Artist Statement

Since childhood, I don't remember any time when I was not drawing or painting. My passion is dramatic light and shadow and clean, saturated color. I work in a number of media (including pastel, oil, and watercolor), sometimes en plein air; other times in the studio. My paintings have been featured in magazines, in juried exhibitions across the country, have received national and international awards, and are in corporate and private collections throughout North America. As an instructor I enjoy helping other artists find their passion.
