

IVAN H. BOUNTING

1906-1994

Ivan H. Bounting, 88, longtime Sebawaing auto repair service owner, died Saturday morning, Oct. 15, at Huron County Medical Care Facility, Bad Axe, following a lengthy illness.

He was born in Saginaw on Feb. 23, 1906, the son of Albert and Fanny (Hollis) Bounting. He was married to Edna Heinitz in Detroit on Oct. 22, 1927, and she survives him.

Mr. Bounting owned and operated Bounting's Garage and Gas Station on Beck Street—M-25—from 1939 until last year. An auction sale was held just one week before his death in which the machinery and equipment of his business were sold.

He was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Sebawaing, and Lutheran Laymen's League and he was a longtime member and clarinet player in Sebawaing Municipal Band and in the Hungry Five German Band. He was a lifelong hunter and fisherman.

Surviving are his wife Edna of Sebawaing, one daughter and her husband, Marion and Donald Gremel of Tucson, AZ, five grandchildren and spouses, Gary and Monica Gremel of Manton, Janet and Michael Horst of Sebawaing, Karen and David Wible and Susan Gremel, all of Tucson, and Kathy and Stephen Roberts of Bay City, 10 great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren, one sister, Louise (Lily) Jahr of Deltona, FL, one brother, Albert Bounting of Royal Oak, and two sisters-in-law and one brother-in-law, Lillian Heinitz of Southfield, and William and Mabel Hurles of Frankenmuth and several nieces and nephews.

One granddaughter, Judy Gremel, and two brothers, Adrian and Tim Bounting, preceded him in death.

The funeral will take place at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday (today) in Immanuel Church, with Rev. Martin Hagenow officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery. Visitation will continue today at Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home, Sebawaing, until 11:30 a.m. He will lie in state at the church from noon today until the time of service.

Those wishing to offer memorials are invited to consider the Radio Mission Fund, the Medical Care Facility or the Lutheran Hour.
