Ted Turner Receives Award
Given by Film Independent to receive its Film Independent Humanitarian Award recognizing an individual in the world of film and television whose work demonstrates a commitment to humanitarian causes. The award recognized Turner's philanthropic contributions, namely his support of the United Nations Foundation. The presentation was made in partnership with the UCLA Burke Global Impact Initiative, and given to Turner by Film Independent president Josh Welsh at a private dinner at the Beverly Hills home of Ron Burkle.

Multi-Talented Rita Moreno
First Recipient of The Music Center's Excellence in Performing Arts Award is multi-talented actress/dancer/singer Rita Moreno, a pioneer in Creative and Performing Arts. A beloved performer, the award honors Moreno for revolutionary efforts redefining the role of women in the arts. Moreno is one of only 12 performers to receive four major American entertainment awards winning the Emmy, Grammy, Oscar and Tony Awards. Her credits span more than six decades, beginning with her Broadway debut at age 13.
