- F. Should an employee be absent, claiming sickness, and fail to comply with rules and regulations of this section, such employees shall then be charged with leave without pay. Sick leave shall not accrue during any leave without pay. For example, if an officer is charged with leave without pay or if an officer is suspended for eight (8) or more hours during any part of the calendar month, that officer will not accrue/earn a sick day for said calendar month.

If the absence from duty exceeds five (5) days, Department Management will have the employee report for duty in accordance with existing City Policy.
