

Creation

God created everything out of nothing. He brought order out of chaos. All of creation reflects God's nature and purpose. He created everything so that it is good. Good means, appropriate for function, purpose or genre. Goodness implies order, fitness, and beauty.

The heavens are the domain of angels:
Genesis 1:14-19

1. The sun rules the day
2. The moon rules the night
3. The stars are for signs, seasons, days and years

Double click on text to edit.

The earth is the domain of man:
Genesis 1:26-28

1. Man is made after the image of God
2. Man was given dominion of the earth.
3. Man is God's steward of the earth

In the Beginning: Genesis 1-2

1. Man has communion with God
2. Man lives in a paradise
3. Man has access to the tree of life

craigvincentmitchell.com/Bible