Press Release April 20, 2021 – CSBA Board of Directors Update

The Canadian Sheep Breeders' Association just held their 132nd Annual General Meeting on Saturday April 10, 2021 by Zoom conferencing as Covid restrictions did not allow for face to face meetings again. This year marked a few milestones for our board as there were several changes that took place. We would like to take this opportunity to thank Bruce Sinclair of Nova Scotia for his service as president over the last 5 years. Bruce has stepped down from this role but continues to be an integral part of the board of directors. We would also like to take this opportunity to thank Trenholm Nelson of Quebec for his 23 years of service to the board. Trenholm also held the presidency role for 7 years during his time on the board. He has resigned from the role of board of directors but is thanked for all his significant contributions over the years.

The CSBA board of directors announced that Keith Todd of Ontario will now hold the role of president and Sheri Bieganski of Manitoba as Vice President. The CSBA also announced a new Executive which is being held by Bernadette Nikkel of Alberta and Blair Dow of Ontario. All of these directors bring extensive industry experience and knowledge to move the sheep industry forward. The board also would like to welcome Sylvain Blanchette of Quebec who will fill the role for one of Quebec's representatives. Thank you to the remaining board of directors as they continue to represent CSBA at their provincial level.

The CSBA would also like to thank Bethan Lewis for her role as Junior Director over the past year and wish her much success in the sheep industry.

Jane Underhill has moved on from CSBA and as such, the board will be looking forward to having the role of Board Office Administrator filled by a qualified candidate. The website will have the details regarding the upcoming position but candidates will be asked to apply electronically to office@sheepbreeders.ca with their résumé and qualifications.

CSBA wishes another successful year to all members and welcomes any comments or inquiries you may have.
