

April 11, 2021 Sunday of the Divine Mercy

Rich in Mercy

The Church must proclaim and introduce mercy - the source of forgiveness from our wellspring, the Savior. Forgiveness is for everyone - for all time - not a cancellation of the requirement of justice, not an indulgence toward evil, but the love necessary so that man may affirm himself as man - as the father affirmed the dignity of his prodigal son.

Saint Pope John Paul II
"Dives in Misericordia"

The Divine Mercy Chaplet will be sung, today, Sunday April 11 @ 3:00pm in the church. Join us!

Ladies of Charity

The Ladies of Charity on behalf of the Center of Hope would like to thank the Council of Women and the Faith Formation Group for the generous outpouring of food and baby items this Lent. Our shelves are stocked abundantly and we are humbled by your generous expressions of charity, kindness and caring. We are so grateful to our Saint Olaf family for your compassion and continued support in helping those who are in most need.

Pastoral Council News

The Pastoral Council is seeking nominations to become members. The Pastoral year begins in September.
