

NYSUT RC-7 Meet-Up at the Historic Seward House

What: Guided Tour of Seward House

When: 11:00 am Thurs. May 15th

Cost: Free to RC-7 members
($15 non-members)

Home of New York Governor, US Senator, Secretary of State under Abraham Lincoln, leading abolitionist, and driving force in the purchase of the Alaska Territory, William Henry Seward was a man for all seasons. Seward's beautifully preserved home is a national treasure rich in history and style. Located in the heart of Auburn, NY, Seward House is surrounded by the same flower gardens lovingly tended by Sec. Seward and his family.

- No need to register.
- Just show up and sign-in before 11am!

Scan or Click for Directions, Parking and Accessibility Information

Want to Grab Lunch After?
Scan or Click

Free to members thanks to a grant from

