

YOU MUST HAVE A WAY WITH WOMEN

By John Lipinski

Laughin', drinkin' & dancin', just partyin' the night away
Smilin', winkin' & smoochin', always knows the right things to say
You're lookin', holdin' & touchin', you're makin' my woman sway
You must have a way with women, cuz, you took my woman away

You must have a way with women, it must be the way you dance
It must be them five hundred dollar boots or maybe, them skin-tight pants
It must be the way you comb your hair, or the fancy things you say
You must have a way with women, cuz, you took my woman away

Solo

Workin', sweatin' & achin', drivin' twelve hours a day
Savin', Scrimpin' & pinchin', so she can go out & play
But, now I'm mad, angry & hurtin', & can't believe it happened this way
You must have a way with women, cuz, you took my woman away

You must have a way with women, it must be the way you dance
It must be them five hundred dollar boots, or maybe, them skin-tight pants
It must be the way you comb your hair, or the fancy things you say
You must have a way with women, cuz, you took my woman away
You must have a way with women, cuz, you took my woman away
