WELCOME TO THE MANAGER'S DESK, I'M MIKE CORNELL.

WE'RE NOW JUST 4 DAYS AWAY FROM THE START OF THIS YEAR'S SPRING LETTER MONTH. I HAVE SOME MORE SEPTEMBER LETTER MONTH LETTERS TO SHARE WITH YOU TODAY. AND A WORD ABOUT AN UPCOMING BUS TRIP.

[JOHN – EMAIL] Dear Mike and staff. Your station is very important in my life as it is the only one I listen to. You ask about favorites: Top of the list is the music. It is easy to listen to as I perform other chores. The performers and writers are always there with their words of comfort and encouragement. It is great to have the melodies and words that infiltrate my mind so easily. I make it a point to meditate with Dr Jeremiah each evening. If at all possible I try not to miss Jimmy De Young on Saturday at noon. He provides good updates on the world events from a definitely Biblical perspective. Overall, just thanks for being there. It is comforting to know that good Christian people are available 24/7 at my radio or smart phone app.

[CINDY – EMAIL] In addition to listening to 102.7 on my daily commute to work, I often internet stream while at lunch. Love your biblical teaching programs--John McArthur, Chuck Swindoll, David Jeremiah, and Janet Parshall for keeping us informed. Moody Bible hour on Sundays has become my church away from church while spending much time at home these past months. The music played on your station is so uplifting; I also enjoy the daily one hour song request time, and the two hours on Saturdays. Psalm 95 also provides great chorale selections, love to sing along with them!

I HOPE TO READ YOUR LETTER DURING THE MONTH OF MARCH.

ARE YOU READY TO GET OUT AND DO SOMETHING? I HAVE DECIDED TO PUT TOGETHER A BUS TRIP TO THE WISCONSIN DELLS FOR THIS YEAR'S WISCONSIN GOSPEL MUSIC FESTIVAL MAY 7-9. THE 3 CONCERTS FEATURE THE BOOTH BROTHERS, THE BALL BROTHERS, TRIUMPHANT QT., GREATER VISION, THE MARTINS, DAVID PHELPS AND LEGACY FIVE.
