Chaplain's Message

This past year slipped by in a hurry, didn't it? Our club did a neat variety of events together. It always blesses me to see the number of children that are helped by our club at Christmas time. Pat and I were able to go to Cornerstone Assistance Network where we observed the heartfelt enthusiasm and appreciation for the number of children our Club enabled to have Christmas gifts. We have had many family and health needs to pray for this year. I'm glad our club realizes the importance of praying together for those needs. As we know, God hears and answers every one of our prayers. Sometimes the answers are "No". Or maybe "Just wait a while". Thank you for listening to me as I have shared from my heart this year. It is wonderful to be able to share the hope that we have through Jesus Christ. Jesus left the comfort of his home in Heaven to come spend a few years here on earth. He told us about God in a way that, if we listen, we could clearly understand. Then he taught us about God through his death and resurrection that has paid our sin debt so that we too could come live eternally with him. In John 8:12, he said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life." And therein lies our hope. Join me as we look forward to the New Year with the Hope that will carry us through all that the new year may bring.

Stan

President's Message

The CCC Club had a successful 2016 Car Show Season with lots of laughs, fun trips, and activities. Joe Bob Powers was Mr. Valentine HUNK. Anita Hale, The Crazy Lady, will be missed at the T-Shirt table. She moved to Oregon. Linda Walker, CCC Newsletter Editor will also be missed. Thanks for doing a great job all these years.

The Club October Picnic was a fun time of grilling hamburgers and hot dogs, along with the ladies supplying all the delicious side dishes and desserts. With paper plates on our heads, we drew jack-o-lanterns as the president gave verbal instructions. The end results were Vincent vanGogh jack-o-lanterns. We had a root beer drinking contest to see who could belch the biggest and loudest. Mr. Bobby Stout was the winner.

For the Grapevine and Arlington Christmas Parades the CCC float was a live Nativity Scene. Following the float were the Club cars decorated with Christmas lights.

The Club received nine bikes, a scooter, and 12 bags of Christmas toys at the Christmas in October Car Show. All the bikes and toys went to the Club's two charities, Metro Ministries and Safe Haven. Over 550 kids were also blessed with Toys-R-Us gift cards.

We ended the year with our annual Christmas Party at the Trophy Club. There was the Steal-a-Christmas package exchange along with the Right Family Christmas Story to determine the winners of the door prizes and table center pieces. The winner of the Club banner raffle was Joe Bob Powers.

Thanks to everyone who made this year successful. See everyone at the next Club Meeting on January 10, 2017.

Happy New Year!

Happy New Year Ya'll! I'm sitting here looking at my CCC wardrobe wondering what I'm going to wear based on this wonderful Texas weather. Let's see, I have shorts, white CCC T-shirt and my CCC ball cap over here for mild days.
