

Hacker, Elwood

Elwood Hacker, 71, of Sheridan Township, passed away Wednesday, March 14, 2007, at his home. Elwood was born in Austin Township, Sanilac County, on October 22, 1935 to the late Albert John and Cora (Puterbaugh) Hacker. He was united in marriage to Jewell E. Little on November 29, 1958 in Bad Axe. Mr. Hacker was a member of Faith Gospel Tabernacle. He was a farmer and was employed as a production worker for General Motors for 31 years before retiring July 1, 1985. He enjoyed antique cars, farming, tractors, attending auctions and especially spending time with his family and friends. He is survived by his wife, Jewell; three sons, Jerry D. Hacker, of Port Austin, Brian D. Hacker (Melissa), of Ubly, and Patrick C. Hacker (Leena Palmer), of Cass City; a daughter, Lori Ann (Raymond) Cohen, of Oakland County; two brothers, Jack "John" (Shirley) Hacker, of Livonia, and Elmer D. Hacker, of Ubly; a sister, Louise Stierman, of Argyle; six grandchildren, Nicole Kappen, Hannah Cohen, Courtney N. Hacker, Katelyn R. Hacker, Bradley E. Hacker, and Meghan A. Hacker. He was preceded in death by four brothers, Bill Clinton Hacker, Norman Cecil Hacker, Herbert Dean Hacker, and J.D. Hacker; and a sister, Leora DiPaola. Services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Monday, March 19, 2007, at the Faith Gospel Tabernacle. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. on Sunday at MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe and from 10 a.m. until the time of the service on Monday at the Tabernacle. Memorials may be offered to the Family Discretionary Fund.
