PUBLIC COMMENT- None

ELECTED/APPOINTED OFFICIALS

Rick Abell, City Attorney, reviewed and discussed a proposed ordinance that amends Chapter 154- Zoning Code to adopt definitions and regulations that define the terms dwelling, dwelling unit, and tiny houses and to also prohibits the location of tiny houses in most zoning districts and prohibits the use of tiny houses as dwelling units. A public zoning hearing will be scheduled. Abell also took questions and discussed modular home regulations with council. A separate public hearing would be held for amendments to the zoning code addressing modular homes.

Alderman Elliott mentioned a property to be checked concerning nuisance violations. Chief Miller would be notified.

Supt Hartline discussed issues with Frontier contractors installing fiber within city limits that were failing to notify JULIE.

Mayor Penrod named Alderman Pitts and Elliott as the negotiating committee for upcoming collective bargaining agreements.

Penrod discussed with council the ongoing issue of a dilapidated commercial building on North 4th Street that has caused damage to another building. Brief discussion was had with council and city attorney of the situation and owner information.

Penrod mentioned including a car show for the Vienna Fall Festival that would feature classic cars and lifted trucks with limited entry due to availability of space. Council was in general consent to add the event to the festival.

Penrod discussed an opportunity for the city to purchase property on North 4th Street if it were to come available. There was a general consensus from council to acquire said property.

Penrod said the city was contacted by Francis Energy concerning a site plan installation for electric vehicles charging equipment in front of Miles Brothers Foods.

Penrod said the EPA required the city water plant take lead/copper water samples from ten homes each year. Penrod suggested offering an incentive to residents for a one-time adjustment to their water/sewer portion of their bill, for the month they successfully participate. Council was in general consent.

As there was no further business to discuss, Alderman Tuey made a motion to adjourn. Seconded by Alderman Elliott. Mayor Penrod declared the meeting adjourned at 7:45 p.m.
