

pennsylvania

STATE POLICE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 27, 2020

Indecent Exposure

White Clay Creek Preserve: 405 Sharpless Rd, London Britain Township, Chester County - The Pennsylvania State Police, Avondale Barracks, is investigating a report of an indecent exposure that occurred on Friday, July 24, 2020, at approximately 2:00PM. The Victim related that she was on a run through the Preserve when she passed an Unknown, White Non-Hispanic Male, with short dark hair. He was also described as wearing a light blue and white horizontal striped t-shirt, khaki cargo shorts and appeared to be in his late twenties, early thirties. The Victim continued her run and eventually turned around to return home. When the Victim passed the individual again, he had his genitals out of his pants and was masturbating while watching her. The individual was now wearing orange tinted sports style sunglasses in attempt to conceal his face. The Victim screamed and sprinted past the individual returning to her residence in Delaware at which time PSP Avondale was contacted. The Pennsylvania State Police, Avondale Barracks is requesting anyone that was in the area during the time of this incident and saw someone fitting the description of the actor, to please contact Trooper Thomas WATERS of the Criminal Investigations Unit at 610-268-2022.

For more information on the Pennsylvania State Police, visit www.psp.pa.gov.

MEDIA CONTACTS: Trooper Kevin Kochka, PSP-Avondale, (W) 610-268-2102, kkochka@pa.gov , Twitter: @PSPTroopJPIO

###