

MABEL O. OESCH

1907 - 1988

Mabel O. Oesch, age 80 of Pigeon, passed away Tuesday, July 19 at Provincial House of Cass City.

Mrs. Oesch was born on September 29, 1907 in Elkton, daughter of the late Henry and Mary (Baetz) Eichler. On December 18, 1926 she was united in marriage to John Oesch in Pigeon. He preceded her in death on February 8, 1967.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church, Pigeon and was a cook at the Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon for several years.

Mabel Oesch is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Albert (Shirley) Schulze, Pigeon and Mrs. Charles (Jennie) Hawkins, Dearborn Heights; a son, John (Pinky) Oesch, Pigeon; 12 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; 4 step-great grandchildren and 2 step-great great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a grand daughter, Joanie Hawkins, 3 brothers, Clarence, Elton and Harvey Eichler and a half sister, Thelma Koch.

Funeral services will be conducted on Friday, July 22 at 1:30 p.m. from the Shetler-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon. Rev. James P. Schwandt, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, Pigeon will officiate with burial in the Grand Lawn Cemetery, Pigeon.

Memorial contributions may be made in her memory to the First United Methodist Church, Pigeon.