

OTTILIE J. SUCCOP 1906 - 1993

Ottilie J. Succop, 86, onetime resident of Sebawaing and for many years a resident of Ionia, died Sunday, Jan. 17, in Ionia County Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Succop was born Ottilie J. List in Detroit on April 3, 1906, the daughter of Rev. Louis and Ottilie (Grauer) List. She lived in Sebawaing for several years while her father was pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church. She was married to Martin W. Succop. She was a member of the Detroit Bach Chorus, Lutheran Womens Missionary League and was a member of St. Johns Church in Ionia for more than 50 years.

Surviving, besides her husband, Martin, are four daughters, Katherine Daugherty of Fort Collins, CO, Dorothy Schroeder of Farmington, Helen Succop of Birmingham, AL, and Carol Thieme of Decatur, IN, four grandchildren, one brother, Ted List of Saginaw, and two sisters, Dorothy Nitz of Farmington Hills and Esther List of Saginaw. She was preceded in death by one sister, Frieda List of Saginaw.

Funeral Services was held Thursday, Jan. 21, in St. Johns Lutheran Church, Ionia, with Rev. Theodore Volf officiating. Burial will be in Highland Cemetery in the spring.

(Material for this obituary was received by Alice Reinhold of Sebawaing.)