About Us

The UNLV Rebel Girls & Company are the official intercollegiate athletics dance team for the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. The team performs and cheers at all UNLV Men's Basketball and Football home games throughout the season. RGCO is one of the few co-ed collegiate dance teams in the nation and competes at UDA College Nationals in Division IA, as well as other competitions on a seasonal basis.

Dancers of RGCO are full-time students who are held to high academic standards while balancing rigorous training, performances, competitions, and representing the University of Nevada, Las Vegas as ambassadors at athletic events and throughout the greater Las Vegas community.

About Us

Goals and Objectives

- Perform and execute sidelines, cheers, and dance routines with athletic excellence at UNLV athletic events and games.
- Engage the crowd and lead cheers to elevate fan support for intercollegiate athletics, keeping attention focused on the field or floor for entertainment and competitive purposes.
- Compete at a high level both nationally and internationally, representing UNLV with skill, athleticism, and professionalism.
- Serve as public relations ambassadors for the university and its athletics program, appearing at campus and community events.
- Facilitate academic success through scholarship opportunities, study hall, and life skills classes.
- Uphold and reflect the values and ideas of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.
- Demonstrate good citizenship and sportsmanship in all matters related to dance and team representation.
- Conduct themselves properly as UNLV representatives, abstaining from violence, alcohol, drugs, or narcotics.
- Comply with all NCAA, Mountain West Conference, and university rules and regulations.
