

Pallas, Wayne

Wayne Pallas, 39, of Decker, passed away Tuesday, September 5, 2006, at Hills and Dales Hospital, Cass City. He was born August 17, 1967 in Cass City to Herbert Pallas and the late Mary Louise (Caister) Pallas of Decker. Wayne worked at several farms in the Decker area and was an employee of Huggett Sod Farm, Inc. of Marlette for more than 14 years. Wayne began working on loading sod and proceeded to drive a semitruck for the company. The Huggett Sod Farm employees and owners were like family to Wayne. Wayne graduated from Deford Christian Academy in 1987. He attended Deford Community Church, Novesta Baptist Church, and Holbrook Baptist Church throughout his life. He enjoyed driving a semi, driving his race car, fishing, hunting, barbecuing and spending time with his very close family and friends. Wayne's family and friends were a very important part of his life. His love for everyone was very significant. Wayne accepted Jesus to direct his path from this earth to heaven's gate and went peacefully to heaven. He is survived by his father, Herbert Pallas; two sisters, Judith (James) Boyce, of Cass City, and Sandra (Daniel) Widdis, of Jenison; several nieces and nephews, Misty (Steven) Shafer, of Georgia, Tina Pallas and Mark Keefover, of Colorado, Angela Boyce and Heith Forster, of Cass City, James Boyce Jr., of Cass City, Krysta Boyce, of Cass City, Daniel (Heather) Widdis, of Jenison, Brant (Angela) Widdis, of Belding, Lydia, Micah, Elisabeth, Elise, Jonathan, Abram, and Nicolas Widdis, all of Jenison; great nieces and nephews, Steven Shafer, of Georgia, Michael, Timothy and Thomas Harp, all of Cass City, Brittany and Caleb Widdis, both of Jenison, Natalie and Bransen Widdis, both of Belding; and several aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. He was preceded to heaven by one sister, Karla Sue Pallas; and several grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins. A funeral service will be conducted at 1 p.m. on Saturday, September 9, 2006, at the Hacker Funeral Parlors in Sandusky with Pastor David Mercer, of Deford, officiating. Burial will be in Moore Township Cemetery in Snover. A dinner will follow the services at the Deford Community Church around 3 p.m. Visitation will be from 2 to 8 p.m. on Friday at the Hacker Funeral Parlors in Sandusky. Memorials may be made to the family.
