

IF YOU DIED TODAY
ARE YOU 100%
SURE OF HEAVEN?

There are many people who would say that Hell is on earth. That is a reasonable argument considering the suffering and sorrow that many experience here. There are others who say that there is no Hell after we die because the Bible is a fairy tale or because a loving God who created so many beautiful things would never create Hell. Still others who believe hell is possible do not believe God would send his creation there. But God made it clear in the Bible that there is a Hell where people go after they die and where they will eventually burn forever.

Hell and the Lake of Fire, two different places with interchangeable names, are described in detail in the Bible in Luke chapter 16. Jesus explains a rich man who died without having asked Christ to save him from Hell and consequently went there: And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments...and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame (Luke 16:23-24). A man who does not believe in hell or that God would send him there can not change the Bible truth that there is a Hell, and God does send our soul there after we die if we are not saved. As a matter of fact, God wants the opposite of Hell for us which is the joy of heaven. So then, what does it mean to be saved?

The Word of God says, For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). And there is a payment for our sin. First you die physically: For the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23a) Then your soul dies a second death for all of eternity: And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire (Revelation 20:15). But, there is a way out.

The blood that Jesus shed on the cross was enough to save us from Hell. Simply by asking him we can be saved: For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (Romans 10:13). Simply pray, believing in your heart, a prayer like the one on the reverse. Because Hell is a place of suffering, more so than the suffering of the earth, and God does not want us to go there.

IF YOU DIED TODAY
ARE YOU 100%
SURE OF HEAVEN?

There are many people who would say that Hell is on earth. That is a reasonable argument considering the suffering and sorrow that many experience here. There are others who say that there is no Hell after we die because the Bible is a fairy tale or because a loving God who created so many beautiful things would never create Hell. Still others who believe hell is possible do not believe God would send his creation there. But God made it clear in the Bible that there is a Hell where people go after they die and where they will eventually burn forever.

Hell and the Lake of Fire, two different places with interchangeable names, are described in detail in the Bible in Luke chapter 16. Jesus explains a rich man who died without having asked Christ to save him from Hell and consequently went there: And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments...and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame (Luke 16:23-24). A man who does not believe in hell or that God would send him there can not change the Bible truth that there is a Hell, and God does send our soul there after we die if we are not saved. As a matter of fact, God wants the opposite of Hell for us which is the joy of heaven. So then, what does it mean to be saved?

The Word of God says, For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). And there is a payment for our sin. First you die physically: For the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23a) Then your soul dies a second death for all of eternity: And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire (Revelation 20:15). But, there is a way out.

The blood that Jesus shed on the cross was enough to save us from Hell. Simply by asking him we can be saved: For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (Romans 10:13). Simply pray, believing in your heart, a prayer like the one on the reverse. Because Hell is a place of suffering, more so than the suffering of the earth, and God does not want us to go there.

IF YOU DIED TODAY
ARE YOU 100%
SURE OF HEAVEN?

There are many people who would say that Hell is on earth. That is a reasonable argument considering the suffering and sorrow that many experience here. There are others who say that there is no Hell after we die because the Bible is a fairy tale or because a loving God who created so many beautiful things would never create Hell. Still others who believe hell is possible do not believe God would send his creation there. But God made it clear in the Bible that there is a Hell where people go after they die and where they will eventually burn forever.

Hell and the Lake of Fire, two different places with interchangeable names, are described in detail in the Bible in Luke chapter 16. Jesus explains a rich man who died without having asked Christ to save him from Hell and consequently went there: And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments...and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame (Luke 16:23-24). A man who does not believe in hell or that God would send him there can not change the Bible truth that there is a Hell, and God does send our soul there after we die if we are not saved. As a matter of fact, God wants the opposite of Hell for us which is the joy of heaven. So then, what does it mean to be saved?

The Word of God says, For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). And there is a payment for our sin. First you die physically: For the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23a) Then your soul dies a second death for all of eternity: And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire (Revelation 20:15). But, there is a way out.

The blood that Jesus shed on the cross was enough to save us from Hell. Simply by asking him we can be saved: For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (Romans 10:13). Simply pray, believing in your heart, a prayer like the one on the reverse. Because Hell is a place of suffering, more so than the suffering of the earth, and God does not want us to go there.

IF YOU DIED TODAY
ARE YOU 100%
SURE OF HEAVEN?

There are many people who would say that Hell is on earth. That is a reasonable argument considering the suffering and sorrow that many experience here. There are others who say that there is no Hell after we die because the Bible is a fairy tale or because a loving God who created so many beautiful things would never create Hell. Still others who believe hell is possible do not believe God would send his creation there. But God made it clear in the Bible that there is a Hell where people go after they die and where they will eventually burn forever.

Hell and the Lake of Fire, two different places with interchangeable names, are described in detail in the Bible in Luke chapter 16. Jesus explains a rich man who died without having asked Christ to save him from Hell and consequently went there: And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments...and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame (Luke 16:23-24). A man who does not believe in hell or that God would send him there can not change the Bible truth that there is a Hell, and God does send our soul there after we die if we are not saved. As a matter of fact, God wants the opposite of Hell for us which is the joy of heaven. So then, what does it mean to be saved?

The Word of God says, For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). And there is a payment for our sin. First you die physically: For the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23a) Then your soul dies a second death for all of eternity: And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire (Revelation 20:15). But, there is a way out.

The blood that Jesus shed on the cross was enough to save us from Hell. Simply by asking him we can be saved: For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (Romans 10:13). Simply pray, believing in your heart, a prayer like the one on the reverse. Because Hell is a place of suffering, more so than the suffering of the earth, and God does not want us to go there.