

Farley, Helen

Helen Leone Farley, 77, of Caseville and formerly of Metamora and Imlay City, passed away Monday, April 26, 2004. Helen was born February 3, 1927 in Detroit to Melville and Evelyn (Wardell) Campbell. She married Lawrence Allen Farley on April 19, 1947 at the Waterworks Park in Detroit. Helen was employed by the Imlay City Schools as a playground aide at Weston Elementary School from 1973 to 1991. Helen is survived by her husband, Lawrence Farley, of Caseville; daughter, Karen Czapiewski and her husband, Larry, of Dryden; sons, Michael Farley, of Caseville and Shawn Farley and his wife, Debbie, of Imlay City; five grandchildren, Stacey Abromaitis and her husband, Paul, Michael Lawrence Czapiewski and his wife, Andrea, Michael J. Farley and his wife, Lisa, Patrick T. Farley and his wife, Crystal, and David Ice; four great-grandchildren, Christopher Farley, Mia Farley, Paige Abromaitis, and Jackson Abromaitis. Helen was preceded in death by her parents, Melville Albert, in 1975, and Evelyn Marie Campbell, in 1996; brother, Private First Class Victor Campbell, who was killed in World War II's European Theater. Funeral services were conducted this morning, April 29, 2004, at White Chapel Cemetery, Troy. Memorials may be made to St. Mary's Hospital Foundation, 800 S. Washington, Saginaw, Michigan 48601, or Michigan Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis, 21311 Civic Center Drive, Southfield, Michigan 48076. Funeral arrangements were made by Muir Brothers Funeral Home, 225 N. Main Street, Imlay City.