Holy Week: Christ for Us

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As April unfolds, we once again approach the most sacred days of the Church Year—Holy Week. These services are not mere traditions, but moments where our Lord comes to serve us with His Word and gifts.

We begin with Palm Sunday, rejoicing as Jesus enters Jerusalem to die for the world. On Maundy Thursday, He gives His body and blood for the forgiveness of sins. Good Friday brings us to the foot of the cross, where Christ bears our sin and redeems us by His death. Then, on Holy Saturday, we gather for the Easter Vigil—a beautiful and ancient service of light, Scripture, prayer, and Sacrament—as we keep watch for the dawning joy of the resurrection.

And finally, Easter morning bursts forth with the proclamation: Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia! The tomb is empty. Death is defeated. Jesus lives—and because He lives, so shall we.

Make time for these services. They are not burdens, but blessings. In them, Christ comes to you—crucified, risen, and present with His gifts.

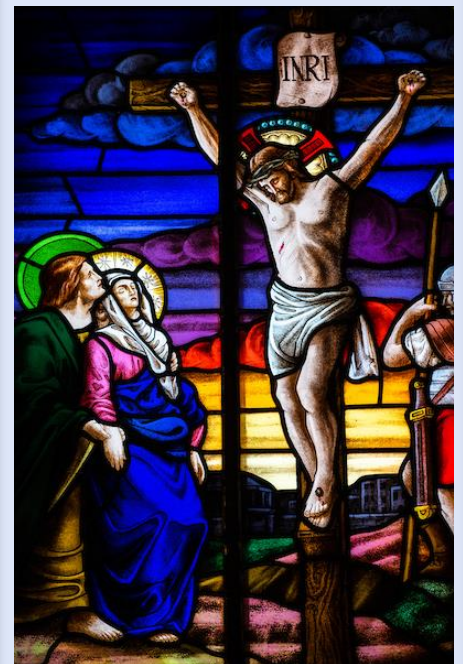

In Christ,
Pastor
