me, pretty well sums up what Thanksgiving is all about. It is a time when each of us needs to ask ourselves the question: Have I taken inventory of my life lately? Have I tried to count all the things that I do have in life instead of complaining about the things that I don't have. It is a good exercise especially when we are of a mind to brood or whine in self-pity. Have you taken inventory lately?

What I am suggesting here is not some shallow "count your blessings" platitude. But from time to time, in a genuine kind of a way, we need to sit down and do some talking to ourselves about all the gifts and opportunities and challenges that God has given each one of us. Perhaps there is a deep underlying wisdom in the children's poem that says: "Count your blessings one by one, and you might be surprised what the Lord has done."

Jesus and Paul expect that we will live a life of gratitude which might be akin to breathing. Everything contains within it a gifting even if we don't recognize it as such. Taking inventory on occasion reminds us of God's providence at work in each moment for our sake.

As we enter Advent this month which is a time of waiting – in lines ☺ mostly, I invite you to join me in taking inventory of everything in your life and yes, everyone while giving Thanks! ☺

Let us pray. Lord, we thank you for every good and perfect gift that fills our daily life, for people, challenges, opportunities and resources. Create and renew thankful hearts within us, so that we might grow in gratitude and share with others in Jesus' name. Amen.
