

About our speaker: DANIELLE VICTORIANO, RDH, BS, MHS

Danielle A. Victoriano, RDH, BS, MHS is the Regional Account Manager serving LA/MS/Gulf Coast Panhandle. Formally, she served as the Product Manager for Scaler Accessories, where she used her clinical and educational expertise to develop scaling and sharpening products, as well as supportive materials and presentations for clinicians, educators, and students alike for 5 years. Danielle graduated from Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center (LSUHSC) with Associate of Science in Dental Hygiene, Bachelor of Science in Dental Hygiene & Master of Health Sciences degrees in Dental Hygiene with an emphasis in Education. Danielle also holds a certificate in Training & Development from the University of St. Francis. She served as an Assistant Professor in Clinical Dental Hygiene at LSUHSC Program in Dental Hygiene, as well as the Second-Year Clinical Coordinator at Kennedy-King College / University of Illinois Dental Hygiene Program in Chicago, IL. Danielle began her dental career in 1992 as a chairside dental assistant. Her experience includes clinical dental hygiene for the past 22 years, as well as instruction in all areas of dental hygiene —with emphasis in instrumentation, instrument design, sharpening and implant dentistry during her 8 years in dental hygiene education. She has lectured nationally and internationally on the topics of sharpening, periodontal instrumentation, and implant dental hygiene. She has also served as a trainer and lecturer for the Association of Dental Implant Auxiliaries. Danielle has been a member of the American Dental Hygienists' Association (ADHA) since 1995, and has served in numerous positions within regional and state chapters in Louisiana and Illinois. Danielle proudly served as an ADHA delegate to state associations for Louisiana & Illinois, as well as a member of the ADHA Council for Association Policy & Bylaws. Danielle has been a contributor and writer for Modern Hygienist, a web based dental hygiene publication.