

Christy Harter

Lead Prevention Educator Forensic Interviewer & Youth Advocacy Council (YAC) Advisor

Christy is a graduate of Oakland University with a Bachelor's degree in Wellness and Health Promotion & Injury Prevention. She has a passion for people to help make their voices heard and help achieve individual and community wellness in all aspects of life. Christy has devoted numerous years as a volunteer teacher to young children. Christy is married to her husband, Dylan, and has three cats, Chocolate Chip, S'mores and Peanut.