- Collaborate with other professional nursing organizations to meet the common goals

- Plan and implement projects that benefit the Indian American Community in South Florida

- Encourage Indian nurses to participate in local community activities and to become productive citizens of their communities

- Work with other Indian American organizations on useful common goals