

FREEZE!

Stay right where you are! Don't you move one fraction of a centimeter! I think with Gina's message yesterday there's a crying out for the body of Christ to wake up and to become alerted to the changes that are going on around us spiritually. The Lord is trying to get our attention! The Lord is trying to get your attention!

You know the game Freeze Tag? Remember playing that with your friends or even watching your kids play it these days? Everyone picks a person to be "it" and then that person has to run around and catch everyone to touch them and "Freeze" them. If you are tagged, you have to freeze until someone who is NOT "it" finds you and un-tags you to free you.

I believe the Lord is spiritually "tagging" people to call them to attention to get them to stop for a minute to hear Him, to see with the spiritual eye where He is at work around us. There is only one way to know the Father's heart and it's to know Him.

Friends, it crucial that we are "about the Father's business" these days. Everywhere you look destruction and separation is creeping in. The enemy wants us to keep our focus on ourselves so that we become to inwardly focused that we don't see the need for anything outside our own needs and desires. It's true – it's not about you or me, but it does concern you and me and we have a vital role to play.

Are you willing to be used? Are you willing to stay on course and not doubt where the Lord has you – but in faith see it through? If the Lord hasn't ended it for you – then integrity – would have us complete whatever it is before we move on.

My husband and I are starting a new journey very soon. Don't you know I was ready to go on this journey over 6 plus years ago! But God had other plans for us as a UNIT – and let me tell you – it was hard for me to swallow this at first. However, when I FROZE and I said –Okay Lord – I surrender to You – I repent and I will stick this out if not for any reason but because I want to be in unity with my family. As soon as I started in this new way of thinking, the Lord was faithful to show me the bigger picture and prepare us for the move we are about to make in 3 weeks.

Friends – it is important that you don't abort what God is doing with you even when it feels wrong. I could list many stories that "felt way wrong" in the bible – but God had a plan – He always has a plan – He always fixes and perfects that which concerns each of us and as we lay our flesh down – even if we have to cry all the way to the floor – He is there – He is working on our behalf even before we make the decision to wait on Him – because He knows you and I – He knows every part of us – our thinking and our desires.

God will answer – friends – don't look for the answer that YOU WANT. Cling to Jesus and allow Holy Spirit to show you the path that is less chosen – because it leads to freedom, it leads to far bigger and greater than we could try to make happen in our own mind and strength.

Lord I ask each one reading to be touched by Your mighty hand right now and that You would supernaturally clear the cobwebs and fog from their vision and thoughts. That you would show the next steps for those who need direction, that You would heal those who are seeking wholeness in their body but are wanting to go under the gun for surgery because they don't know what else to do – I pray for freedom for those who are struggling with addictions and I pray Lord that You would bring strength, joy, and peace to everyone that needs an extra dose. Lord You are our help in time of need – You are our answer and You calm the storm, just like you set the captive free – LET US FIND STILLNESS – AS WE FREEZE and give You complete control and rise in faith as You take over in Jesus name. I pray we discover You – Your timing over all things in Jesus name!!! Amen.
