With one mind and one voice

Jesus prayed fervently for the unity of believers in John 17. At the end of his earthly ministry, he did not need to be schooled about human greed, jealousy and vindictiveness. Such things would put him on the cross the very next day. The challenge of unity among believers would be a huge one; even believers have their likes & dislikes, competitive spirit, etc. The apostle Paul would repeatedly echo the words of Jesus. Below is a collection of these Spirit-breathed words:

Romans 15:5-7: May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God.

1 Corinthians 1:10: I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another in what you say and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in mind and thought.

2 Corinthians 3:11: Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice! Strive for full restoration, encourage one another, be of one mind, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.

Galatians 5:26: Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other.

Philippians 2:1,2: Therefore if you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any common sharing in the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind.

Colossians 3:13: Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.

1 Thessalonians 4:9,10: Now about your love for one another we do not need to write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love each other. And in fact, you do love all of God's family throughout Macedonia. Yet we urge you, brothers and sisters, to do so more and more.

Father, I praise You, I honor You and I thank You for my life and my well-being. I admit that I have done things that are not pleasing to You and I admit that I have omitted doing the things that please You. I pray for the will and the strength to live every day in a way that pleases You. In the name of Jesus. Amen.

Scripture readings:
Philippians 2:1-5

If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus
