

CAPE TOWN PLEIADES STAR MAP

The purpose of this illustration is to suggest that the South African coastal city of Cape Town is configured to the Cydonia, Mars pyramid complex. The longitude is at 33 degrees and the Martian motif is inverted vertically. The Pentagon Pyramid corresponds to a natural pyramid, Signal Hill overlooking the amazing city. The heading is 72 degrees, a factor of cosmic time. The heading from the Cape Town Stadium that is suggested corresponds to the Face of Mars is at the 33.3 degree mark, a coefficient of the 333 degrees on the Cydonia, Maris configuration. The financial district corresponds to the Pleiades Pyramid City of Mars. There are approximately 7 towers or skyscrapers that appear to match the orientation and ley-lines of the Pleiades. There is one prominent skyscraper that has a pyramid at the top. This is also true of Johannesburg. There is also an apparent 'Serpent' motif that usually accompanies this hexagram motif. In the case of Cape Town the depiction weaves in-between the corresponding stars of Atlas and Alcyone and converges on the intersection of the hexagram and center ley-line. This section of this Pleiades composition is correlating to the 'stand' as in a candlestick or Menorah.

The 'Serpent' motif is as though the 'Serpent' is supporting or upholds the Pleiades that correlates to the financial mammon that the 'Builders' sought to represent, at least on Earth. This is also seen in Sao Paulo with the same 'Serpent' motif at the base of the triangle of the Pleiades configuration.

Pleiadian Pattern

The hexagram is not 'Jewish'. It is an ancient motif that predates the Flood of Noah but crossed over as Nimrod incorporated it into the mystery schools of Lucifer's religion. It was when the Jews were in captivity for their disobedience to YHWH that they were in Babylon for 70 years. It was there that the 'Wizards' took to the Luciferian mystery schools such as the Zohar, the Kabbala and the Talmud.
