

AMERICAN INDIAN FAMILY CENTER

Where American Indian Families Thrive!

Marketing & Communications Specialist

Application Deadline: June 5, 2020

Full-Time, Monday through Friday 8:30am – 5pm, Some Evening and Weekend Hours
$40,000-$52,000 (DOQ) + Excellent benefits including employer paid health, dental and life insurance coverage for the employee, 403B retirement fund employer contribution, paid holidays and generous PTO accrual.

Title of Job: Marketing & Communications Specialist

Position Description: The Marketing & Communications Specialist is responsible for supporting the fundraising, marketing and communication efforts of the AIFC. This position reports to the Community Development Director.

Major Areas of Responsibility: This position works to implement strategies that promote the mission, vision, and activities of the organization through marketing themes, campaigns, communications and engagements strategies. The Marketing & Communications Specialist will work to increase agency exposure, strengthen fundraising efforts, and engage support of volunteers, donors, sponsors, and partners.

Specific Job Tasks:

- Develop and execute annual strategies for fundraising and communications including a content calendar for all social channels and for volunteer and donor engagement.
- Monitor and evaluate marketing engagement efforts through trends and analytics.
- Develop written content, graphics and public statements on behalf of the organization for the AIFC website, social channels and marketing publications.
- Develop and coordinate a photo-inventory of AIFC events and programs, assist in taking pictures when necessary.
- Facilitate the AIFC's Public Relations Committee (PRC).
- Coordinate the planning and execution of AIFC special events and fundraisers.
- Serves as the main point of contact and a centralized support and resource for volunteers and donors.
- Coordinate volunteer recruitment and donor engagement efforts.
- Manage the delegation of volunteer assignments and supervisors.
- Provide frequent and timely volunteer and donor acknowledgement through letters, phone calls and email distributions.
- Maintain accurate and up to date records of the donor and volunteer database.
- Provide efficient data tracking and reporting of analytics and outcomes.
- Assist with the creation and preparation of mailings.

- Assist the Development Team in funding and prospect research.
- Assist the Development Team in the preparation of grant applications and reports.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Required Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Knowledge of American Indian culture and heritage.
- Demonstrated skill and knowledge of social media platforms.
- Must be a self-starter.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Experience in grant writing or compelling writing skills is preferred.
- Must understand and maintain confidentiality.
- Demonstrate strong interpersonal skills with a large range of populations.
- Exhibit superior attention to detail, with strong organizing and planning skills.
- Display ability to interact effectively as a member of a team and work collaboratively with others.
- Plan, coordinate, monitor and motivate the activities of others.

Education and Experience:

- Four-year degree in Communications, Marketing, and/or related field required.
- Experience with visual content development or graphic design, computer software and relevant applications including Adobe Creative Suite required.
- Experience with database management, mass email distributions and website development (Wordpress) preferred.
- Knowledge in copywriting, graphic design, video editing, and photography preferred.
- Cultural knowledge of the American Indian community and community organizations preferred.

Physical Demands and Work Environment:

- Very light lifting (less than 15 pounds) may be required occasionally.
- The AIFC is a low noise facility (under 30 dB) and has private and shared offices and conference rooms.

Interested applicants can submit resumes and letters of interest to Charlotte Mertz, AIFC Community Development Director at charlotte_mertz@aifc.net by June 5, 2020 @ 5pm. Selected applicants will be contacted to arrange an interview.

AIFC thanks you for your interest!