FOURTH SUNDAY of EASTER

Apr 19, 2024

This Sunday's Counsel

THEME: Our faith in the resurrection of Christ brings us to shepherd His people with selfgiving sacrifice.

WORD:

As Easter people, belief in the resurrection of Christ is the core of our faith.

PROMISE:

"...they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd". (Jn 10:16b)

ORDER:

"The Good Shepherd.. Must lead" (Jn10:14-16)

DIRECTION:

Pray for guidance to do what is right and be a good witness to everyone.

In the Gospel, Jesus said, "I am the Good Shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep, I know mine and mine knows me."

faith"

Jesus compares himself to a hired shepherd who runs and abandons the sheep when there is danger, this is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. Unlike him, the good shepherd who lays down his life to protect his sheep. He is our Shepherd, and we are the sheep. Jesus personally provides, guides, protects and cares for us. He knows us individually and calls us by our names and each sheep knew it's shepherd and his voice. He speaks to us at every mass, through the Bible, through our priests, through our parents, family and friends. He gives us eternal life through baptism. He strengthens our faith by giving us

"As Easter people, belief in the resurrection of Christ is the core of our

the Holy Spirit in confirmation. He supplies food for our soul by the Holy Eucharist and by the Divine words of the Holy Bible. He makes our society holy by the sacraments of matrimony and priesthood. He protects us, his sheep by placing us in the living hands of his Almighty Father. Jesus heals our souls by the sacrament of Reconciliation and strengthens us in illness and old age by the sacrament of Holy Anointing.

The celebration of Christ, the Good Shepherd reminds us that we are Shepherds, as well as flocks, this is because each one of us is occupying one leadership position or the other. Our Theme says "Our faith in the resurrection of Christ brings us to shepherd His people with selfgiving sacrifice."

EASTER

Feast commemorating Christ's Resurrection from the dead. After the introduction of Christianity among Germanic nations the name Easter, denoting spring, was retained to designate the festival of the Resurrection. With other nations the term commonly used is the Greco-Latin word pascha, derived from the Hebrew pasch (passover). The Christian feast is linked with the ancient Hebrew festival of the Passover. The Church regarded Easter as the greatest of her festivals. All the movable feasts, from that of the Prayer of Jesus in the Garden (Tuesday after Septuagesima) to the feast of the Sacred Heart (Friday after the octave of Corpus Christi), as also the order of Sundays from Septuagesima to the last Sunday after Pentecost, are made to depend upon the Easter date. Its celebration is preceded by 40 days of prayer and fasting and followed till Trinity Sunday by some 50 days of festivity. Up to the 12th century, every day within the Easter octave (the eight days immediately following the feast) was a holy day of obligation. Today, however, in most countries even Easter Monday a was a holy day of obligation. Today, however, in most countries even Easter Monday and Tuesday as days of obligation have been abolished. Source: https://catholicsaints.info/easter/

Peter made it clear that he operated the healing of a cripple in the name of Jesus who they rejected, but whom God chose to make a Cornerstone. Peter's healing of the cripple was not just because he had the Holy Spirit in him, he acted as a Good Shepherd who care for his wounded sheep. The Second Reading, presents us with one essen- tial attribute of Christ, that is love. God revealed his love for us by calling us the children of God.
