Dear Parish Family,

Well, here it Wednesday morning, 27 June and we have learned from the bulletin publisher that they need to have the bulletin for 8 July by Friday, 30 June. With Fr. Ricky leaving (FAREWELL, FR. RICKY) and Fr. Robert not here (WELCOME, FR. ROBERT), and Deacon Leon who wrote his final letter last week (OH WELL, WHAT CAN I SAY ABOUT HIM), this bulletin is being written by a 'ghost writer'.

So what has been happening at 215 South Craycroft Road?

Did you see the new fence at the rectory? This is to keep Fr. Robert's dogs in their own space. Now I know why Fr. Robert seems to be so calm, he has two dogs to love. One is a black lab and the other is a husky.

It is hard to miss the improvements to the front of the school. The dead tree has been removed and all the orange trees have been white-washed and neatly trimmed.

Our maintenance staff has greatly improved the assembly area of the school. We even had some professional help.

Mr. John Hill, our maintenance supervisor's last day is 30 June. He is returning to Michigan to be with his family. We know how important it is for grandchildren to have grandparents close by. John, although you can't see me (remember, I'm a ghost), it has been a pleasure and a privilege working with you.

As John leaves, we welcome Mr. Arthur Pacheco as maintenance supervisor. Welcome aboard, Art. I'll be around to haunt you.

Two days ago, we had the contractor perform the quarterly preventive maintenance on the air conditioning units in the parish and school.

I hope everyone had a safe and Happy Independence day. I know that this is Deacon Leon's favorite holiday, because a couple of his ancestors fought in the Revolutionary War (on our side, of course) at Concord and Lexington.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

I found a church sign that Deacon Leon missed last week so here it is.

TOO HOT TO CHANGE THE SIGN! DETAILS INSIDE!

Have a good week everyone. See you in church!

The Ghost Writer

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Last week's Treasure mentioned the "Nuns of the Battlefield," religious sisters from several communities who served as nurses in the Civil War. Florence Nightingale had only instituted female nurses a decade before in the Crimean War, so the idea of women tending to wounded soldiers was extraordinary. The medical and sanitary conditions on the battlefields were appalling, and the sisters were nearly all teachers. Few had any medical training beyond what they had learned as youngsters in the family. Anti-Catholic prejudice was so deeply entrenched in America that sisters could not wear their habits in public. These sisters were the first, and people on both the Union and Confederate sides soon began to marvel at their bravery, efficiency, and respect for Protestant soldiers. More than six hundred sisters from twenty-one communities went to war, serving in wretched conditions. They were tough and single-minded, efficient and fearless.

After the war, sisters could appear in public everywhere in the reunited nation, and often received the praise and gratitude of grateful soldiers and family members on behalf of their sister nurses. An outdoor monument to the "Nuns of the Battlefield" stands in Washington at M Street and Rhode Island Avenue. The inscription reads: "They comforted the dying, nursed the wounded, carried hope to the imprisoned, gave in His name a drink of water to the thirsty."

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En los calendarios antiguos se celebraba la memoria de san Cristóbal el día 10 de este mes. Pero, con la reforma del Concilio Vaticano II este pobre santo se quedó sin trabajo sólo por el hecho de no poder comprobar su existencia.

No fue que la reforma del Concilio Vaticano II quisiera haber negado al pobre de Cristóbal ni a tantos otros santos que fueron quitados del Santoral Romano. Sólo buscaba hacer lugar para nuevos santos y beatos; y menos mal, porque eventualmente el Papa Juan Pablo II canonizó y beatificó a más de mil personas durante su pontificado. Muchos de estos santos no son tan bien conocidos como nuestro amigo san Cristóbal.

Aunque ya no está en el calendario eclesiástico, Cristóbal continúa en los tableros de muchos carros ofreciendo su servicio de protección para los automovilistas. Esta chambita la consiguió porque ayudaba a cruzar el río a personas en camino, hasta que un día le tocó cargar con el niño Dios. Su nombre significa "el que carga con Cristo" y es un desafío a todos los que llevamos el nombre de cristiano.

Supreme Knight Carl Anderson at the recent Organizational Meeting for State Deputies: "The domestic church is foundational to Faith in Action. Pope Benedict told us that the church has three missions. It has a mission to pray, it has a mission to evangelize, and it has a mission of charity. Our domestic church program simply says the Catholic family has the same mission. It has the mission to pray together, it has the mission to build up each other in the faith, and it has the mission to practice charity among the members of the family and for the family to reach out to other families. How many fewer individual Catholic families would be broken and suffering if we could get our families to pray more, build up each other in the faith, forgive, and reconcile and practice charity?"

If you are a Catholic man interested in becoming a Knight, please contact our council at 520-303-4791 or by email at Kofc8813@yahoo.com

Pre-K to 6th Grades:

As we continue to enjoy summer vacation, we ask that parents continue to talk to their child about the Gospel and Homily every Sunday.

The topic of conversation with your child this week is the 3rd Commandment: “Remember to keep the Lord’s Day Holy. – Mass on Sunday and Holy Days”

Talk with your child on how we should not let Sports and other interests interfere with our commitment to follow the 3rd Commandment. That going to Mass is the priority to honor Our Dear Lord Jesus Christ. Parents need to be the role models by participating by going to church with their child.

We are in need of teachers and volunteers. If you would like to share your faith and love for Our Lord Jesus Christ, Please contact the Parish Center with your name and phone number.
