7. PUBLIC COMMENTS/COMMUNICATIONS:
Lanette Huddleston: Everything's down at the bridge and the lights are off. I'm happy to say we didn't have any vandalism to speak of down there this year or have anything missing. We had a little bit of damage to the sleigh, but it wasn't intentional. I know it was the overload problem. We got it taken care of before it got any worse. There was some additional graffiti going on down there. I sent some pictures to David Brown that happened since we decorated the bridge.

In my opinion, the bridge really needs to have some treatment done to it sometime. The floor is going to start deteriorating. It's still solid and sturdy, but it needs to be treated. I had mentioned it to Alderman Brown that if the city wanted somebody to do the treatment. I could get a group of people together to work on that next spring.
