KIWANIS MEETING OF January 29th, 2018

We had a total attendance of ten, nine members and our speaker Tom Wood. Dal led the meeting, Ben the prayer, and Anne chose our songs which were Smile Sing a Song, Keep it Booming and Over the Rainbow. For lunch we had a meat ball casserole, salad, and bread.

Anne was our name in the news while Joe provided us happy dollars. Dal told those present the details of our January board meeting. The website has been updated showing both the new club officers and committee assignments.

The dates have been set for some of our upcoming events. Walter awards will be held on March 26th. The Youth awards banquet on May 8th and Sconniewood, Youth Film Festival, on Sunday April 29th.

Our speaker this week was Tom Wood, Dal's son, who had spoken five years ago about his new Dog Kennel business. Tom has started a new business, under-ground dog security fence. The purpose is to allow your dog to run loose but keep it in your yard. The dog does not get a shock but rather a busing vibration in its collar when it approaches the boundaries of your yard. Most dogs are quickly trained not to venture out of their own yard.

This was a natural business for Tom to get into since it is related to his successful Kennel business. Tom returned Sunday from the companies annual convention in Orlando ready to expand his new venture. One of our former members, Paul Trimberger, had Tom install a system in his yard last year.
