President's Letter

Our last gathering felt like good old-fashioned fun to me; shopping at our CHQ Member's Market, playing board games, drinking ice tea and munching on cookies. Thanks to Anne Oswald for bringing us cookies from the Italian bakery, to Jill Ferrari for the homemade chocolate chips and to Kerry Cogen for hauling a cooler full of refreshments. And cold drinks were desperately needed; especially since the air conditioner at the Women's Club was broken and it was 85 degrees. Which made way for our real hero; Joanne Garner, 1st Vice President who came to all of our rescue with 2 large fans! Hip Hip Hooray!

I'm always impressed by our talented vendors: Claire Roloff exhibited exquisite jewelry, Al Accetola offered pristine wood products, Dyan Rosario came through with superb sewing gadgets, Joanne Garner brought beautiful bags, Jan (Carol's niece) sold especially fragrant essential oils, Sue Garcia handled our large boutique bargains and I sold tiny tea towels. It turned out to be a nice variety of items.

And just in case, you missed our market or want to purchase more items, you can visit most of these vendors again at our "Crafts & Quilts Show," on November 6, 2021 at the Elks Club Lodge, Rt 31, Flemington NJ. Please mark your calendars.

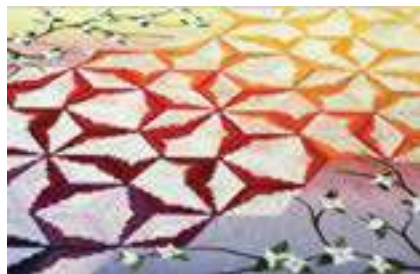

Baby quilts update - the quilts are fantastic! Keep up the good work. As you know, ½ the money earned, will go to our program to further education & legacy of quilting and ½ will go to a children charity. Stephanie Greenberg, Charity Chair, has announced the charity of our choice; "Safe Harbor" in Flemington, NJ. Thank you Stephanie for organizing and keeping track of the quilts and quilt sales.

Next up, Raffle Quilt Sales. I'm Looking for a volunteer to be the chairperson for our 2022 "Southern Sunset Raffle Quilt". This position will locate venues and track ticket sales. You will also be the home base for the raffle quilt. This job has the potential for great success! Another bonus is working with Regina Krejsa! She has offered to organize CHQ membership tickets sales. Thank you Regina.

Next month is our Transformation Challenge - I am looking forward to seeing you on August 15, at Marion Clawson Park, Ringoes NJ for another fun day. This challenge is an opportunity to showcase your ingenuity. And we're having Rita's Water Ice! A cool way to warmly welcome our new Hospitality chair; Donna Slovak. What? You haven't started your challenge yet?

Get going!

2021 CHALLENGE

New Challenge for 2021 due at the August meeting.

Create a “new” garment, accessory or quilt from a ready-to-wear garment. The finished item must consist of at least 25% of the fabric or design elements from the original garment. You may select a garment from your own closet or another source such as men’s wear, knits or special occasion dresses (be creative in your choice.) Feel free to embellish, take apart, or change elements of the original garment and add other fabrics.

Please take a photo of the original garment before you take it apart so we can compare it to the new creation.

All new creations must be created between now and the August meeting when we will show and vote on the challenge items.

Sign up NOW! (Few spots available) Contact Joanne Gardner to sign up. Description: (Two day class) ; In a relaxed atmosphere of warmth and good humor, this class is an introduction for the non-painter to the use of non-toxic transparent permanent textile paints on cotton fabric suitable for quilts. Students will spend the first day painting skies, water, and more to become familiar with the various effects that the watercolor paints produce when diluted to certain degrees and when applied with brushes, sponges, and bottles. During this time, students will also experiment with mixing colors, manipulating fabric, and painting many special effects pieces for blue skies, sunsets, leaves, earth, and others. The second day gives students the opportunity to develop more sophisticated color combinations through a concentration on mixing colors, as well as creating individual painted landscapes and several other landscape techniques for interesting results. Students generally complete about 3 - 5 yards of fabric pieces if weather is good and they are able to dry fabric outdoors. The designs produced are a combination of planning and serendipity and give the students a hands-on basis for future exploration in hand-coloring fabric.

SUPPLY LIST FOR: "PAINTING LANDSCAPE FABRICS" (2 day class)

Instructor: Mickey Lawler

Note: Students must be able to work in a large, well-lighted room with plenty of floor space on which to dry their painted fabrics in case of inclement weather. However, direct access to sunny, outdoor space is always preferable for drying. Direct access to water and sinks is essential.

Each student must bring:

Brushes and Sponges: A couple kitchen sponges; plus 1 natural sponge about the size of your hand. (Automotive and hardware stores are often cheaper than art supply stores.)
About 8 – 10 cheap 1" – 2" natural bristle brushes and two 1" sponge brushes. (You will find these at Michael's or other craft or hardware stores.)

A couple dozen pairs of rubber gloves (disposable type from pharmacy work best).

Plastic Bags for possibly taking home damp fabric.

Paint containers: 10 – 15 half-pint cottage cheese style containers or snack-size Gladware, plus 2 containers that will fit the natural sponge.

Plastic Plant Mister or Spray Bottle: At least 16 oz. and make sure it "mists".

3 – 4 FoamCore boards: 20" X 30", 3/16" – 1/4" thick. (Art supply stores or Staples), covered on one side with Contac Paper.

 OR: *****

1 FoamCore board: 20" X 30", 3/16" – 1/4" thick, and cut a large lightweight plastic drop cloth, clear or white, into 24 pieces, 2 ft. X 1.5 ft. each.

Fabric: 4 - 6 yards of white "PFD – prepared for dyeing - 100% cotton. Broadcloth is a nice weight. (I buy my broadcloth #453 from Testfabrics, www.testfabrics.com. Kaufmann Pimatex or Patina is good also.) Do not cut. We will be doing that in class. It's not necessary to prewash fabric if drops of water sink immediately into the fabric. However, if drops of water sit on the surface, prewash fabric with detergent or choose a different fabric. No need to iron.
OR you may email me at Skydyes@comcast.net AT LEAST 4 WEEKS PRIOR TO CLASS and request that I bring suitable fabric for purchase in class.

Other: Permanent marking pen, scissors, paper towel, a few straight pins

MINIS IN THE MILL

One of the successful fundraisers held during our CHQ biennial quilt show has been a raffle of mini quilts made by the guild members. The raffle is conducted in tricky-tray fashion, with the drawing on the afternoon of the last day of the show. It's a great opportunity for members, other quilters and non-quilters to take a chance at taking home a small piece(s) of quilted art made by CHQ members.

In the past we've raffled 50-60 mini quilts per show.

Please consider making at least one Mini for our October Courthouse Quilters Guild Show.

Here are the rules for Mini construction:

1. Your Mini can represent any theme and can be traditional, modern or an art quilt, either from a pattern or your own creation.
2. Your Mini can be as small as 6"x6" (minimum) or as large as 24"x24" (maximum).
3. No cheater cloth.
4. Your Mini can be machine or hand quilted; no tied quilts.
5. Your Mini should have a label with quilt title (optional), your name, county, state, date and Courthouse Quilters. That way the lucky winner will know all about their new quilt and who made it. It's not necessary to add a hanging sleeve.
6. Your Mini must be handed in by no later than the September meeting. This will give the committee time to photograph the Minis and finalize other details.

Minis can be given to Mary Rigby or Joan Lasota at any guild meeting . If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Courthouse Quilters Board Meeting Minutes

June 11, 2021

In attendance: Cathie Giambalvo, Joanne Gardner, Jude McCormick, Laura Kohl, Penny Armagost, Joan Lasota, Marla Knappe, Stephanie Greenberg, Patty Gertz, Camille Quinton, Al Accettola, Andrea Cavallaro, Ellen Heath, Kerry Cogen and Cass Garner.

Meeting called to order at 7:09.

May 2021 Board Minutes. Cathie moved to approve. All in favor.

Old Business: Amended Standing Rules APPROVED by a majority vote (members present) at UFO Auction.

New Business & Board/Committee Status:

President: Cathie

Cathie had questions about Quilt Show Boutique Storage, location and cost of storage. Items are currently in a storage unit incurring a cost of over $200 per month. These items will be stored until October 2021 until the period of the lease is over. There are 96 bins and 21 garbage bags of items in the storage unit. Ellen resigned from her position as Boutique Co-chair last month. Sue Garcia, Boutique Co-chair has agreed to be responsible for looking for future storage locations and guild members to volunteer to store items until our next show. Prior to October, her goal will be to reorganize, minimize and divide and store items based on subcommittee (books, fabric, notions, handmade items, etc). Cathie expressed concern about Ellen paying for boutique storage personally. Ellen said she didn't mind paying approx $1200 to store the items and she considered it a donation to the Guild. Items are secure in a storage unit location near Phillipsburg, until Oct 2021.

1st Vice President/Program: Joanne - "Name That Tune Challenge"

Schedule- 3pm- hang ropes for quilts in gazebo bays, large ladders needed. Guild ladder is MIA- may still be stored in the kitchen of the lodge.

4pm- Quilt and item drop off

5pm- Picnic

6pm- Brief business meeting; Show 'n Tell.

Joan made a motion to discuss debating on switching from Zoom to FB live. Stephanie seconded. Concerns are about privacy. Content could be shared outside of the guild. What are the benefits? Most members have become comfortable with the use of Zoom, but not all have Facebook accounts.

Vote in favor of Facebook Live: 2 Opposed: 8

Program details for upcoming meetings:

July location- Member's market: Flemington women's club is available. The county complex is currently still not available.

August- TBD

September: Mickey Lawler Fee is $20. Class fee is $25. If fabric needs to be provided by Mickey, cost is $9 yard, and she will need 1 month notice to provide it for the class. 12 people were signed up for the original class before it was rescheduled. Previously enrolled guild members have been reimbursed and will need to re-enroll. The list will start with the 12 previously enrolled. There are 8 remaining spots. Must sign up with Joann and the clipboard, online enrollment will not be an option for this class.

2nd Vice President/Program: Jude – Has not received any feedback from the virtual sampler platter regarding instructors for the upcoming year. Pursuing Daisy who teaches 4-5 classes for a virtual meeting, possibly February when we historically experience the worst weather. Jude is finding post pandemic that instructors are resistant to travel and prefer to teach virtually. Is a workshop needed for the meeting when the guild hosts a ‘Sew for the Show’ or post show analysis?

Treasurer: Patty - June Treasurer Reports UFO sales were very successful. Check written for $2312.23 (check treasurer's report) Baby quilts will have written gift acknowledgements upon request only. Changes with the tax code have made gifts less of a write off.

Recording Secretary: Laura Kohl

Corresponding Secretary: Kerry Complete set of keys are available for the mailbox. Notes to be sent out to Denise Lager, Linda Wood, Ellen and Andrea for surgeries and well wishes.

Charity: Stephanie - UFO Auction Report. Baby Quilt Initiative needs a document in the newsletter telling people what to do, count on how many quilts have been collected and Quilt label information.

Circulation: Ellen

Historian: (open position)

Hospitality: (open position, not necessary at this time)

Library: Cass- Update contact info for library from Patty to Cass on the Library page for next month's newsletter from Al.

Quilt show dates are Friday September 30th – October 2nd. Membership: Camille Current membership is 69 people, roster to be sent out soon.

Newsletter & Photographer: Al

(Next month send items for newsletter to Cathie for President's bulletin)

Repeating information in the newsletter will stay: Membership benefits, International Quilt Museum Guild Portal - should this be dropped from newsletter, Show and tell, and the ‘Benefits of CHQ Membership.’

CHQ library page needs updating.

Publicity: Joan

Raffle Quilt Construction 2024: (Open Chair position)

Raffle Quilt Sales 2022: Penny Armagost - Camille and Andrea are interested in generating a Raffle Quilt Launch Event in October. Raffle Quilt sleeve done, label to be created and to be applied by Penny. Quilt holder/hanger will be brought this weekend by Joanne. Photo is not needed because the photo was taken last year and postcards were made, the date needs to be changed but the design can be used. Tickets need to be printed, state approval is still good because of COVID, municipal approval needs to be started for Stockton.

Quilt Show Co-Chairs: Camille & Andrea - Proposal for Fabric-anza!

This Fall Event will be a public event, but not be as large as the show.

The purpose would be to promote CHQ, to increase membership, launch raffle quilt sales, advertise 2020 Quilt Show, sell off some of the boutique excess items to decrease storage needs, and host a member created quilt sale.

Advertise with an email blast to previous show attendees and to local guilds.

Cathie created a motion to discuss Fabric-anza. Seconded by Patty.

Patty suggests the Pre-Sale of baby quilts. Have an exhibit of mini quilts (not for sale at this event).

Location where we can sell will need to be secured. Possibly a church or synagogue where there is a lot of space.

Vote on holding this event this coming October: All in favor

Joan suggests having an additional quilt or prize to raffle. Past shows had multiple prizes for each ticket. 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Joann says that will create problem with the quilt license and start over because we would need new appraisals, new tickets and a new license. Cass suggests a door prize which would create the need for an additional license. Would the cost be worth it? Discussion to be continued at a later date.

Vote to consider relicensing quilt and adding an additional quilt: 6 in favor 4 opposed. To be revisited next month.

Web Presence: Marla

Motion to close meeting by Al at 8:54pm, Seconded by Stephanie.

June 25, 2021

Special Board meeting for Discussion of Fall Events

- Can not hang with tack or tape on the walls.
- Can fit 30 6 ft tables around the perimeter.

- Highly visible location.

Event will include Raffle Ticket Sales, fabric, handmade items, Fall and Christmas items, baby quilts, and boutique items. Members will be able to sell their own items including quilts. Each guild member accepts the liability for their own items.

Potential Dates: Sunday October 3rd, 10th, 17th, 24th or Saturday November 6th. Saturday date preferable.

Vote for holding event on 11/6/2021 at the Elk's Club: All in favor 8, 0 opposed.

No discussion.

Vote for Anne Oswald for Circulation Committee- All in Favor.
