

Faith is an Enigma

It is one of those days... I had a difficult night's sleep, there are many things on my plate right now and my mind is racing trying to find solutions to things that are going on in my life. Sometimes I forget what I have in Christ and is only operational when I walk in faith.

So, I have been thinking a lot about faith because whatever we are facing, it is always going to come to where we are in our faith. Our faith is key in how we walk things out.

- It's by faith that we are saved (Ephesians 2:8).
- It is by faith we are justified (Romans 5:1-2).
- It is by faith that we please Him (Hebrews 11:6).
- It is by faith that we have what He says we have (Romans 4:16; Galatians 5:5).
- Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go! Let it be done just as you believed it would." And his servant was healed at that moment (Matthew 8:13).
- Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith let it be to you." (Matthew 9:29)

Insert a drum roll here please.....my conclusion about faith? Faith is an enigma (grin).

What exactly is an enigma? A puzzling or inexplicable occurrence or situation: something that is difficult to understand or explain.

Yep, I'd say that sums up faith don't you? When we walk in faith things happen. When we walk by faith we see the fruit of walking in it.

Faith only operates in Heaven's realm. Faith only works when it engages truth. Faith changes things and us. Faith helps us grow.

Faith is believing what God said is true. Faith is being convinced of the truth, being certain of reality, having evidence of unseen things. Faith is believing, hoping in, embracing, and seizing the truth. Faith opens up the heart or plan of God to us. Faith makes His spoken Word a reality in our lives.

The great news is that we just need to walk it out by faith and it's our choice to do it or not. Having faith in what God says means relying completely on Him—trusting in His infinite power and unfailing love towards me.

I don't think we will ever understand exactly how faith causes things to happen, but that's what makes it FAITH and that's why it works. Hence my theory that faith is an enigma (I hope your grinning).

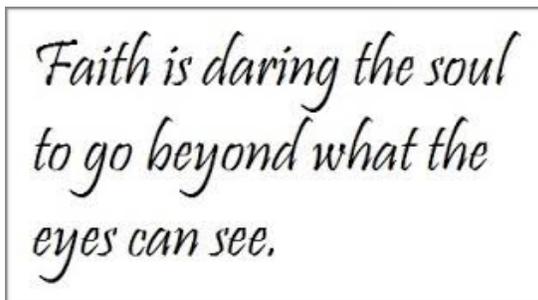

Whatever you are facing today you need to step away from your human wisdom, knowledge, potential, gifting, etc. etc. etc. and walk this out through faith in Him only.

Would love to hear your thoughts!

Faith
It makes things possible, not easy

Faith is daring the soul to go beyond what the eyes can see.

There are times when we have to step into the darkness in FAITH, CONFIDENT that God will place solid ground beneath our feet once we do.

Worry ends when FAITH IN GOD
— Begins —

Faith is believing GOD
more than our own feelings and thoughts experiences
