January 27-29, 2012	WSMLA Convention and trade fair	Casper, WY

Note from WSMLA President

Howdy Fellow Muzzle Loaders!

Well everyone, it's that time of year again...the time when we all say "what the heck happened to this year?!?"

The holidays are coming upon us fast and I don't know about the rest of you, but I'm sure not ready for them. It seems like summer just started last week and now it's already fall. It's been a busy year full of lots of changes in my world and I look forward to seeing what the year ahead will bring. I know one thing it will bring...

WSMLA CONVENTION!! It'll be here before you know it. The 2012 Convention is scheduled for January 27, 28, & 29 at the Parkway Plaza in Casper. We had a great turnout last year and I would love to see even more of you there this time around. The Parkway did a fantastic job last year for those of you who were not able to attend. We have 4 members of the Board of Directors up for election this year: Ed Kern, Dave Lehto, Charlie Romaine, and myself (if you don't know who we are, you can look at our lovely faces on the website). I can't speak for the rest of them, but I would love to have a chance to serve on our Board again. Please be thinking of who you would like to have represent you at the State level. I would also really urge everyone to attend the general meeting that's held Saturday afternoon at Convention. It's the one chance we have each year to be heard by a large group at once and get some instant feedback on new ideas.

See ya'll soon.

Angie Lehto President WSMLA 2011

Note from Paula:

Hope everyone is having a nice Labor Day!

I wanted to let you know I booked Swing Sounds for the band for convention. I have had a number of people request them to come back! They charge $420.00 and meals for Saturday night!

Please pass this on to anyone I missed!

Thanks

Paula

News from the Editor

Hope everyone is having a great hunting season with lots of big game hunting. It won't be very long 'til the snow starts flying and we will be having the winter convention again in Casper.

Sorry this newsletter is late. As usual, I seem to have taken on a few too many projects this fall and I am having heck of time getting them done before the snow starts flying. I spent over a week patching, caulking and painting my house. Then like a dumb bunny I offered to go down and re-side my brother's house, it only took a week longer than planned☹. Now I am almost finishing winterizing everything around here. Still have to finish putting in a couple of windows. I did take a couple of days to go fishing this fall. Fantastic fishing in the fall. I haven't made it out to do any hunting.

I have shoot results from Sierra Madre Rendezvous, Big Horn Basin Muzzleloaders annual shoot, WSMLA Bench Shoot and the Sheridan Pie Shoot. I made it to all of the events except Sierra Madre. The Big Horn Basin Muzzleloaders 25th annual primitive shoot was good; we had a good turnout for the shoot held at Brewster's ranch. It was darn hot outside; however, under the shade trees it wasn't too bad. Tom and Sherri Brewster cooked up the hamburgers and we had a tasty free supper and lunch the next day.

For the first time I made it to the WSMLA Bench shoot in Sheridan. The Sheridan Bullshooter's have been hosting it now for several years. Shooting off of a bench proved to be a lot more difficult for me to figure out. I was all over the place with my shots. Guess I should do some practicing before going to the shoot. Attendance seemed to be down.

I then went over the annual Sheridan Pie shoot. This is always a lot of fun, with the great prizes, pies! Next weekend BHBMA and Glenrock will be holding their annual turkey shoot. Wind River Muzzleloaders will be holding their annual turkey shoot at the Lander range the Sunday before Thanksgiving. Cost is $10.00 with a great lunch included, and the chance to win up to two turkeys and Safeway cards.

The WSMLA state convention is coming up January 27-29, 2012. It will be held again at the Parkway Plaza in Casper, Wyoming. I expect that the trader's area will be expanded due to the increased demand from last year. The general meeting will be held January 28th, 2012 at 2:00 pm. The general meeting is where items can be presented to all member of the WSMLA. The general meeting is where the state awards will be presented along with full reports from board members. This is also a time each club announces their shoot dates and who will be hosting the WSMLA state shoot for 2012. According to my limited records the following people have served their term on the board: Angie Lehto, Dave Lehto, Ed Kern, and Charlie Romaine. There will be 4 positions up for nomination by you the members of the WSMLA. If you want to see this organization continue please consider becoming involved on the WSMLA board. This board also needs to have equal representation from all parts and clubs in Wyoming.

Mike Chapin has been diagnosed with lung cancer. The prognosis isn't good, so please keep him and Peggy in your thoughts and prayers.

I plan on completing a newsletter in January just before convention if you want something published in this newsletter let me know. Please send hunting stories or anything to help with the convention. Keep your powder dry!

This is the results we have so far for the Traveling Trophy Qualifiers for 2012. You can continue to qualify at the Winter Challenge and Wind River Memorial weekend shoot. Remember you have to be a state member to qualify to participate in the Traveling Trophy.

It was a dark and stormy night...oh, different deal. It was September 11, 2011. A different date from when we usually have the pies out to the range to salivate over. So what's a little drool among muzzleloaders? We had another great group of shooters and visitors and guests. We don't get the same exact group every year but we get the same attitude and the same warm fuzzes.

A BIG thank you to Theresa Bader for overseeing the heating of the sloppy Joes so they neither burned nor stuck to the pan. My first year with the recipe, so were a couple of kinks-there will be a bigger batch next time.

And thank you to Albert for returning the plates in time so we could serve lunch. Was darn near a catastrophe (you know-major snafu) Michael Haugen shared his grasshopper catcher do bugger with Ian-George and Willa's grandson-and very patiently spent an hour showing him the ins and outs of this device. This is the way things should be; caring and sharing. Both boys had a good experience; smiles all around.

Steve Haugen brought a couple of new shooters. They took pies. They seemed to have one heck of a good time. I'm not sure about Steve so much-seems both his boys kind of kicked his butt-but it's about the family quality time. Get yourself out to the practice range Steve.

Dave Tyrrell took a couple of pies (his better half was on a bus run that day) back over the mountain, as did Bill Morrison. Now, it is to be noted that these two were apparently not afraid of what traveling might do to a fragile pie as they loaded up and took their bounty away-every bite intact. (So much for the notion that a bunch of these guys would want to share and not be carrying pie back-bought all those extra forks for nothing) Some pies went back down the Interstate to Casper-they weren't shared either. They weren't even shared down there.

So you can see the sort of people who partake of the annual pie shoot.lot of joshing around, lot of camaraderie, some reflection and a lot of collective good time. Twenty people, 18 shooters and mess of pies. Just what more could you ask for? Of course, we missed those who could not be here on a beautiful September Saturday for whatever their myriad of lame excuses. But that's okay, we'll come haunt you like box elder bugs at your next whenever shoot. Jane Sheridan Bull-Shooters

25th Anniversary Shoot

July 30th and 31st 2011

By Lyle Bader

We had a great group of people show up to shoot primitive targets, paper targets and the Bull. It was hotter n' Ol Billy Heck, normal for the last weekend in July here in good old Wyoming. I think everyone had a good time, I know I did, even if my butt is draggin' this Monday morning. My yard and garden got a little dry while I was havin' all this fun, but what the heck. Hopefully the shoot results will follow if I can read my wife's writing.

I'll start with the primitive shootin':

Junior's:

1st. Matt Borovqtz with 12 Hits

2nd Caleb Salzman with 8 hits

Women:

1st Patty Tyrrell 12 hits

2nd Sherring Burke 10 hits

3rd Jane Black 7 hits

4th Jamie Kuklok 6 hits

Men:

1st Jim Hanchett 16 hits

2nd Dave Hein 14 hits

3rd Jake Jacobson 13 hits

4th Tom Brewster 13 hits

5th Bill Morrison 13 hits

6th Dave Tyrrell 13 hits

7th Misfire 12 hits

8th Kyle Lehto 12 hits

9th Ron (what's his name) 12 hits

10th Nick Bader 12 hits

11th John Murphy 12 hits

12th Justin Blake 11 hits

13th Dave Lehto 9 hits

14th Ed Kern 7 hits

15th Mason Kelly 7 hits

16th LyLe Bader 6 hits

17th Terry Crane 6 hits

1th Dave Kuklok 2 hits

I guess that takes care of the primitive shootin' for this year. Now we will move on to the paper punchers.

Paper Puncher's:

Travelling Trophy Winner's

MEN: Dave Hein 49x
WOMEN: Jane Black 48x

I reckon that is the total sum of it until next year. I hear the majority of the shooter's who attended are 60 and over, so GOD Willing, I will see you all again next year. We only had 3 of the original member's there last weekend. Tom Brewster, Dave & Patty Tyrrell, I didn't arrive until 1987.

The End

*The** Irish Funeral***

A man was leaving a convenience store with his morning coffee when he noticed a most unusual funeral procession approaching the nearby cemetery. A black hearse was followed by a second black hearse about 50 Feet behind the first one. Behind the second hearse was a solitary man walking a dog on a leash. Behind him, a short distance back, were about 200 men walking single file.

The man couldn't stand the curiosity. He respectfully approached the man walking the dog and said: "I am so sorry for your loss, and this may be a bad time to disturb you, but I've never seen a funeral like this. Whose funeral is it?"

"My wife's."

"What happened to her?"

"She yelled at me and my dog attacked and killed her."

He inquired further, "But who is in the second hearse?"

The man answered, "My mother-in-law. She was trying to help my wife when the dog turned on her."

A very poignant and touching moment of brotherhood and silence passed between the two men.

"Can I borrow the dog?"

The man replied, "Get in line."

Wyoming State Bench Match 2011

Hosted by Bullshooters of Sheridan Wyoming

The Sheridan Bullshooters hosted the 2011 Wyoming State Bench Match at their shooting range west of Sheridan. There was a real light turnout of shooters on Saturday, however, by Sunday, a few more shooters showed up to test their hand at shooting off the bench. Weather was perfect and had a good time. We did learn that if you are going to Sheridan for a shooting match you can camp at the range for $10.00 per night.
