Treasurer's Report: Jim McNamee presented the treasurer's report for May. The treasurer's report for May was accepted.

Old Business

- Dale thanked the work party that cleaned and repaired the museum in advance of the Memorial Day weekend.
- Clothing update:
  - Carlo Cavalluzzi said there is clothing available for all members. We have an excess of medium sized items that need to be reduced in price so they can be sold and eliminated from inventory. These medium sized items can be sold to chapter family members.
    - There are 107 coins in inventory with 200 additional new coins that have arrived. Cost of new coins to members will remain the same as the old coins. The old style coins need to be sold in advance of the new style coins.
- Carlo purchased 12 new bungee cords for the museum.
- Bill Robie reported through Dale that our model vendor has been unresponsive to his request for additional models and may have gone out of business. The chapter apparently needs to find a new vendor. Current model inventory is a B-52 and some motorcycles.
- Honor Flight update:

- The Northern Colorado Regional Airport (NORCO) had no space for the chapter members to participate in the welcome home ceremony on May 1.
- No new information on the High Plains Honor Flight. If you want to apply, go online to their Website.
