

Wake Union Baptist Church

"Where the good news of Jesus Christ is proclaimed in truth and love"

THE LORD'S DAY

February 23, 2020

Call to Worship Leaning on the Everlasting Arms 333
(1, 3)

Invocation

Welcome & Announcements

Scripture Reading Luke 3:7-14 Bill Monroe

Hymn Because He Lives 407
(1, 2)

Children's Bible Time March (ages 3-6)

Morning Prayer

Hymn 'Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus 411
(1, 2)

Offertory Prayer

Doxology *Praise God, from Whom
All Blessings Flow* 253

Special Music Shepherd of Love

Sermon God's Work (C's of Conviction) Pastor
 Luke 19:1-10 Joel

Invitation The Nail Scarred Hand 318

Benediction

EVENING SERVICE

6:00pm

Prelude

Hymn Whosoever Meaneth Me 421
(1, 3)

Welcome and Announcements

Missionary Jeremiah and Joy Farmer East Asia

Hymn The Solid Rock 406
(1, 2)

Message Study in James Pastor Joel

Invitation O Happy Day 439
(1, 2)

Benediction

WORSHIP THIS WEEK

Sunday		Wednesday
9:45 am	Sunday School	10:30 am	Chapel at THE LODGE
11:00 am	Morning Worship		Ron Sathe
2:00 pm	Chapel at THE LODGE	7:00 pm	Prayer & Bible Study
5:00 pm	Choir Practice
6:00 pm	Evening Service

UPCOMING EVENTS

❖ Deacon's Meeting – Monday (2/24) at 7 P.M.

Recent Archaeological Discoveries

Signature of Isaiah the prophet in seal impression?

Another seal impression surfaced in 2018, it nearly says "Isaiah the prophet," but with a letter missing at the end, it's unclear if it actually refers to a personal name.

One piece of evidence that suggests that the seal impression refers to the biblical prophet is a small piece of clay that archeologists recovered in an area near Jerusalem's Temple Mount. This similar seal impression, which was first found in 2015, says "of King Hezekiah of Judah." King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah are mentioned in the same verse 17 times in the Bible.

(Christianity Today)