Talked my father into going to church. Several of the people he worked with were members there. My father was saved a few months later and they became faithful and active members for many years. They encouraged all their children to go also and we were all saved at Chase Ave. Baptist Church. We had a fine bunch of young people there. We had parties and visited each other on Sundays. My mother & father ~~was~~ always had a house full of people on Sunday. We would invite our friends (not realizing what it cost to feed people). We had our own cows and chickens. Always had a large garden and canned hundreds of jars of vegetables and fruit each year, otherwise we couldn't have made it. I was always interested in plants ~~and~~ the garden. After ~~after~~ I started to Junior High School, I did most of the gardening. I ordered all sorts of seeds from catalogues and tried growing them and had great success. My mother was a flower lover. She always had a yard full of flowers. I can't remember a year from the day in Hubbard until she got so old and feeble that she couldn't care for them, that she didn't have a yard full of many varieties of flowers. This is probably why all her children loved
