Jill wants to do something fun on the weekend. Will she go to the park or go to the beach? She likes both. At the beach,

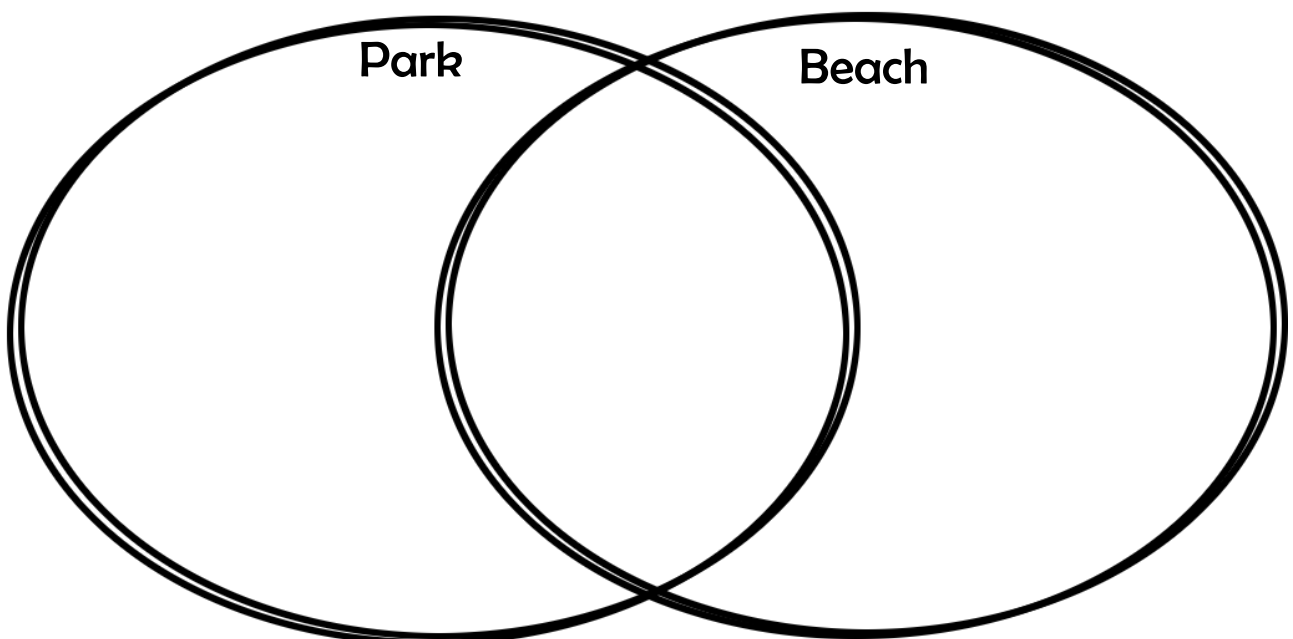

Jill could have a picnic, or she could buy fish and chips. There is also an ice cream shop at the beach. There is no ice cream at the park, but she could still have a picnic. Jill likes going to the park because of slide. Also, she likes that there are only a few people at the park. There are always lots of people at the beach. Jill will go to the park because it is closer to home.
