(Cont'd)
 It was most probably built specifically as a meat market as indicated by a former walk-in, cork lined cooler that appeared to be part of the original construction. The 1860's was a period of great expansion for the quarry and wine industries on the island, causing a growth in population that would support such a specialized retail establishment, the first of its kind here.

The first known owner or operator was Henry Trieschman, a German born meat cutter who, according to Aldrich, had come to Sandusky in 1865 to open a butcher shop, married Catherine Grau there in 1868, and by 1870 was living on Kelleys Island working as a butcher. Trieschman became one of the leading citizens here, (see also ERI-1573) and was involved in a number of other related endeavors. To supply his market with fresh beef, he established a slaughter house with adjacent stock yard and pasture off Woodford Rd. on land he purchased from John Monaghan (ERI-1758). Later, c.1919, he slaughtered hogs as well, building an addition to the store for the manufacture of sausage. Henry Trieschman maintained the shop until his death in 1915, being succeeded in turn by his son, Henry, Jr., and his grand-daughter, Elda Shaw. After Elda's retirement, c. 1942, the shop was run variously by Norman and Elizabeth Blatt (ERI-1655), Walter Elfers (ERI-1690), and Frank and Katherine Hamilton (ERI-1707). It was under the Hamiltons that a line of groceries was first introduced. In 1946 management was taken by Frank Pohorence and his sister, Florence (ERI-1530 & ERI-1602). They enlarged and expanded the business by knocking out a south wall, incorporating the space of the adjoining shop, once a boot and shoe shop and a reading room. The current owners have recently radically altered the exterior.
